contest in which our Last india interests ginally issued. · On Monday night a party of fellows attacked a farm Cork Constitution. in circulation of the Marquis of Wellesley house at Camas, near Newcastle, where we brothers of foundation, is utterly untrue.—Patriot. its since sixteen sheep belonging to Mr. ount Stopford, County Kilkenny, were ibbed, fifteen of which were found dead This savage outrage can only be attribu-resign the Government of Ireland has not z a relation of the late Mr. Marum, a ic gentleman, for whose murder six men in Galmoy day, Mr. Manning, professor of dancing, oor in Waterford, and fractured his arm.

rates of Kilkenny have refused to grant any for the retail of spirits for the present year. hips the Judges have, upon consultation, opinion, that under the present law perof raisdemeanour are not subject to the the Tread-mill. istorial Court of Cloyne, on Tuesday, the Hingston decided, that the Rev. John is entitled to tithes on the lands of Rathcorty-four years. The tenants have appealed gement to the Court of the Archbishop of on of the Waterford Auxiliary Bible Society sded to Carrick, on Tuesday, to form a at town, encountered at the Methodist ise, a most rancorous hostility. A large got possession of the building, who made proar and confusion while the proceedings . The speakers were assailed with shouts d cries of "drag them out" while on re-mbers were pelted with mud and stones.-

Cork, where they had not been collected and that an ivestigation into all the circumfields, and the Jury returned a verdict, " Died by the alleged atrocious conduct of a Priest, in the rry, is now going forward at Newtownlims. tope of clearing away the scandal which has the late disgusting transactions. In our conduct of the titular Bishop, who could shield the criminal, is about the worst feauseemly affair-Belfast Paper. whole story we are now acquainted, and st unexceptionable authority—that of the Journal. We shall give the names without ision of legal consequences. The Priest

Rev. Neal O'Flaherty, the Parish Priest of navady. The Lady Complainant is Catherine as O'Farrel; and the Magistrate, before positions were taken, is a Beresford-" Barre highly respectable Magistrate!" The Lady's ne is Francis Farrel, of Ballyness .- The or the Rev. Neal O'Flaherty, was the Rev. rty. Now here are the names-and what d, the Londondery Journal? Our Derry y declined inserting the letter, among other this-that the Rev. Neal O'Flaherty had ry, and that his character, during his abode en irreproachable. The Editor thinks the ine because John Dougan told him so .ing Post, oner Parsons will hold a Court for the dissolvent Debtors at Wicklow, 6th February; ; Waterford, 10th; Cloninel, 13th; Cork, ee, 21st; Limerick, 24th; Ennis, 27th; March; Philipstown, 6th; Maryborough, ny, 10th; Carlow, 13th; Naas, 14th.

FEVER HOSPITAL.

CK HOSPITAL, held at the Bank-House, on it, the 19th instant—the LORD BISHOP ICK in the Chair-It appeared to the Meet-Institution was in debt £500 It was Charity Sermons should be preached in the irches and Chapels of the Diocese; as also ould benddressed to the Landed Proprietors funda ring Donations were handed to the Treasurer:

of Limerick, 10%. British; Robt. Maunsell, eting of the GOVERNORS of the FEVER

11th January, 1826. SIR. T is with the greatest regret I learn by a letter received from your Agent, Mr. DARTNELL, from Limerick, that an Execution issued by me against quite a different person, has, in consequence of erroneous information given me, been executed at your residence at Ballyvally. I am quite aware how much anxiety and annoyance the occurrence must have caused to you and your family, and that were you to proceed in the action commenced by you for the injury you have sustained, very ample remuthe name of Cotter reside, for the purpose of taking off their sister; but, from the manly and spirited resistance of the brothers, the party were beat off, but not until one of them was severely wounded in the throat, by the dart

Police, proceeding with others to execute a warrant, was accidentally shot in the thigh, near Rathmere, by one of his companions, to whom he had given his carbine to hold. Surgical assistance arrived too late, and the ill fated young man who sustained a good character, died on Tuesday, in the river Feale, which runs through Listowel. The body was conveyed to Listowel by Chief Constable Lambort and the Police, in order to have an

A woman was found dead from strangulation at A farmer's house was accidentally burned on Thurs-

A Countryman, named Maurice Fitz-Gibbon, from An inquest was held in Newport, on Monday, by J. peared he was suddenly taken ill in passing through the Quarter Sessions, which terminated on Monday .-

Malachy and Daniel Moynahan, for assaulting Patrick

Pierse, a Policeman, were sentenced to imprisonment for 6 months and a fine of 3t. The Police Constable, it appeared, had made himself very active in quelling a riot between two factions, which excited the vengeance of those miscreants who tracked him to his quarters, near Dunloe, and beat him so unmercifully, that his life was

On Saturday last, the Sessions of Nenagh terminated.

