or him; his orders were complied the door, he stripped, and went idance perceiving that he remained sually occupied by bathers, rapped ceiving an answer, his suspicions e burst open the door. On enternost appalling spectacle presented was lying in the bath, the water of y dyed with gore, with his throat , and in a perfectly inanimate state. al gentleman residing in the neighe sent for, and was in immediate uman aid was useless, as the vital me time extinguished. A determidreadful purpose seems to have gentleman, for he came provided ou after examination. was found in after hearing the evidence, returned ." On Saturday evening his body

AN, MARCH 3.

Marquis Wellevley held a Privy at the Castle. We are truly gratilency appeared to be in most excel-ent and Privy Council were engaged stle, hearing an appeal under the Act, on the part of Mr. William e impropriator of a moiety of the of Donoughhill, diocese of Cashel, . Moore appeared on behalf of the O'Connell and Mr. Smith for the decided that the appellant was not 150% a year made at a vestry on d Carleton has occasioned another esentative Peerage. Three Candiken of-I.ord Mountcashel, and the Glengall.

Dublin, in testimony of the meritoir late excellent Lord Mayor, Alder-, have presented that gentleman with bearing an appropriate inscription, most flattering address.

v, one of the sitting members for essed the Electors of that County, riction that his return, in case of a red by an overwhelming majority of Chick ster is the new candidate.

esford was assailed in his carriage by erford, on Tuesday, and saluted with ever," and " Down with the Beresship was eventually in such danger, the mob, that the Mayor was comjot Act and call out a strong guard at, when the multitude dispersed in a ily, a respectable Roman Catholic vegrine, County Waterford, has been lenial of the rights of his Church if to vote for Lord George Beresford, Stuart .- Mail.

ill stand quite neutral at the County d leave his tenantry to their own dis-xchequer, on Tuesday, in the curious en v. Elizabeth Kennedy, the right of he nearest relative, was established, nd his heirs to 18,000% in money in old property to the amount of 9,000%.

the fair of Dennet's Bridge, on Friday, was exceed. ingly dull and unproductive.

In the years ending 5th July, 1810, 1811, and 1812, Ireland paid duty on 19,172,332 fbs. of Tobacco, while in the years 1820, 1821, and 1822, duty was only paid on 8,666,304 fbs. This defalcation was caused by the difference of duty, which, in the former period, was 2s. 2d. per 15, while in the latter it was encreased to 4s. u lb. The inference to be drawn is, that a greater consumption would be the result of a reduction of duty, amuggling.

CORK, MARCH 2.

which, as it stands, must act as a direct incentive to Yesterday two cart loads of Newfoundland Cod were seized by the Mayor and the Market Jury, from certain wholesale dealers and retailers in this City. The Mayor had the opinions of Doctors Sharkey, Evanson, and Townsend, on the article. They condemned it in the strongest terms .- It was totally unfit for human sustenance. understand that variance and or uysentery within the last month in this City and its Liberties, whose death may be traced to the use of such abominable food. Dr. Townsend having refused to accept the seized article for the House of Industry, it was ordered by the Mayor that it should be buried in one of the dung-yards of the Wide-Street Commissioners,

The Limerick Chronide

SATURDAY, MARCH 4.

Through the exertions of Benjamin Jackson, Esq. and the Police under his command at Kilmallock, Patrick Healy and Thomas MeAuliff have been apprehended and fully identified as the persons who robbed James Leahy, of Ballingaddy, on the 7th ult. of two guns, the property of Chidley Coote, Esq. and have been fully committed to stand their trial at the approaching Assizes.

At eight o'clock on Thursday morning, an inquisition was taken by the Mayor on the body of John Costelloe, who, without any apparent indisposition, fell down suddenly dead whilst at his work as a Pavior, in the square of the New Barracks, on Tuesday-he was a correct

In the conflagration of the premises of Mr. Patrick Egan at Liscoff, on the 26th, three cows were most severely burned, two so much so that they will not recover. A reward of near 100% is offered for the conviction of the authors of this harrid outrage.

