...We refer our readers to our fourth page, for some ex-
...tracts from an able Review of the 1st Volume of Fitz-
...Gerald and M'Gregor's History of Limerick, which
...appears in the Christian Examiner for the present month.
...The Second Volume, it is expected, will be published in
...a few months: and we have no doubt from the unremit-

...ting research, which the authors are making
...Political, Civil, and Ecclesiastical Annals of the County
...and City of Limerick, accompanied by a minute inspection
...of every object connected with the ancient history and
...present state of this important district, that this work
...when completed will prove not only locally, but generally
...interesting.

...ever was attempted, after the
...man having vauntingly asserted the
...Dublin and Limerick Press, "I
...ready to prove and willing to justify,"
...retiring from the contest, he tells you
...an obscure Paper "that I have so
...time, place, and circumstances,
...traditions may appear where ne-
...ed.!!!" Now is it not obvious, that
...asserted what he cannot prove, he
...bewildered in a maze of his own
...that he fancies confusion in the pla-
...and thus hopes to escape the labyrinth
...got entangled in.

...Gentlemen, if I have no dexter-
...founded facts as to people, the He-

...enable him readily to redeem his
...you, and even attempt the proof
...asserted if the facts could bear him
...as the Gentleman upon neither of his
...tions addressed me any such lette-
...serted, I must leave it to his subtl-
...to him for the word) to reconcile his
...Contradictions. Indeed the attempt
...you is so palpable, that I am satisfie
...be pleased at my quitting this
...subject which I do without regret
...The Hon. Gentleman next tells you
...long as I confined myself within
...of discretion, he had no more dis-
...observe upon my proceedings than
...date for Limerick, than as a Ca-
...Kildare Street Club.

...The Honorable Gentleman's allu-
...dare-Street Club, is as irrelevant
...ject in controversy between him
...the statement reported in the *Limer-
...Post* of the 17th of last May, to
...made by the Hon. Mr. Noel, who
...Gentleman said "that Books of
...moral tendency were used in
...atholic Schools," and he, Mr.
...this fact from Mr. Spring Rice.

...I now close my account on this
...not for ever, as the Honorable Gen-
...you he does; but if he be serious
...even now to retire from the
...City of Limerick shall not want
...tative of real Independance, who
...vouring to keep it open, will
...scend or deviate from that can-
...norable course, which can a
...man respected, nor swerve from
...rum which is due from one G
...another, by attacking any Citiz
...aspire to the honor of represen-
...City.

...I have the Honor to be Gent
