

originated in a desire to save his present, nor did he know who were. justice of their fate, and suffered

While a man of the name of Meehan Scartnaglowravn, beyond Caher, ruffian disguised in woman's clothes set fire to the furniture and every wards set fire to the roof outside—entire was reduced to ashes. Deep was stolen off the demesne of perary, on Thursday night.

Tulla, under Chief Constable Town-ast week, Martin Boland, Edward inogue, who are fully identified as the attack on the house of William, County Clare, in January last. been arrested on suspicion of being ary and burning a woman near Tulla, nce, and for which a man named at the last Ennis assizes.

ard has already been offered for the ndiaries, who committed such an in- ing outrage on the premises of the near Tipperary, last week. Bolton Sheriff of our County, has added 20.

ention has been made by the inhabitants painful to find that the monsters con- ng have yet eluded detection.

ing, Michael and George Grady, their Calligan and his sister, another young girl, in all eight persons, went to Seat- Kilrush, to cut sea weed for manure, n, in the forenoon, the cot in which ately upset, and all on board perished advs, who being excellent swimmers y the greatest exertions.

York, to Dora, second daughter of Sir George Nayler, Garter King at Arms.

Miss Constable, eldest daughter of the late Sir Thomas Constable, Bart. to Captain Chichester, of the 60th Rifle Corps.

On the 8th instant, in St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Anthony Franks, Esq. to Sarah Louisa, eldest daughter of Mr. E. H. Percy, of that City. This is the celebrated Mr. Franks, who walked for two successive Sundays at Stephen's-Green, in quest of a fair partner to solace his solitary hours; and it will be consoling to all who are disposed to embrace the holy state of matrimony to know, that their wants in that respect can be supplied by an intimation through the public Press.

DEATHS.

On Sunday, at his house in Francis-street, deservedly regretted, Mr. Pat Connell, for many years an eminent Silver-Smith and Auctionier in this City. He was a good husband, an affectionate father, and an honest man. Mr. Connell was nephew of the late Dr. O'Halloran, author of the History of Ireland.

On Sunday, at his house, in Upper Cecil-street, Eilen, wife of James Ferguson, Esq.; a young Lady much esteemed, and her premature death is a source of great affliction. Her remains were conveyed to the family burial ground, near Galway, yesterday evening.

Yesterday, at Pallis-Kerry, aged 14 years, Thomas, son of Mr. James Seward, of George's-street, Grocer, a very fine and interesting boy, and whose death is sincerely regretted by his family and friends.

In Mary-street, Mr. James Dooly, hat manufacturer, whose death is deeply lamented by his afflicted family.

Yesterday, in Newmarket, Co. Clare, of typhus fever, aged 47, John Healy, Esq. an irreparable loss to an afflicted wife and eleven children—who, by his death, have to lament the best of husbands, fathers and protectors.

County Clare, and in the management of his large business, together with several agencies, he evinced an active energy of mind. No man could be more respected or esteemed.

Last week, Frederick Groom, Esq. of Birr. The death of this Gentleman was caused by a fall from his gig.

In Irishtown, Kilkenny, the Rev. James Gorman, for the last twenty-five years Parish Priest of St. Canice.

In Waterford, aged 102 years, Mr. James Shelmadine, for many years an eminent teacher in that City.

On Thursday last, Robert Atkinson, Esq. an extensive silk manufacturer of the Coombe, Dublin.

On the 19th inst. the Right Rev. Doctor Milner. Alderman James Hacket, of Waterford.

Of a few days illness, on the 12th inst. at Cloverfield, County Galway, in the full bloom of youth and vigour, of the measles and violent apasm, the latter occasioned by a weight which fell on the toe, Christopher Nolan, Esq. aged 23 years, and third son of the late John Nolan, of Ballinderry, Esq. in that County.

At Tunbridge Wells, the wife of T. P. Bingham, Esq.

At Lifford, the wife of Mr. G. Knox.

At Tours, Captain Fareevell, 1st Somerset Militia.

At Newtownhamilton, the wife of Surgeon Dobbin.

At Wenvoe, near Cardiff, J. Davies, Esq. Surgeon of the Royal Glamorgan Militia.

In Jermyn-street, London, Mr. William George, jun. Martha Davis, wife of Solomon Davis, Esq. one of the Elders of the Great Synagogue, Duke's-place, London.

At Oswestry, Jane, youngest daughter of Ed. Faunce, Esq. late Lieut.-Colonel of the 4th or King's Own Foot.

In her 75th year, Sarah, wife of Lieutenant-Colonel Smithson, of Heath, Wakefield.

Captain Henry Dick Carr, late of the 44th Regiment, an officer of the most amiable disposition, and of the highest promise.

LAND STEWARD.

WANTS a SITUATION as LAND STEWARD, a Young Man, who perfectly understands all the most improved branches of Husbandry, has a thorough knowledge of Buying, Feeding, and Sale of Cattle of every description, and can give the most satisfactory testi-distresses prevailed in England.

Foreign Lotteries, Little Goes, Priv- teries, and Raffles of all sort Lottery Office, Somers- 15th April, 1826

NOTICE is hereby given, that on acco- approaching end of Lotteries, there bein- Day of Drawing after the Third Day of May provisions contained in the Acts of Parliamen- the Reigns of their Majesties, King George and George the Second, as well as the Little and the last Lottery Act against Foreign and Raffles, will be strictly put in force by Officers of this Office.

The Public are particularly requested to b- outstanding Prizes for payment, that the ac- be closed as soon as possible.

COUNTY OF LIMERICK.

PRESENTMENTS

FOR SUMMER ASSIZES, 1826

SPECIAL SESSIONS for the purpose of consideration all Applications for Prese- ROADS and PUBLIC WORKS in said for investigating the Accounts of the Expendi- ment Money, will be held at the following the days stated, agreeable to the 59th Geo. 3 viz:—

Table with columns: SESSIONS, BARONIES, DA. Limerick Monday 1826.

Table listing sessions for various baronies: Ballynary, Newcastle, Rathkeal, etc.

All Applications, with the Estimates; Maps; Plans; Sections and Elevations sever- to the same, and signed by the persons ma- tion, are to be lodged in the Grand Jury Sec- George's-street, on or before THURSDAY May, 1826, that being the last day on w- be received.

Notices (in writing) of all Applications submitted to the Magistrates at the Specie above, must be posted by or on behalf of making application at the place appointed place for posting Notices, in the Parish in proposed to be executed is situate, betwee- Nine and Twelve o'Clock in the forenoon, 13th May, 1826.

All Applications for Presentments are the present IMPERIAL MEASURE BRITISH CURRENCY, agreeable to Parliament, 5th, Geo. 4th, Cap. 74, and Cap. 79.

Notices of accounting for the Expendi- ment Money, to be posted at the place ap- usual place for posting Notices in the Par- Work intended to be accounted for is situate hours of Nine and Twelve o'clock in the SATURDAY the 13th May, 1826; and must be lodged in the Office of the Grand on or before that Day. The Persons po- Notices as aforesaid must attend the Sp- their respective Districts, to prove havin- where also the Accounting Overseer is to Accounting Affidavit, in order to be swor- N. B.—Such Persons in the Barony of NELLOE, as intend to lodge Applicat- ments, are requested, before they send