Limerick Chronicle

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18.

On the night last, four men entered the house of David Leahy, at Ballingaddy, near took two guns with them, the property Esq. of Mount-Coote: two of them had a pistol, another a bayonet. A Leahy, a tailor, who resided sometimes had the guns, which were entrusted to can to kill game.

On the morning of the 9th instant, the house of a man, at Knockerty, within two or three miles of sacked, and two shots fired through one A few of the slugs lodged in the head

After division, with the band of the 63d, Colonel Burke, will arrive here on Monday.
 the 79th Regiment has marched from gh.

A letter from the 77th Regiment, dated Jamaica, 25th December, 1825—"I am you, that our light Company has lost a men, and all in the course of two months, ry and May last, and still there are some so rapid; we have lost about twenty-five pany, and the band and buglers are all head-quarters arrived in Falmouth, on the Kingston to Falmouth, the Regiment lost woman, two children, and ten men; we Pigott, Captain Jeffrey, Captain Bowen, rshall, with a great many more—the whole Regiment lost is about 360."

The Regiment is coming home from India, in the r; General Sewell is returning in the same merous detachment of recruits for the 92d

200 tons burden, Greenock, with Sugar, and Molasses, was driven on the rocks, at Drumkeir, in Dingle Bay, and totally wrecked.
 Not a vestige of the cargo has been saved, and only a few spars, belonging to the vessel. The coast guard under, Lieutenant Bowie, exerted themselves to the most. Out of a crew of eleven men, one only perished.
 Great quantities of Butter in Firkins, marked "F" (within a Diamond) have been cast on shore all along the Western Coast, from Brandon Head, to Fertiter Creek, and also on the Iveragh Coast.

Several pieces of wreck, marked John and Ann, of London, have been picked up on the Milford coast.

The Dunira, East Indiaman, Hamilton; from Downs, for Bengal and China, with a detachment of the 12th Light Infantry on board, put into Cork harbor yesterday, with loss of fore-topmast, and main and mizmasts. One man was killed in the heavy gale on the 14th instant.
