

deliberately discharged a blunderbuss at him on the spot. After rifling the considerable quantity of money and valuable the place.

held in various parts of this County were attended by great crowds, as the information was conveyed to Mr. Magistrate, that a preconcerted fight was to be between two adverse parties of 500 men each, and that Gentleman accordingly sent a party of Police, to prevent, if possible, a party of blood. The rioters conceiving themselves intimidated by their great numbers, boldly commenced the conflict. Mr. Vokes and his ringleaders and pursued him—the fellow derided, and threatened the Magistrate if he did not help him. Mr. Vokes fired and shot the offender, and he was immediately made prisoner, and the determination had a salutary effect on his companions, who dispersed in all directions, without any sanguinary disposition. Some partial rioting took place in the evening, when the elimination for the intended battle were when one faction had erected a tent convenient for refreshing and organizing.

riots occurred at the fairs of Stonehall on the same day, and two men were killed in a pitched battle at the former. The Magistrate could not send a sufficient force to suppress it as it was necessary on Monday last.

Ballingarry, on Monday, was rather dull, but the sales were high and but little sales were continued dry weather has not served evening, the Mayor held an inquest at the Gas-House, on the body of Denis Spelliey, who had died in a field above the Gas-House, on Monday. A strong suspicion prevailed, that the man came to his death from some noxious substance administered by a quack Doctress, named Warren, who had placed himself for the cure of a

To investigate the case fully, the Mayor ordered an inquest to Monday; and, in the interim, the body was opened by Surgeon Thwaites, and the stomach analysed. The result proved the substance in circulation, for it appeared that he had taken it, and the Jury returned a verdict according-

a large concourse of persons assembled at the market, and paraded the streets of that City with placards, on which were inscribed, "No more employment; ourselves and our families are starving; draw up an address to the Mayor on Monday, and were met by Mr. Sheriff proceeding to present it. This gentleman's act of gently remonstrating with the crowd by some fellow in the crowd, cut in the middle of the day for protection. Things began to assume a alarming aspect, the peace officers brought up the 5th Dragoon Guards cleared the riotous assembly, without any further violence. The Mayor has since consented to receive a deputation of unemployed operatives.

farm house in Killocten, in this County, James Dower, was burned to the ground and the furniture through the carelessness of a little old man narrowly escaped the flames. On Monday night, three fine sheep, the property of Mr. Esq. at Newcastle, were plucked of the hands of some inhuman wretches, and one of the sheep was found dead on the ground

Kennelly, for conspiring to rob, of various sums of money. William Spaine, Patrick Meara and Philip Dwyer, residents of Nenagh—the former to be imprisoned 12 months, and the latter 3 months. Ryan was a carman whom the above persons intrusted with a remittance to Limerick to bring home goods. The unworthy agent gave the money to his coadjutor, Kennelly, to hold over for him, and then procured a person to give him the mark of a blow or two, that he might represent to his employers that he had been attacked and robbed on the road. The conspiracy was elucidated by the City Police, and the money found in a forge at Anacotty.—John M'Namara and Patrick Horan, for larceny, to be imprisoned 4 months; Mary Grady, for larceny, 3 months; Hannah Danaher and Mary Apjohn, for an assault, 3 months; Patrick Fitzgibbon, assault, one month; James Quin and Thomas Gleeson, for an assault, one fortnight, and to find security; Thomas Hoare, for an assault, one fortnight, and a fine of 20s.; Patrick Walsh, Catherine Walsh, and Honora Quin, for an assault, one week, and to find bail; Parker Busted, for the same, fined 6d.; Edward Howard, concealing himself in Mr. Boyse's house, and robbing it, to be imprisoned one month.

A meeting took place, on Monday last, near Charleville, in the County of Cork, between Edward Singleton, Esq. and Peter Smithwick, Esq.—John Cuthbert, Esq. as second to the former, and Robert Smithwick, Esq. to the latter. After an exchange of four shots each, Mr. Peter Smithwick walked up to Mr. Singleton and made him an apology.