Upwards of 1,300 Civil Bills were disposed of; several convictions in cases of riot took place, but none of them were aggravated ones. During the Sessions, viz, on Monday night, a desperate riot took place in Poundstreet, between the Kennedys and Graces; having attacked the houses belonging to both parties in the same street, they broke 177 panes of glass. The Graces having lodged informations against the Kennedys, the trial

, were convicted at the Killarney near Rathkeale, dropped dead this morning at a merchant's Hopos are since entertained of her recovery.

A man of the name of Dickson was found drowned,

On Saturday, James Chute, one of the Killarney of a pitch-fork, of which he has since died.

from loss of blood.

are in custody for the crime.

day, near Pallas-Kenry.

Visitation of God."

for some timein danger.

is to come on the next Sessions.

inquest held.

neration in damages would be awarded to you by a Jury of your country; and although misled myself, I feel extreme gratification in offering you this apology, and in expressing my process acknowledgments for the truly generous and forgiving disposition fou have winced upon the occasion, and I be of you, of, to be a send that if a recompense of any but nathre than this fery insuriciout one, could be more ecceptable to a person of four character, it should be most freely offered. Hoping that you will make such use of this letter as may be most gratifying to your feelings, and may explain to the public Alderman Watson, Thady Vaughan, Patri and William Abern, for uttering forged Bank of Ireland. By the Mayor, Davi eloping from his master's employment, beir apprentice. By Alderman Watson, Thos.

the nature of the mistake which has been committed, I drivers along with him; told him in reply, then so much in his house; Riordan conti he had 5s. 5d. it would do, and desired him of his companions, declining to take it witness did, and they went away. Unfortunately, from some defect in the indictment, the prisoner was acquitted on the

To support the second indictment against

Patrick Ryan was sworn and examined.—C

December, Riordan came to him for the qu land, which he said was about 114; witness had not any money for him, as he had but I landlord .- After some altercation Riordan ness gave him 7s. 6d. he would pass him bye

In the commencement of the trial, he loud Mr. Apjohn with an action, for keeping h eleven days. The Barrister, previous to pronouncing se mented forcibly on the guilty nature of his not from want of evidence.

on the first indictment.

Culleriah, County Tipperary, last week, and two persons told him he was convicted of illegally taking Mr. Apjohn, under the colourable prete authority, whereas, in truth and fact, he ha ever to sanction his proceedings. He was c On Monday, a girl seven or eight years old, daughter second indictment, with taking 5s. 5d. from of a carpenter, named Pinc, fell out of a second floor window, at Ennis, and was taken up apparently lifeless.

for what he called " passing him bye," and levy a distress at the moment. Happily second indictment was not properly framed; been found guilty, he would undoubtedly h duty to inflict a very severe sentence on th store. The Mayor held an inquest on the body, when a He, and other subordinate officers acting un verdict " Died by the visitation of God" was returned. of Government, should be perfectly sensiattempt to extort money from his Majesty's st Carroll, Esq. Coroner, on the body of John Howard, who was found dead on the lands of Bassaree. It ap-most certainly meet with a summary and se ment. It was one of the first duties of a (to protect the King's subjects from any this The first case on which he had been convicof a very serious nature, but not of so age scription as the other. The prisoner made the lands to which Mr. Apjohn is agent, having been effected, applied to a Magistrate a warrant, and, under the colour of that succeeded in obtaining 3t. 12s. 6d., for the pose of compensation for that rescue. He sary again to observe, that the prisoner posor authority whatsoever, to take a single sh an occasion, or for such a purpose. He a ruptly and illegally in exacting the money, censurable did his conduct appear to the was determined to visit his guilt with a served punishment, for nothing can tend degree to rouse the passions, and to excite t tion of the Country people, than a repetition warrantable acts. He was justified, there tencing him to imprisonment and hard l calendar months in the County Guol. The Lady Rowena, convict vessel, Russel Cove on Thursday, with female convicts for Wales. Committed, to the City Jail, by the deserter from the 83d Regt. of foot. By (Jas. Hanly, Patrick Halvey, and Mary Hal stealing. The Treasurer of the Mendicity yeste from the Mayor, fifteen shillings, a fine servant of Captain Jervis's, for being drunk house. The Treasurer of the House of Industri five pounds from the Lord Bishop of Lin

The Rev. Pryce Peacocke acknowledge two guineas from the Lord Bi-hop of Liuse of the widows of St. George's Alins-la It will be seen by the Latery Advertis mode of Adventure is about to cease for ev is now announced to be drawn