

a scheming action, set on foot by the purpose of throwing an odium on and with the view of embarrassing him treat it as it deserves, and mark their gly. It would be absurd in him to ger, on the absolute impossibility of —no one knows who this man in the is—no one knows who the witness ble for him is; the story he has told, probable in its nature. The other as unworthy of a cross-examination, would be the same, only for his attempt orders given by the Mayor which the The learned Gentleman concluded ld not delay the time of the Court or nother word on the subject.

d for a short time, and brought in a aintiff, as against Henry Watson, NG, damages! And found for the Marrett and R. Murphy, with costs. ounsel applied to the Judge to certify special jury case, which his Lordship adly observed, that there was little or inging forward such an action; and, to the Jury and the bar, "Gentlemen, n well employed, for three hours, in ect of a Farthing!" ated one branch of a case, which had a of public attention, and which was ble papers in the most formidable co-an obscure mole hill, purposely magni-n, been reduced to its original insigni-the authors of the action with much pointment.

ather presided in the City Court on e trial of Honora Neil, who was only e dock two days before. She was con-g a violin, the property of Michael was found in her possession by David n, and from her very bad character was portation for seven years.

s, in the County Court, Michael Keays, s, jun. James Keays, and John Cleary, astice Torrens, for the murder of Michael elstown-down, on 4th November. They under the Ellenboro' act, for shooting a, with intent to kill. The prisoners spectable class of society, and therefore b attention. Sergeant Gould stated rown, and after hearing some evidence, opinion, the charge of homicide was not r of the traversers. After a very patient Jury convicted the first of the prisoners ndictment, and acquitted all the others. in Keays v. Keane, an action of tres- r entering vi et armis the Plaintiff's close, County of Limerick. Damages were e Defendant, who was the Plaintiff's his legal possession, and asserted the committed on himself. Verdict for 6d. costs.

ther, on Thursday, stated the City and ents, while Justice Torrens was finish- usiness. His Lordship was obliged to w road contracts which were made up old Irish perch, and charged in British nt to the passing of the late Act of Par- tilating the currency and weights and countries. This has caused a very tment.

ry have made an order that no expendi- ll take place in the City Jail, without an ard of Superintendance, specifying the and approving of the price of the article ry have also passed a Resolution, ap- an and estimate of the intended Bridge out the heavy and immediate taxes on vented them, at this Assizes, from con- funds—and hoping at a future period, to Eliza, daughter of the late Dr. King. of Ballihofey.

At Templemore, Joseph Going, Esq. of Liskeveene, County Tipperary, to Mary, daughter of the late Francis Reynolds, Esq. of Larch-Hill, Kilkenny.

At Knocklofty Church, Henry Fitzsimons, Esq. of Cork, to Sarah, daughter of Richard Foote, Esq.

Edward Lewis, Esq. son of the late M. Lewis, of Spring-Hill, County of Dublin, Esq. to Henrietta, youngest daughter of the late Henry Loftus Frizell, of Cole's-Hall, County of Wexford, Esq.

At Coalston, Gilbert Young, Esq. to Patricia, daughter of the Hon. W. Maule, of Panmure, M. P.

William Orms, Esq. of Glenmore, to Anne, daughter of the late Colonel George Jackson, of Enniscoe, County of Mayo.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, at Ballyvonaire, County Cork, Mrs. Barry, wife of Harold Barry, Esq. and daughter of Henry Harrison, Esq. of Castle Harrison—a Lady universally and deservedly regretted, and whose death is an irreparable loss to the poor of that neighbourhood, to whom she was a continual benefactress, relieving their necessities, by feeding the hungry and clothing the naked.

In Mitchelstown, on Thursday, William Johnson, Esq. a Magistrate for the Co. Cork, and late Captain in the North Cork Militia.

On Sunday morning, in Newmarket-on-Fergus, Mrs. Jane M'Mahon, relict of the late James M'Mahon, Esq.

At Postobello, near Dublin, the Lady of William Calcut, Esq. Inspector of Stamp Duties.

At Castle Freke, Miss Freke, daughter of Percy Freke, Esq. and niece to the Right Hon. Lord Carbery.

At Loughrea, Laurence Horan, Esq.

In Dublin, Mr. John Neill, wholesale vender of newspapers.

