

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE—W

Corporal Cornelius Dwyer, of the attalion, and his wife, were attacked Galway, and cruelly beat. In outrage, the ruffians forcibly of the female, and robbed her of ward is offered for their apprehenknown, it is hoped they will be soon in the County Westmeath, is particu-rites, firing shots, singing and shout-the terror and disturbance of the conducted there.

ern, committed by the Mayor, for s in this City last week, were tried for the same offence, and acquitted at evidence.

quest was held at Abington, by Mr.
upon the body of a man named John ed in a bog-hole. On investigation, e was subject to fits, and must have —“Accidental Death.”

the Mayor committed to the City jail, cted under the Game Act of vending urchased from a poacher. The hare sent to the Orphan School.

ale infant was found this morning in St. Mary, by some persons attending a large farm house, the property of Ballybricken, was maliciously burned point of Ringaskiddy. A new tenant on a few days before, who was making

Cork has received a communication s, stating, that as soon as the new copper ne mint, it will be distributed, without several towns in Ireland.

of Cork was convicted on Tuesday, on the prosecution of a gentleman who and from whom one farthing less had is change, occasioned by the change in Grand Masquerade and Festival at the rk, will take place on the 6th February, ge of the nobility and gentry and the ldge of Munster. The theatre will be variegated lamps, independent of wax-r, 2809 patients were admitted to the Cork—of whom 2665 were discharged d in the hospital. The receipts of the e same period were 17011. and the orge Bingham has subscribed 21. to the k Indigent Room-Keepers Society.

sions Court, yesterday, Thomas James , master and mate of the brig Economy, assaulting Daniel Crean, a publican, a fortnight's imprisonment and a fine of ay, a shoemaker, convicted of breaking s employer, Mr. M'Leod, was sentenced Recorder of Cork to one month's im-lormains of the Right Hon. the Countess Edmund M'Donnell, Esq. are immediht, with reference to their Mineral Pro-he direction of some eminent and distin-Capitalist.

sh Mining Company have taken a lease Silver Mines of Derry, near Killaloe, 10. per annum. From the report of Mr.
urately inspected it, the most brilliant

DEATHS.

On Sunday night, in Shannon-street, Mrs. Walsh, sincerely and deservedly regretted.

On Monday, at the North Strand, Mr. R. Atkinson.

On Friday, the 20th inst., aged 74, Mr. T. Dooly, for many years Proprietor of the King's Arms Hotel, Duke-square, Parsonstown.

In Dublin, John Robbins, Esq. formerly Captain in the 13th Light Dragoons.

At his residence in Harcourt-Place, in the 67th year of his age, John Crotty, Esq. late of Roscrea, Co. Tipperary.

Suddenly, in Bandon, William Allman, Esq. for many years an extensive cotton manufacturer.

Anna, eldest daughter of Anthony Blackburn, Esq. of Parsonstown, County Meath.

In Galway, the Rev. John Fallon, O. S. D.

At Bandon, at the very advanced age of 102 years, Mrs. Donovan, relict of the late James Donovan, of Clonakilty, Esq.

At Woodtown West, County Meath, John Reade, Esq.
formerly a Barrister at Law.

At Glasnevin, Deborah, relict of the late Win. Salmon, of Anglesea-street, Dublin, Esq.

M. Kirwan, Esq. of Delgan-Park, County Mayo.

Suddenly, in the Sessions Court, Loughrea, immediately after examining a witness on Thursday week, Redmond Lynch, Esq. Attorney.

D. H. Boyd, Esq. Major of the Downshire Militia.

In consequence of a fall from his horse, near Taghmon, Mr. Thomas Cooney, of New Ross.

Sarah, relict of the late Abraham Newland, Esq. of Aungier-street, Dublin.

At Carrick-on-Shannon, John Lloyd, Esq. Surgeon to the County Leitrim Infirmary.

In Wintropp-street, Cork, Mr. Gamble.

In Waterford, Miss Deborah Budd.

At Farlinggay-hall, near Woodbridge, Suffolk, Mrs.
Webb, relict of Major William Webb.

