

PROPRIETORS.

of the Proprietors of the Bank of Ireland Saturday—the Governor, Alderman Trevor, when a Resolution, on the motion of Mr. Touche, "That a Case be submitted to the General, the Solicitor-General, and each of the Serjeants at Law, for their opinion as to the policies, otherwise qualified to fill the office of the Company, are, by law, eligible to that of so, what oaths or qualifications are they to take," was put, and unanimously carried.—At the entire Meeting, which was addressed by Mr. Touche, Mr. W. L. Guinness, Alderman Mr. J. L. Maquay, Mr. Pim, Mr. Stevelly, Mr. Byrne, and several other Gentlemen, was in favour of the eligibility of Catholics.

of Annesley presided on Friday, at the meeting of the Irish Society for disseminating the Irish language. The Right Hon. St. John and the Rev. Mr. Bushe were among the Resolutions in praise of the objects of the Society read, from the masters and pupils of the Armagh, Monaghan, Cavan, Louth, and Mayor presided at the late meeting of the Mechanics' Institute, when it was resolved to £1000. to procure apparatus for practical lectures of Killarney will take place in the ensuing probably in the month of June or beginning. The preliminary preparations are complete—provided by the munificent liberality of the Mayor, and the other Members of this Noble Society. A magnificent stag hunt on the Lakes will be commenced.

Cosoy, Esq. of Stradbally Hall, is Foreman of the County Grand Jury. The only record in Perran v. Porter, in which there has been a judgment in favour of the lessees of the plaintiff. Eustace, the late proprietor of the Stradbally Charter School, was acquitted on charges of excessive cruelty to two of the pupils. White, Esq. M. P. is Foreman of the Leitrim Grand Jury, in consequence of the illness of his colleague, Mr. Cosoy, Esq.

at the Assizes, John Magee, a ribbonman, was convicted of administering an unlawful oath to a man named Noon, and sentenced to transportation for 7 years. Mr. Cooper, Esq. M. P. is foreman of the Sligo Grand Jury. The Crown business is weighty, and four convictions have already taken place.

In the outrages stated to have been committed in the County, there are only two persons to be tried for murder in that County, before the Chief Baron.

Mr. Harris, Esq. M. D. has been elected a freeholder of Bandon, and Lieut.-Colonel Gillman, a member of the Council.

Mr. Robinson was elected, on Saturday, Surgeon of the County Leitrim Infirmary, by a majority of votes.—Mr. Lead was his competitor.

Mr. Robinson is to be elected to the Navan Infirmary on the 1st of April, in place of Dr. Brown who has resigned.

Mr. Robinson is to be elected to the Passage and Monkswater Dispensary, on the 7th April.

SUMMARY OF CONVICTIONS IN THE COUNTY LIMERICK.

John Ryan, murder of Daniel Connell, hanged—William Mescal and Daniel Purcell, murder of Samuel Cross, hanged; William Barry, for the same, respited until further orders—Michael Madigan, abduction, sentence of death recorded—Maurice Dowling, assaulting habitation, sentence of death recorded—Edmond Setton, burglary, sentence of death recorded—Daniel Neville, administering unlawful oaths, sentence of death recorded—James Ryan, alias Murphy, cow-stealing, sentence of death recorded—Michael Keays, shooting with intent to kill, sentence of death recorded—John Sullivan, having forged notes in his possession, 14 years' transportation—John Magrath, sheep-stealing, 7 years' transportation—Michael Healy, cow stealing, 7 years' transportation—Timothy Ebrigh, sheep-stealing, 7 years' transportation—Jeffery Connel, cow-stealing, 7 years' transportation—Anne Kirby, larceny, 7 years' transportation—Denis Molony, cow-stealing, 7 years' transportation—Patrick, Cornelius, and Thomas Hastings, manslaughter, 18 months' imprisonment—Michael MacMahon, manslaughter, 18 months' imprisonment—John Carmody, larceny, 18 months' imprisonment—Laurence Sullivan, cow-stealing, 12 months' imprisonment—Patrick Singleton, pig-stealing, 12 months' imprisonment—Michael Sullivan, sheep-stealing, 12 months' imprisonment—Daniel Meehan and John Glynn, larceny, 12 months' imprisonment—Patrick Burke and Mary Gough, larceny, 6 months' imprisonment—Mary Gibson, larceny, 1 month's imprisonment.

CITY LIMERICK CONVICTIONS.

