

approved of Lieutenant John Hassy, Reader being appointed Paymaster to the four Companies of the 97th Regiment, stationed at home, His Royal Highness the Commander in Chief, has been pleased to confirm this appointment from the 25th June, 1825.

An official return to an order of the House of Commons states, that not one of the vacancies without purchase which have occurred in the Royal Regiment of Horse Guards and the Regiments of Foot Guards, belonging to any troops or companies, reduced since 1814, which has occurred since the reduction of 1821, has been filled. Four Pages of Honour have, however, been appointed without purchase as supernumeraries, and are not included in this return. These and the seconded officers are not unemployed, but are doing duty with their regiments.

General Lord Combermere, G. C. B. was sworn in a Member of the Supreme Council, at Bengal, and assumed the Command-in-Chief of the Indian Army, on the 12th October, last.

Colonel Osborne, late of the Galway Militia, is appointed Chief Magistrate of Police in the County Westmeath.

BIRTHS

On Monday, at Corbally, the Lady of Henry Bindon Fitz-Gerald, Esq. of a daughter.

The Lady of Sir Ross Mahon, Bart. of a daughter.

In Mallow, the Lady of Lieut. Arthur Palmer, Royal Navy, of a daughter.

On the Dyke Parade, Cork, the Lady of the Rev. Henry Cox Harris, of Berehaven Glebe, of a son.

At Blackrock, Cork, the Lady of Captain W. Carey, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

In this City, Wm. Lynch, Esq. to Emilia Louisa, youngest daughter of Thomas Edgworth, Esq.

Reuben Deaves, of Cork, Esq. to Sarah, daughter of James Pim, of Mountmelick, Esq.

John Dillon, of Johnstown, in the county of Roscommon, Esq. to Sarah Laesbury, second daughter of Sir Richard Bligh St. George, of Woodsgift, in the county of Kilkenny.

Henry Frederick Stephenson, Esq. of the Middle Temple, Barrister at Law, to the Lady Mary Keppil, second surviving daughter of the Earl of Albermarle.

At New Orleans, George William White, Esq. of the County Tipperary, to Miss Prieur, of Louisiana.

DEATHS.

On Sunday, in Castle-Connell, Mrs. Henn, widow of the late Thomas Henn, Esq. of Coolbane, a Lady of the most amiable disposition, and whose death is a source of much affliction to her numerous friends.

At Fermoy, on the 1st instant, of a broken heart for the loss of her only son, a few days previous, Mrs. Moynihan, relict of the late Mr. William Moynihan.

In Dublin, of fever, Pierre Barron, Esq. of Castle-town, in the County Waterford.

In Mallow, George Tarrant, Esq. aged 76 years.

At Durrow, aged 19 years, William, third son of William Delany, Esq.

At Paradise-row, Dublin, Mrs. Nugent.

The wife of Mr. Thomas Hassell, of College-green.

In Shropshire, at his mother's, Charles Rose, Esq.

Miss Elizabeth Potter, of Bachelor's-quay, Cork.

In Waterford, Mrs. Howlin, wife of Captain Howlin.

Mrs. Raymond, relict of James Raymond, Esq. late of Saffron Walden.

In the Fever Hospital, Waterford, Captain Thomas Cumming, of the brig Blossom.

In Galway, at the advanced age of 110, Mrs. Griffin.

In Cashel, Mrs. Smithwick, relict of the late Doctor Smithwick, of the Waterford Militia.

At the Parsonage House, Donaghadee, Anne, daughter of the Rev. William Boyd, Rector of that Parish.

At Athenry, County Galway, Mr. Robert Fynn.

In Edinburgh, the wife of Robert Oliphant, Esq.

At Bath, John Henry Pakenham, Esq. formerly of the 1st Dragoon Guards, and nephew of Lord Longford.

In Lincolnshire, the Dowager Lady Welby.

On the 12th October last, aged twenty-two years, John Robert Cuppage, Esq. Acting Secretary to the Government of Penang in the Civil department, and son of Major General Cuppage, Royal Artillery.

SELECT DANCING ACADEMY.

MR. MEINY.