Mr. John Taggart, of Seagrove, County Down, teacher Malachia Bergan, Esq. son of the late Richard Bergan, Esq. of Harold's-Cross, Dublin, builder.

At his residence, in Dublin, Lord Viscount Netterville. His Lordship was a Roman Catholic.

Mr. Dominick Clarke, late of Jervis-street, Dublin.

In Mallow, the wife of Mr Connell, Professor of Music.

On Saturday, Hannah, relict of the late David Haynes, Esq. of Hawthornhill, County Cork.

Suddenly, in Jail-street, Ennis, of apoplexy, Susan, daughter of the late William Dwyer, Esq. of Anna.

In Cork, Miss Fuller, youngest daughter of the late Thomas Gray Fuller, Esq. of that City.

In Killala, Robert Bourne, Esq. Apothecary.

At Carrick-on-Suir, the wife of Mr. Leech, postmaster.

In Ballina, James Kelly, Esq.

In Dublin, Richard Welch, Esq. formerly of the Island of Jamaica

Robert Fisher, Esq. son of William Fisher. Esq. of Mount-Brown, aged seventeen.

Mrs. Caulfield, wife of James Eyre Caulfield, Esq. of Grange-House, County Tyrone, Esq.

At his house, John's Hill, Waterford, of a rapid fever, Henry Penrose, Esq. of the Society of Friends, universally lamented by all who knew him.

Samuel Ruxton Fitzherbert, Esq. of Swinnerton, in the County Meath.

In Baltimore, Stevenson White, Esq. son of Doctor White, formerly of Belfast.

In Stephen-street, Waterford, Mr. John Lawton.

At Exeter, the wife of Captain Dowse, Royal Artillery.

John Kerr, Esq. Provost of Dumfries.

At Brighton, suddenly, Colonel William Bulkeley.

The Hon. Colonel John Lindsey.

In Bengal, Norman M'Leod, Esq. Acting Judge of Circuit.

Sir GEORGE ABERCROMBIE ROBINSON, Bart.
JOSEPH DORIN, Esq. Deputy-Chairman
William Abbott, Esq. Edward Golds
Cs. Raymond Barber, Esq. Isaac L. Golds
Thomas Barrow, Esq. Matthew Isack
Jonathan Birch, Esq. John Latham,
Thomas Blair, Esq. John Neave, F
Sir C Cockerell, Bt. M. P. William Philli
Thomas Coles, Esq. Frederick J. P
Boyce Combe, Esq. Philip Ripley,
John Fairlie, Esq. Sir Walter St
George Fraser, Esq. James Taddy,
George Carr Glyn, Esq. Edward Vaux,
CAPITAL ONE MILLION ST

The whole paid up and invested, thereby the Proprietors Security against further Call Assured an immediate available Fund for the the most extensive Losses.

This Company have determined to make or PAYMENT on the three ordinary Classes of rance, and all Policies of those Classes hitherto 2s. are reduced to 1s. 6d. per cent. per 3s. .... 2s. 6d. ... 5s. .... 4s. 6d. ... (By order of the Board,)

JOHN CHARLES D Secretary.

London, 25th Nov. 1825.

Books of Rates, and every information LIFE AND FIRE INSURANCE will be given, by application to

D. F. G. MAHONY
Globe Company Agent, Limited

ROYAL EXCHANGE

ASSURANCE,
Established by Royal Charter at Parliament.

In the Year 1720,
FOR ASSURING BUILDINGS, G SHIPS FROM FIRE, AND ALSO

FOR THE ASSURANCE OF Office, No. 117, George's-street,

WHERE Assurance on Lives, and can be sooner and easier effected than in any Insurance Establishment in Ireland: Fines issued at once, without consulting Directors whose lives are to be assured, have, but to a Agent, who does not put the party to the expense of procuring Medical Certificates and Examinations, which are indispensable at other Offices. Lives Insured as high as £10,000; and age of Seventy-five years.

Persons whose lives are assured by this Office are allowed to pass in decked vessels from the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and to and from the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Sark and Man, and also to pass, in time decked vessels, from British ports and places to and from Flushing and Ushant, without and without being subjected to apply, as at the Office, for special permission.

Manufactories, Buildings, and Goods

GOVERNMENT STOCK AND DEBENTURES.

D. F. G. MAHONY,

3, TONTINE BUILDINGS, GEORGE'S-STREET.