

would be pardoned, therefore, for saying, it was ary that he should refrain from all proceedings may be calculated to excite a suspicion that he was prejudiced. Our Roman Catholic fellow-country-he was afraid, began to consider the giving that as a sign and symbol unfavourable to them (applause) as was consistent with the security of our Constitu-and Church, he wished that their claims may be sucl; it was quite natural that his Roman Catholic en should wish for the success of their question.— the details of that question, how they were to be ted, under what forms, and what securities were ite, was not for him to state. Some of the greatest ad disagreed on those points; therefore he would them to the consideration of better Statesmen to . He may have his private opinions; he hoped would be candour on both sides; he may be allowed certain a hope that the matter may be arranged bly to the best interests of all. He trusted it would deemed improper in one connected with the admiion of the laws of the land to say this. He sin-hoped he had not trespassed upon the patience of npany, while he felt extremely grateful for the pa-with which he had been heard.—(Great applause.) ne Right Hon. the Lord Mayor."—Great applause.
 High Sheriff said, a lingering indisposition, was unfortunately a great loss to the citizens of n, had prevented his Lordship honouring him with npany to dinner on that occasion. nsellor Abbot rose, and expressed his thanks for her's health having been given. He assured the Sheriff and the Gentlemen present, that illness had prevented the attendance of the Lord Mayor; nked them, not only for the marked compliment ved in drinking the toast, but for the most distin-d marks of kind feeling and approbation with it had been accompanied. He knew the Lord to be truly anxious for the discharge of his imporduties—that he would always feel deeply gratified e approving voices of his fellow citizens, as a re-more than adequate for his humble efforts. No-but the delicate state of his health prevented his the high honour of receiving in person the testiof kindness and good feeling from his fellows, which they had just conferred. He would enur, however inadequately, to convey the sentiment Lordship; he was quite sure it would tend to inte his health, and re-animate his efforts in the dis-of his public duty. He had the honour of thank-e company, and drinking all their good healths incingly.—(Great applause.) he Lord Chancellor and the Irish Bench." on Smith returned thanks. He was sure the com-nt, so honourable to those by whom it was con-and to those for whom it was intended, would be it ought to be. For himself, his part in the toast very minute, he knew not how to return thanks share of it. is Grace the Archbishop of Dublin." City Chaplain being loudly called on, rose and Mr. Sheriff—The duty of returning thanks for ost unexpectedly devolved upon me. Identified as distinguished individual is with the constitution of ountry, I need not but refer you to his evidence the Imperial Parliament, to justify the good feel-this respectable assemblage in the compliment ed upon him, as the faithful and uncompromispporter of its best interests in the Church and n the health of Sheriff Alley was given, he re-thanks, and proposed that of aron Sir William Smith."—(Cheers.) Learned Baron said, from his heart he felt grate-the compliment, which he yet feared was unde-If not a reward for the past, he hoped it may eful and valuable encouragement for the future. ped he would always recollect the honour done may show that the individual on whom they had d that particular compliment, is not altogether g of it. He felt sensible of the honour confer-wished for permission to add, that he was their citizen, having been born in the city of Dublin,

REMITTANCES TO ENGLAND, &c.
 AS HE CAN GIVE THEM
BANK OF IRELAND POST BILLS or DRAFTS
At any Night or Date, On Sir C. GAYN, Bart. & Co.
 BANKERS, LONDON,
 And Order DUBLIN payable on DEMAND.
GOVERNMENT STOCK and DEBENTURES in the English Irish Funds, Bought and Sold at this Office, where thly Prices of each may be known, and every Information received.
 OFFICE, 99, Upper George's-street.
 Limerick, January 14, 1826.

The Limerick Chronicle
 SA TUAY, JANUARY 14.

On Wednesday, the police stationed at Oula, in this County, went the house of an individual named Darby Ryan, on lands of Newtown-Eillard, where a christening was to apprehend Ryan's brother, and not finding him they discovered amongst the persons assembled, Terence Ryan, against whom they had informations. Aftering him prisoner, there was an attempt made to rescim, and serious violence having been used, the Pol were obliged to use their fire arms, and William Burke of the opposing party, was fired at, and unfortunately killed.

A man named Calius Garvin, was apprehended on Tuesday last, conceid under straw in a barn near Shandrum, adjacent Charleville, by the Police from the latter place. Was detained by Major Maxwell, and forwarded to thounty Jail under a committal of James Bennett, Es the Coroner, charged with the murder of a man at fair of Dromin.

At an Inquest held Wednesday last, at Ballynra-han, before the Right Hon. Lord Clarina and the Rev.
 Richard Dickson, thery of which Thomas G. Peecock, Esq. was forem having examined the witnesses present at the death of the late Captain Alexander Rose, and having taken a view of his body, returned a verdict,
 "that he died by the tation of God."