The Archbishop of Cashel will hold his triennial visitation for the diocese of Ardferd, at Killarney, on the 27th of June next.

The Rev. Mr. Murray, Vicar of Askeaton, is to preach the Visitation Sermon at the Cathedral, in this City, on the 22d of next month.

On Sunday last, prayers were offered in the different Churches and Chapels of this City for rain, which is so much wanted at this particular time.

Yesterday, the ground, on which an Alms-House, for twelve widows, is to be erected, agreeably to Mrs. Villiers' will, was marked out, near Munchin's Church.—A school house for boys and girls is to be attached to the Alms-House.

Orders have been given by the Treasury to the Post-masters General, that the postage on letters between England and Ireland shall be forthwith assimilated to those of England. This will be an important reduction, as at present letters from Great Britain are charged with the full Irish in addition to the British postage.

On Sunday, a woman named Mary Nash, fell into the river from a turf boat and was drowned.

A man named Hehir hanged himself in a St. of Insanity at Thomond-Gate, this morning.

On Monday, a young girl, in Mary-street, was severely bitten in the arm and face by a large dog, which was destroyed by the Police shortly after.

Mallow Races will commence early in August, six days' running, and a 50l. plate each day.

The eloquent Rev. William Bushe, Rector of St. George's, Dublin, will advocate the cause of the Widows in St. John's Alms-house, in this City, at their Parish Church, on Sunday next.

The Rev. Joseph Crofts, of Roscrea, is to preach a Missionary Sermon on next Sabbath evening, in Wesley Chapel, George's-street, at 6 o'clock in the evening.—Advertisement will appear on Saturday.

The Treasurer of the Protestant Female Orphan School acknowledges the receipt of £1 Irish, from a lady for use of that Institution.

The Treasurer to the Mendicity Institution acknowledges to have received from Rev. W. B. Odell, the sum of 1l. 16s. 11d. in aid of the funds.

instantly obtained, but in vain; she became speechless till Sunday morning, when she died twenty-seven hours after the first attack.

NOTICE

REQUEST that the owners of DOGS be securely Logged, and not suffer them to roam the streets without such a precaution. Penalties to do so will be fined, as many accidents have occurred from want of attention to this matter. Magistrates so often expressed on this subject. Police have received instructions to adopt every necessary measure.

HENRY WATSON, Mayor
Exchange, 10th May, 1826.

CHARITY SERMON

ON SUNDAY NEXT

THE Annual Charity Sermon in aid of the SAINT JOHN'S WIDOWS' ALMS-HOUSE will be preached in St. John's Church, by

JOHN FITZGIBBON, St. John's-Square

COKE AND TAR

FOR SALE, AT THE GAS WORKS, at the reduced rate of 50s per ton, and 30s per ton of Tar, OFFICE, BEDFORD-ROW, Limerick, 16th

THIS IS THE LAST LOT

IN forming the Scheme, the Contractors are studious to render it in every respect a liberal approbation. Besides retaining all the advantages of late schemes, and making every Ticket have introduced for the FIRST and LAST time in the annals of LOTTERIES, a novelty of

SIX THIRTY THOUSAND

When the great population of the United Kingdom is considered, and that this is the very last opportunity will have to gain independence by risk, must be expected the desire will be so great for a farewell venture in the Wheel of Fortune. Tickets and Shares very scarce; and the purchase until the approach of the draw, unable to obtain a Ticket at any price. Lotteries, with not one-half the number as Capitals contained in the present Farewell Scheme, price has frequently risen to Fifty or Sixty Tickets. The Contractors, however, pleased to the Public, that all who apply at any Office in Dublin, or to the Agents throughout the Kingdom, shall be supplied at the present price; 29th This Month, (May), the price will be increased Twenty-four Shillings a Ticket and Shares in proportion. The Scheme

SIX PRIZES OF £30,000

With every TICKET a PRIZE of 10s. aggregate exceeding THREE HUNDRED EIGHTY THOUSAND POUNDS ALL IN ONE DAY, 18th

When Lotteries end for ever, Tickets and Shares are now on sale at all Offices in Dublin, and by the various Agents in Ireland.