Mr. Terence Conway, of Cuffe-street, Dublin.

At Hendirsyde Park, on the 13th instant, aged 70, universally respected and regretted, George Waldie, Esq.
Deputy-Lieutenant for the County of Roxburgh, and father-in-law to Richard Griffith, Esq. Government Engineer for the Southern District.

In the 21st year of his age, Mr. Henry Moran, son of Mr. Moran, proprietor of the Hibernian Hotel at Holyhead. His death was occasioned by the small-pock, although innoculated when he was six months old.

In Peter's-row, Dublin, Mrs. Dickenson, relict of the late Mr. Isaac Dickenson.

In London, on Wednesday, Rose Lambert Price, Esq.
husband to the Countess of Desart.

At Hastings, Harriet, wife of Vice-Admiral Parker.

Ellza, wife of John Ramsden, of Hammersmith, Esq.

At Brighton, the wife of David Mitchelson, Esq.

At Bristol, Frances, eldest daughter of the late Lieut.- Colonel George Wade.

At Cheltenham, Sarah, wife of Samuel Smyth, Esq.
of Westport, County Mayo.

At Devonport, John Macnamara, Esq. late Purser in the Royal Navy.

At Culworth, Northamptonshire, Major John Harling, formerly of the East India Company's Military Service.

William Northey, Esq. M. P. for Newport, Cornwall.

At Hastings, Jemina, daughter of Col. Symes, late 76th Regt. and formerly Ambassador to the Court of Java.

ENNIS SCHOOL

VACATION

It will enjoy the 30th inst. to the 31st of January

DANCING AND FENCING

MR. MEINY

PROFESSOR OF DANCING, FENCING

FORMERLY OF THE OPERA-HOUSE, LONDON

HAS the honour to announce to the Gentry of Limerick and its Vicina-Morning and Evening Schools are now Reception of Pupils, at his Residence at 25, George-street, where he will Teach of DANCING, according to the most app-of Paris and London. Grown Ladies and who may wish to acquire a chef d'œuvre in nently superior accomplishment, would do themselves of the opportunity now afforded in a Style not to be excelled in any part of The etiquette of the Ball Room explained.
istic Dancing taught.

DAYS OF ATTENDANCE—Monday and every week.

HOURS—Morning School, from half-past o'clock.—Evening ditto, from half-past 6

TERMS—Morning School, One Guinea Quarter.—Evening ditto, One Guinea.

N. B.—As Mr. M. will not require first Quarter will be payable in advance.

Mr. M. will Teach the Useful and Ef-FENCING, and will give Lessons on BUDEFIELD'S unrivalled system of Walking vented by that exalted personage for the own immediate Family.—He will also in SINGING.

Mr. M. has got with him a variety of onable French QUADRILLS, selected by Paris, de la Collection, de Colinet, directeur des Bats de-la-cour, which may be had of Copies of his (Mr. M's) own much admired with the delightful Valse L'Hirondelle Vien- 35, George-street,

NOTICE.

MR. KELLY, Inspector of Fisheries sary to Publish an Extract from an ment for the Information of the Public, conceive they have a right to kill all kind the 1st of February; he, therefore, cau-whatsoever against transgressing the sam-mined as far as lies in his power, to puniand without respect to persons.

26th Geo. III. sec. 5, That any person whose custody any Salmon or Trout taken and known by the name of Red Salmon, R-Slats, or Spent Salmon or Spent Trout or who shall be exposing for Sale such Fivicted before a Justice of the Peace, shall such Fish, Five Shillings; and, if such pe-levied by distress, such person or person mitted to prison for a space not exceeding less than fourteen days for the first offerceeding six months, nor less than three m-future time, such Spent Salmon, Slats, which shall be found in his, or their pos-Mr. KELLY, in order to further pro-above described, will prosecute all pers-Goff in the taking of such Fish, in

PETER O'BRIEN

BEGS to give Notice, that on and after the First of FEBRUARY next, in accordance with a Resolution of