Early last week, twen of suspicious appearance were observed passing thugh Charleville, on the road to Liscarroll. They were rused by Mr. Lumden, C. C. and a party of Police, v apprehended them at a short distance, and brought th before Samuel Maxwell, Esq. by whose order they were searched, when a quantity of wearables, a piece of £2 in silver, and a number of printed receipts wed "Christopher Galway," were found on their perso. The receipts were passed to Thomas Conway, a far, living near Hospital, who on being sent for immedia, recognised the fellows, as those who broke into his he the night previous, forced open his chest, and took th several articles found in their possession. Their names: Patrick Bingham and John Bingham, they have be nance committed for trial.

A party of countrymen e met on Thursday night, at a late hour, near Robert's, by two Policemen who were patrolling. One of ti party had fire-arms, which were taken by the Police a handed over to the Rev.
 George Vincent.

Counsellor Tombe, our r, Assistant Barrister, has, since Monday last, been eaged in dispatching the Rathkeale Sessions busines which ended yesterday evening—32 persons were thence lodged in the County Jail, being convicte and sentenced to imprisonment for twelve months arunder. It is hoped this exemplary punishment will vent a repetition of the bloody factious scenes that he disgraced several of the recent fairs.

Convictions at Rathkeale narter Sessions.—John Hogan, Thady Hogan, Jo Fitzgerald, Maurice Savage, Timothy Sullivan, Enond Barrett, and John Hogan of Knockany—the lar to be imprisoned 12 months, the others 9 months en, to pay prosecutor 2l. and to give bail for their ed behaviour. Daniel Hough, Edmond Hough, and trick Hough—the two first to be imprisoned 6 months.

Richard Mansell, Esq. late of the appointed Lieutenant and Adjutant Veteran Battalion, in India.
 On Monday four companies of the 3 Rifle Brigade marched to Cove, and e the transports to convey them to Mal two companies more followed—and remainder proceeded for embarkation—has sailed for its destination.

Yesterday the 79th Highlanders mar from Fermoy to do duty in place of the The Depot of the 37th Foot, now received orders to march to Weedon Bar The depot of the 80th R. sent of at Liverpool, from Manchester, and e Isle of Man.

Detachments belonging to the 6th and of Infantry, embarked from Graveyard, on board the East India Company's ship Bombay.

Detachments for the 10th, 86th, and 6 have marched from Westminster for Bri for Ireland.

The 10th Regiment of Infantry has re mentation establishment.

The sentence of the Court Martial bel garrison (of which Major-General Sir Ed K.C.B. was President,) on Lieutenant Ensign Rowcroft, of the 53d Regiment gated on Monday last. The charge again croft, of his having used language unbr racter of an Officer, was proved, and sentenced to be dismissed from the serv Binstead for not having exercised the aut rior Officer, in putting Ensign R. under words were uttered (they were on a show sentenced to be admonished.

The Admiralty having allowed one ye the old uniform, the regulations of la to the new Naval uniform, took full of January last.

Twenty-six recruits have joined the D Foot, at Chichester, during the week. have joined the Depot of the 94th Foot during the same period.

The Hope Transport has landed the 4 Regiment at Albany Barracks, Isle of V sailed again for the depot of the 1st Roy

The right wing of the 31st Regiment, of Lieut.-Colonel Cassidy, has arrived the Charles Grant, from England.

Mr. Coleman, purser of the Royal Ne English person that perished in the loss o Company's Transport Lotus. The offic 14th, and other Regiments escaped.

The following are the rates of Allow to Field and Staff Officers of Infantry lieu of Forage for Horses—Antrim 2s 6d Armagh, 1s 8d—Monaghan 1s 8d—Fermagh, 1s 5d Londonderry, 2s 1d Dublin, 1s 7d—Wicklow, 1s 7d—Ki Kilkenny, 2s—Carlow, 2s—Queen's Co 1s 6d—Meath, 1s 6d—Wexford, 1s 9d—Sligo, 1s 7d—Leitrim, 1s 7d—Mayo, 1 mon, 1s 3d—Westmeath, 1s 5d—Lon King's County, 2s—Cork, 1s 7d—Wa Kerry, 1s 10d—Clare, 1s 6d—Limeric perary, 1s 8d—The Counties in whic Contracts, 1s 8d.

There are no Military Promotions Gazette of Tuesday.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant to appoint George Courtenay, of Drom Sheriff of the County of Cork for the en

A very well deserved address from assembled at Rathkeale Sessions, to Esq. the upright and efficient late Assie this County, appears in our Advertising

The members of the Duballow Hon splendid sporting dinner in Mallow, to who may be styled the "Father of the is acco