

tempt was made, on Tuesday, by two rent character, near Kilmallock, to violation, house breaking and robbery, nty Police. The case was tried before t Petty Sessions, where it was proved the accused was altogether innocent d that it originated in falsehood and of the 11th Regiment from Tralee to ier of the Regiment was found dead,

in the street of Castleisland.—There violence on the body.

Mr. Jones, in Upper Cecil-street, was quantity of clothes, which were left to lay night.

the painting of the Crucifixion presented pel, by Samuel Dickson, Esq. the same dered a splendid Altar Piece for the new el.

f the Castle of Tralee has already been
n much difficulty to the foundation.

D'oughlin of Rathkeale, in this County,
st, admitted a Licentiate of Apothecary's
after a strict examination in Botany, ria Medical Chemistry. This young and successor to the late much lamented oughlin, of said town.

male child was left on the steps of a house
on Wednesday night.

advanced to 6d. per stone in the market
is considered that a scarcity of this vege-ist, but that the agriculturists are so busy e country, as not to have an opportunity fficient supply to market.

Clonroad, on Tuesday, presented a large but very few sales could be effected, the great and prices took their tone from the lloe, on Monday, where some sales of at 40s. less than what was effected last dry weather has completely parched up farmers entertain great apprehensions for g harvest, if there should be a continued

t moisture which the vegetation absolutely that the fruit blossoms, which are very received some injury from the sharp frosts ight for this fortnight past.

the Rev. H. Deery is to preach in the pel of Ennis, in aid of the Methodist ciety.

e a public ball and supper in the Assembly-rary, on Tuesday, patronised by Major Regiment, Captain Doyle, 72d Regiment, Bradshaw, 5th Dragoon-Guards, &c.—See t.

Inspector of Fisheries, had two men conriens Bridge Petty Sessions yesterday, in n pounds each, for having nets set on their Doonas, on first of May, for the purpose of non Fry.

Mangan v. the Albion Assurance Company, at the next assizes, the Plaintiff having Solicitor to take such proceedings as will before a jury.

andall, of the Shannon Packet, of London,
the Mayor £1, wages forfeited by a seaman—
d of in charity.

ittee of the Limerick Hibernian School So-their thanks for the following sums, received

DEATHS.

In Cornwallis-street, Mrs. Maunsell Sargent; a lady possessed of many amiable qualities, and daughter of the late Alderman Thomas Carpenter, of this City.

In Church-street, Ennis, Mr. Charles Trousdell.

At Grange, near Moy, Thomas Caulfield, Esq.

At Portadown, in the 16th year of his age, James, youngest son of C. Woodhouse, Esq.

Sophia, widow of the late Wm. Boyle, of Boylegrove, County Cork.

In Portarlinton, Mrs Elizabeth Moore, aged 85.

At Blackrock, Cork, Mr. James Wiseman.

At Rich-hill, Newry, Mr. Bartholomew Collins, late of Bandon, Revenue Officer; a man of strict honor and integrity. His death was occasioned by the result of an extraordinary assiduity in his revenue duty, and a beating he got a few years ago, when on duty. He has left a distracted and disconsolate widow, and five helpless children, to deplore his loss.

In the 71st year of her age, Mrs. Mary Ward, relict of Mr. Bartholomew Ward, of South Great George's-street, Dublin.

At Crooked-stone, Killead, Arthur Moore, Esq.

From a concussion of the brain, occasioned by a fall
from his horse, Joseph Orr, of Salem, Esq.

In London, in the 64th year of his age, the Honorable Augustus Phipps, Commissioner of Excise.

In Cork, the wife of Mr. Richard Bull.

At Bath, the Rev. Charles Symmons, D. D. author of the Life of Milton and several other works.

The Rev. Edward B. Compson, Vicar of Feckenham.

In London, George Dawn, Esq. solicitor.

In the South Main-street, Cork, Mrs. Ann Ludgate.

In Aungier-street, Dublin, Miss Cooke.

In London, the Dowager Viscountess Sydney.

In Mountjoy-square, Dublin, Walter Steele, Esq.

At Potton, Bedfordshire, the Rev. Mr. Colthurst.

At Gurravarragh, Ensign Thomas Irving, of the 1st Bengal Native Infantry, and eldest son of Colonel James Irving of Edinburgh.

George Purvis, Esq. Secretary to the late Lord St.
Vincent.

In the 67th year of his age, the Rev. R. Hardy, D. D.
Rector of Loughborough, Leicestershire, for 28 years a Magistrate of the County, and formerly Fellow of Emanuel College, Cambridge.

[The report of the death of Mr. B. Keays is incorrect.]

AUCTION.

NORWAY DEALS AND DANTZIC
TIMBER.

J. N. RUSSELL,

WILL offer for Sale by Auction, on Wednesday next,
the 17th Instant, at the King's Yard, Harvey's Quay, in convenient Lots, the entire cargo of the Adjutor
from Dram, now landed, consisting of about

6,000 11 and 12 feet Red and White Deals

1,000 8 feet ditto.

All engaged of prime quality.—Also about 100 Tons of Dantzic Crown Timber.

300 12 to 20 feet Planks.

Terms at Sale, which will begin at One o'Clock.

May 13, 1826.

NOTICE TO

PASSENGERS

MEMEL TIMBER

HARVEY BROTHERS

OFFER FOR SALE,

500 Tons New Crown Timber

30 Tons Baltic Oak,

420 12-foot 3-inch Red Wood

12 Fathom of Lathwood,

Just arrived per David, Captain Bartlema

ALSO,

American Yellow and Red Pi

Dantzic and Memel Timbers,

Norway and Quebec Deals,

Masts, Spars and Poles,

Mahogany, Oak, Ash, Birch

Timber and Plank,

Sheet Lead, Ridge and Kiln

Fire Bricks, Roman Cement, I

Baltimore Barrel Staves,

Yellow Candle Tallow, Pot A

Virginia Tobaccos, Corn Sack

Coals, Flaxseed, &c. &c.

And they daily expect PALM OIL,
CANDLE WICKS, and a further supply
WINDOW GLASS and RAW SUGAR

13th of 5th

GOVERNMENT ST

AND

DEBENTUR

D. F. G. MAHON

3, TONTINE BUILDINGS, GROSS

Will receive orders for the Pur

of Government Securities

IRISH OR ENGLISH

THE Prices are now so low, as to

of FOUR PER CENT. and upwa

which will be invested

Every information on the subject

Debentures and Stock, will be afforded

D. F. G. MAHON'S Office, where

Lists can be seen.

Limerick,

A BALL AND SU

WILL TAKE PLA

AT THE NEW ASSEMBLY

TIPPERARY

ON TUESDAY, THE 16th

STEWARDS

Major ELLARD, 65th Reg

Captain BRADSHAW, 5th

Captain DOYLE,

JAMES SCULLY, Jun. E

CHARLES MANSENGH

JAMES BUTLER, Esq.

LADIES, 5s.—GENTLEMEN

Tickets to be had at Mrs. B

AUCTION O

FURNITURE