On Monday, James Walsh, a young man at work on the roof of the Clonnel Court House, fell accidentally a height of sixty feet into the street and was killed almost

A few nights since an armed party went to the house of a man of the name of Cummins, at Nodstown, County Tipperary, and having placed him on his knees, fired two shots close by his side and warned him, on pain of death, against letting a few acres of land.

On Wednesday night last, the cow house of Mr. William Lysaght, of Fountainville, within two miles of Doneraile, was set on fire, and thirty five cows which it contained, narrowly escaped destruction. This was a most cruel and abominable act, and we are not without expectations that the incendiaries will be discovered, and suffer the punishment due to such barbarity.

In an important salvage case tried at the Cove of Cork, on Wednesday, before Colonel Hodder, Savage French and Thomas G. French, Esqrs. Magistrates, the owners, master, and sailors of the Brig Albion, of Cork, were awarded 979/, compensation, for saving off Kinsale the brig Nymph, for Liverpool, and bringing her into port.

circulars from the Victualling Board to give a retu their ages and services.

The remains of the late Mr. Joseph Pike, the has were interred yesterday, in the burial ground of Society of Friends, in Cork, followed by a most resp ble procession of his fellow citizens.

Jonathan David Clarke, Esq. Barrister ut Law, been appointed Counsel to the Board of Excise. On Monday, Francis Sweeny, Esq. was elected a burgess of Bandon, and Robert T. Belcher, Es member of the Council of that borough.

There is to be a public ball at the Court House Ennis, on Monday, patronised by the High Sherith

A Steeple Chase of four miles was run on Wedne last, by Edward Singleton and James Tymons, E. in the neighbourhood of Rathmore Castle, won by former in matchless style. The meeting was atte by all the rank and fashion of the adjacent Course The incidence of the day.

The machinations of the Union of Trades are exercised in Cork; and early on Tuesday morning, a wall about eight feet high, to the extent of 120 per of mason-work, was levelled to the ground. The Earl of Clonmel has given through William

Bradshaw, Esq. 10% to the Clonmel Mendicity Ass tion. Committed to the City Gaol, by the Mayor, Mic

Hickey, for being drunk and disorderly-to be con until he pays the sum of Ten Shillings. By Alder Watson, J. Kelly, for assault and battery. An Advertisement was sent to our Office for sertion, this day, from the Body of Coschmakers, v is quite inadmissable. —Our columns are open to fair cussion, but never will we admit them to be the vehilow scurrifity and abuse.

BIRTHS

On Thursday, in Shannon-street, the Lady of Fr. Gore, jun. Esq. of a son and heir.

At Ashborough, the Lady of Major O'Dell, of a At Mallow, Mrs. John Lacy, of a son.

At Lewton-place, Dundalk, the Lady of the Robert Hume, of a son.

At Cloninel, the Lady of Captain Davies Smith the Corps of Royal Engineers, of a daughter. On the Grand Parade, Cork, the Lady of Car

Holmes, of a son. At Brighton, the lady of Lieutenant General Sir liam Inglis, K. C. B. of a soc.

At Weedon, Northamptonshire, the Lady of Co. Carey, of a daughter,

MARRIAGES.

In Castlebar, William Jones, Esq. of Dublin, Engineer, to Anne, daughter of Mr. Francis M'Gre

In Dublin, Adam Cooke, Esq. of Thurles, to A eldest daughter of the late Robert Armstrong, of ? town-Mountkennedy, County Wicklow, Esq.

Nathaniel Reynett, Esq. of Mount David, Co. Waterford, to Olivia, youngest daughter of I Johnson, Esq. of Spring-hill, same County.

At Calcutta, Roger Winter, Laq. Barrister at La Mary, daughter of it late Dr. Bathie, of Hammerst In Paris, D. S. Scrimegour, Esq. to Margaret, e daughter of the late James Wilson, Esq. Professo Anatomy to the Royal College of Surgeons, London In Edinburgh, Alex. Pearson, Esq. W. S. to Co rine, daughter of the late David Paterson, Esq. ba

At Caermarthen, Daniel Prythorch, Esq. to Care Georgina Catherine, youngest daughter of the late Jo Dalton, Esq. of the Hon. East India Company's M