

board of First Fruits.
 has arrived in Dublin.
 Doneraile, has appointed the Rev.
 one of his Domestic Chaplains. y, three fat cows were stolen off the ilteely, the property of the Rev. Chanter long chase by Constable Belsher, of succeeded in apprehending the robber, o is lodged in Jail by Major Croker.
 y last, a party of the Kilmallock Police, and of that efficient officer Benjamin proceeded to the lands of Balaracra, fatiguing search, they succeeded in ap-potted offender, named John McCarthy, a by the name of Shaun Baun; he evaded the last, and escaped the vigilance of the mes.

Imperial Standard Weights and Measures
 from London.
 a notice to the inhabitants of this city, to et of Parliament which is in force since the Act inflicts a penalty of Five Pounds not using the New Imperial Standard addition to which, the public ought to s contracted according to the old weights are not recoverable in a Court of Law.
 O'Shaughnessy against the National Iny, for the recovery of £700, on the life . Wilkinson, Esq. which was to have next Assizes, has been settled, the Comceed to pay the Policy.
 er has been convicted at the Magistrates on, on the informations of the Clerk of roker, for taking in an article of pawn of four o'clock, p. m. contrary to the ap. 49, sec. 30.

presented to the Commons by Mr. s not for a Police Act for Cork, but from the Kilmallock and Charleville roads for their Bill.
 ny of last Wednesday, we had the painful recording the death of Mrs. Massy, relict gh Massy, of Stagdale, Esq. Peculiar real our attention to the removal of this idual from this world of sorrow. While losed on her mortal remains, her mourning ephan children have one—one, only—but consolation," amidst the wide desolation happiness. They "sorrow not as those —hope that, as living she acknowledged, comforted in death by the Gospel.—That in mony concerning Jesus Christ, as the ap-of the ungodly, she was given to see the ivine Being identified with the eternal sal-rs. Meek and gentle in her disposition, she o her acquaintance. Fond and careful as a s to her family cannot be repaired—while and highly respectable relatives have had a in their social circle, long and deservedly to I painfully remembered. atifying to every friend to the improvement mind, and to the melioration of the con-rking classes, to observe the active progress g all over the country, for this very desira-The extensive library of the Limerick stitute will be opened on Monday, for the bers, when those who have not yet sub-is hoped, perceive the advantages that must he encouragement of such an admirable that is good and useful in society.

The Lady of Samuel Morewood, Esq. Collector of Excise at Fermoy, of twins.
 At Mullamore, County Tyrone, the Lady of the Rev.
 Thomas Carpendale, of a son.
 At Marble-Hill, County Galway, the Lady of Sir John Burke, Bart. of a daughter.
 In London, Marchioness Clanrickarde, of a daughter.
 The Lady of Thomas Wyse, jun. Esq. of the Manor of St. John, Waterford, and daughter of Lucien Bonaparte, Prince of Canino, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

In Dublin, George Nairn, Esq. of Dame-street, to Cecilia, daughter of John H. Campbell, Esq.
 William Purefoy Lunn, of Lumville, King's County, Esq. to Jane, widow of the late Shawe Cartland, Esq. of Leitrim, in said County.
 Edward Southwell Ward, Esq. of Castleward, County Down, to Harriet Margaret

Henry Maxwell, of Temple-Michael, County Longford.
 In Newry, J. Walmsley, Esq. to Margaret, daughter of Andrew McKnight, of Greenfield, Kilkneel, Esq.
 Michael Fogarty, Esq. son of the late Doctor Fogarty, of Tipperary, to Margaret, eldest daughter of John Murphy, of Woodford, Esq.
 At Clareville, James French, Esq. of Woodpark, to Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Josh. Leonard, Esq. of Outerard, County Galway.
 At Monkstown Church, Annesley Brownrigg, Esq.
 jun. of Park-Annesley, County Wexford, to Francis, only daughter of the late Maurice B. Annesley, Esq.

DEATHS.

In Clare-street, George Unthank, Esq.
 At Annaholy, of inflammation in the bowels, James and Thomas, sons of Mr. James Dondon, and not four weeks ago, his infant daughter, Eliza.
 In Mallow, Mr. Pierce Mansfield, Apothecary.
 In Dublin, Margaret, wife of Surgeon Wright.
 At New Ross, Matilda Margaret, daughter of the Rev. Thomas Surridge.
 At Kilmartin, County Wicklow, Mrs. Fox.
 In Dublin, the wife of Mr. John Chapman, ship agent.
 Mr. Daniel Haulon, of Blackpool, Cork.
 In Clonmel, Mrs. Labarte, relict of J. Labarte, Esq.
 Mr. John Prendergast, of Clonmel, publican.
 At Belleview, near Cork Miss Sarah Bartet.
 At Armagh, the relict of Thomas Prentice, Esq.
 In Mill-street, Ennis, Mrs. Miller.
 At Moscow, the celebrated General Rastopchin, which city he set fire to on the approach of Bonaparte.
 The Archbishop of Ravenna.
 In the Bay of Bengal, on his voyage homeward, John Carroll, Esq. formerly of Waterford.
 In Portarlington, Mr. Peter Faubert. He was the last inhabitant of that town legally descended from the persecuted Protestants at the revocation of the Edict of Nantz.
 Lybanes Tildley, Esq. aged 42, late Captain in the 6th Foot.
 At Stockwell, Mr. John Peacock, in his 61st year.
 At Woolwich, in his 24th year, Lieutenant Lucius Barber Willford, of the 45th Madras Native Infantry, and third son of Major Willford of the Royal Artillery.
 At Herts, near York, Mr. Lindley Murray, in the 81st year of his age. Mr. M. who was a native of Philadelphia, was well known by his works on education.
 At Westgate, Canterbury, in his 80th year, the Rev.
 W. Chafy, A. M. Vicar of Sturry, and Rector of Swale-cliffe.
 At Ketham-Hall, Nottinghamshire, John Manners
 Sutton, Esq. in his 74th year.
 Mr. Daniel Bowles, of Augier-street, Dublin.

221 Acres—Also that part of the 18th day of February, 1826.
 necessary information
 James Ievers, the Receiver in Creed, Esq. Solicitor

CHANCERY.

Rev. John Palmer, }
 of the Dowager } PURSU
 of Thonond, } decre
 Plaintiff. } dated 16th Marquis of Thonond, } I will, on others, } 11th day of Defendants. } the hour of on the 11th } up and sell by public eant, to th der, the fee and inheritance of All t or Town and lands of Brydn's-Bri o's-Bridge, with its several subden sion of the representatives of G
 , and Ballymack, the four neboy, in the possession of the re aown; Ballymore as in the po natives of Thomas Arthur; I ryan, in the possession of Cor Fosabigg, in possession of the Draxw Drumfinglass and its se in the possession of the rep GLAND; Shally, and its severa possession of the representati Tullycommon with its appur of the representatives of J
 otherwise Attyslany, Carlum monama, Shanduff, Carlum with their sub-denominations a possession of the represent John Foster; Killoen and L
 of the representatives of J in the possession of the re Donough; Townagh, and Cornelius O'Brien; Mong
 Giles Daxon, as representa Ranagha, in possession of th and Patrick Ly-sight. All premises are situate in the C at present about £1,331 a competent part thereof, for mentioned.
 18th day of February, 1826.
RODERICK
 and state of title and all other may be had on application to MATHEW, Esqrs. 29, Merric Solicitors for the Plaintiff; and Esq. Ennis, Co. Clare; and AGHAN, Esq. Holles-street, and Law Agents for the of Thonond.

Handwritten signature: e s till