Richard Jones, murder—sentence of death recorded—James Kearson, violation of a female—to be hanged 1st April; Patrick Grady, perjury—seven years' transportation; Walter Hurly, Edward Ryan, Pat Carthy, David Finn, James Singleton, Cornelius Daly, Thomas Daly, John McInerney, James Brazill, Cornelius Normoyle, Thomas Barrett, Margaret Moore, Harriet O'Brien, Honora O'Brien, Bridget Shelton, Margaret Reilly, Mary Jackson, Mary Griffin, Mary Keefe, Mary Russell, Ellen O'Dea, Ann Browne, Honora O'Neil, and Mary Kelly, for larceny—all to be transported for seven years; Patrick Morgan, larceny—ten months' imprisonment; James Hewitt, John England, and James Hayes, larceny—nine months' imprisonment; Thos. Fitzgibbon, larceny—6 months' imprisonment; James Hanly and Mary Halvy, sheep stealing—6 months' imprisonment; James Donnelly, larceny—4 months' imprisonment; and Mich. Donnelly, larceny, three months' imprisonment.

On Saturday, Cornelius Reddan found guilty, at Ennis Assizes, of the murder of Bridget Lynch, was executed in front of the new gaol of that town. For some days before, he refused any religious consolation; but, subsequently became resigned, and acknowledged the justice of his sentence, declaring, that the death he was to suffer was much lighter than his crime deserved.

On Friday, an inquisition was held on the body of Patrick Murry, of Scariff, who it appeared died by the visitation of God.—A report had been circulated that he was poisoned.

On Tuesday night, an out-house near Newport was

The Rev. Thomas Plunkett, eldest son of the General, has been collated by the Bishop of the valuable living of Dromore, void by the death of Lord Viscount Lifford, Dean of Arma

The Board of First Fruits have appointed the following Gentlemen their Architects in the four Provinces: Munster, R. Paine; Ulster, Wm. Farquhar; J. Semple; and Connaught, J. Welland.

The National Branch Bank in Cork has received directions from Dublin, to draw Bills in favour of the Bank instead of 31 days.

At a meeting of Leslie's Commission in Cork, the loan of 50,000L. from Government was refused against the estate.

Mr. Ellis, M. P. has arrived in Dublin. Mr. Langan, the pugilist, is now in Cork, getting off very shortly for London, to contest the championship.

The workmen on the Skellig rock have been in a very perilous situation—all safe and well.

On Sunday last, during divine service, in the Church, some miscreant entered the Vestibule, and stole thereout a green bag, containing other articles, belonging to the Rev. Mr. Langan.

The Royal Irish Academy have adjudged Mr. Langan, of Cork, the annual prize for his essay on the "Five states of the poor among ancient and modern nations."

The Hon. and Rev. Ludlow Tansley, Co. Wick, died on Sunday, at St. Peter's Church, Cork, after a long illness of the Lying-in Hospital, when 129L.

The Articles for the Newcastle Stage, which should have appeared in our last, were postponed till now. See our advertising column.

The inmates of the Mendicity Institute, who are to solicit the usual contribution in the month of April, from such charitable Ladies and Gentlemen as are disposed to indulge them with a comfortable dinner, to celebrate the festival of Easter. Money to be paid to the Treasurer or Secretary, and Master of the Institute.

Mr. Robert Pearce, was yesterday elected to the Cork House of Industry and Art, on a salary of £100 per annum.

The Mayor has handed 10s. 10d. to the Mendicity, which he received from the proceeds of a Sheriff's Enquiry, this day.

The Treasurer of the Female Orphan Asylum, has received from Eyre Evans, Esq. £1.

The plot of waste ground in the rear of Ellen-street, presents a very disagreeable appearance to the passengers, and its condition calls for the notice of the Parish Commissioners.

Committed, to the County Gaol, for a term of years, Gerald, Esq. Thomas Dundon, for a term of years, Patrick M'Mahon.

Exports for London, 405 brls. oats, R. & J. Guson; 134 firkins butter, Francis Spaight; 30 tierces potatoes, J. & S. Phelps; 23 bales bacon, J. Sullivan; 26 bales of wool, John Russell.

Exports for London, 339 tierces potatoes, J. & S. Phelps; 100 firkins butter, Francis Spaight.

Exports for London, 339 tierces potatoes, J. & S. Phelps; 100 firkins butter, Francis Spaight.

Exports for London, 339 tierces potatoes, J. & S. Phelps; 100 firkins butter, Francis Spaight.

Exports for London, 339 tierces potatoes, J. & S. Phelps; 100 firkins butter, Francis Spaight.