PROFESSOR OF DANCING, FENCING, &c. &c.
(Formerly of the Opera House, London,)

TAKES leave most respectfully to acquaint such grown Ladies and Gentlemen from the Country, as may wish to acquire a knowledge of the Parisian style of dancing, during their stay in town at the Assizes, that he will have Rooms open for their reception every day during that period, at his residence and Academy, 25, George-street; where a sufficient number of his pupils will attend, to form sets in Quadrilles, and in the Spanish dances, recently introduced, and so much admired in this Country.—Mr. M. avails himself of this opportunity to return his sincerest acknowledgments to those persons who have countenanced him, since his arrival at Limerick: in soliciting a more extended patronage, Mr. M. is led to hope for success, from the decided approbation of several of the most respectable families in the City and County of Limerick, who are acquainted with his character and professional abilities. Mr. M. has spared no expense to acquire a perfect knowledge of the latest improvements in his profession, from the most eminent masters on the Continent; and he assures the public that every exertion on his part shall be made to merit their approbation.

Mr. M. will also teach the useful and elegant art of Fencing.

25, George-street, March 8.

THIS DAY IS PUBLISHED, BY

GEORGE M KERN,

106, GEORGE'S-STREET, LIMERICK,
And may be had of all Booksellers in the United Kingdom,

THE FIRST VOLUME OF
The History, Topography and Antiquities
OF THE
COUNTY AND CITY OF LIMERICK,

By the Rev. P. Fitz-Gerald,

VICAR OF CAHIRCORNEY, IN THE DIOCESE OF EMLY,
AND JOHN J. M'GREGOR,

Author of "The History of the French Revolution," &c. &c.

THIS Volume contains a copious preliminary view of the History and Antiquities of Ireland, thus arranged:—Political and Civil History of the arrival and settlement of the English—Government and Religion—Literature, Poetry and Music—Progress of Civilization—Natural Beauties and Antiquities. Also, the Topography and Antiquities of the County of Limerick, in baronial and parochial order, with a large and elegantly

ENGRAVED MAP OF THE COUNTY,

Views of Kilmallock and Askeaton—a Table of Distances between the different Towns and Villages in the County—Tables of the Population—Extent of employment and Education in the various Parishes of the County and City, and a comparative view of the same subjects in the several Counties of Ireland, according to the last census.

The Second Volume, which will be completed with all possible expedition, will comprise the Political and Military History of the County and City of Limerick, including some of the most important transactions which have taken place in Ireland—Minute details of the various Sieges of Limerick will be given, and the famous Articles of 1691, at length—with an ample description of the City, its Ecclesiastical and Military Antiquities, Public Buildings, Institutions, Civil Polity, Trade, Commerce—Memoirs of Distinguished Natives of the County and City, &c. accompanied by all the necessary Lists—an Engraved Plan and several Views of the City and its environs.

N. B.—Some of the proof impressions of the County Map taken on India Paper, and are mounted on canvass, with rollers. Any person wishing to have one should make early application, as there are but few of them.

107, George's-street, Limerick, March 8.

N. B.—The Trustees of Industry in this County bear Committee, it is therefore necessary that any of these in the ballot list

THE GUILDS

(From the Limerick Evening Post)

WE are sorry to find that the fault lies with those whose word cannot be depended on—the consequences of conscience is well pelted, the annexed affidavits from three place a Mr. James Gleeson predicament, altho' he swears deponent will in all likelihood in another place, we will let and otherwise, behind the events must be evident from gifted with the ubiquity of political mission; as within ing from Limerick to Bruff round about the horizon to his signers or no signers at the days of non-residence manages than the flying mason not even with apprentices; ders is the question, and if question, the affidavits sold

County of the City of } S
Limerick, to wit. } and City

oath and say, that they and astonishment the name Cronin and David Jordan Cronin, son to this deponent James Cronin, sen. and resolutions in the last Limerick Chronicle, purporting to layers of this City, again respected, and truly indeed Dickson, Esq. This deponent himself, saith he never empowered any person to do so for the purpose, nor conditions, till he was asked if saith he long since promised of his said Son, and a T. Dickson, to whom he is employment, and that many years, at times when This deponent, Daniel neither signed said resolution person to do so, nor was injurious to the interest of this deponent, Charles the names of his brother and James Cronin, jun. resolutions, as he verily them, they having resigned twenty years, and not having getting up of said resolution Cronin, further saith, that determined to support a resolution, as he verily believeth rise any resolutions in Dickson; and deponent there are any persons names, save the person his mark.

SAMUEL X CRONIN

DAVID X JORDAN

mark.

CHARLES CRO

Sworn before me

W