

with their conversation as in a and their behaviour in many into shame some Christians. One particular it was gratifying to be-ble to worship him, whom their ed. In England 4 or 5 Jews were one of them by birth a foreigner, who who has become by faith a Christian. adoubtedly, an interesting people, scoffing and mockery of all narranted in sending forth labourers to which there are not sufficient to ga-and of the Patriarchs, the Prophets, e the Son of God was born, suffered, le all the sons of men to their Omniland where the light of truth first native glory and splendor, but which, been justly styled the land of dark-There many a poor unenlightened from a Christian Country, hoping for for his body if not for his soul—there ionaries go forth, and endeavour to uted creatures to live and to die by and faith in Jesus. We lead them to lehem, the mount of Olives, and the pane, and explain to them the scenes them what one called Jesus there en-mark out to them the desolation that of Jerusalem, show them the cause of ferings, and tell them of things which standing. We tell them of a people Christians, their compassionate feelings they wish to console and comfort them. ally of a much better world, and of ation to the divine will. Have we not to go forth and call on you to aid such use of Israel; there may be difficulties we should consider it is the cause of the of God, that Being who is equally the sand of Jews. We look forward then, onfidence, to the time when the know-shall cover all the earth as the waters He would beg of his auditors, when any of the Jews or sees them, to ask him stian indeed, and not strive to assist this Oh! it is one thing to be a Christian other thing to be one in truth and reality. man concluded a very impressive address resolution.

Gibbings proposed the next resolution, led by Doctor Townley. er, the Rabbi, presented himself to the bert Maunsell, Esq. had moved another Alexanderis of low stature, and appa-years of age, with regular features, but and accent. His mode of address was sting. He hoped the company did not him to hear from a frail being, a Jew or speech, for in that they would be disapwould not say much, only that twelve shing sinners were waiting for their bene-ey were far more debased and sunk than on the face of the earth. The Jews d formerly in a great degree, and not o he himself witnessed the greatest perseose people calling themselves Christians; ough conscience, and what should the r it but scorn and contempt. They had New Testament, or to love their enemies; ment was never known to them, but from ey learned to hate those who hated their ay evil for evil, and to look on all those s idolaters. When he first came to this t four years and a-half since, he never e a testament in existence, but this Society and his brethren a Christianity and doc-re not used to, it has come home to their y see they are sinners, that Jesus of Naza-ton House, Derbyshire, Bart. to Maria Charlotte Talbot, daughter of the late Dean of Salisbury, and niece to the Duke of Beaufort.

DEATHS.

On Monday night, at his seat, Fort-Henry, near Killaloe, Stephen Hastings, Esq. one of the oldest Magistrates of the County Tipperary.—During a long and active life, Mr. Hastings maintained a character of great respectability, strict integrity, and perfect correctness in all his dealings and intercourse with society; for upwards of forty years he acted as Agent to the extensive Estates of John Joseph Henry, Esq. in the Counties of Kilkenny, Tipperary, and Limerick, and whilst sedulously alive to the interests of the inheritor, who entrusted to him the management of those Estates, a degree of indulgence and lenity was evinced towards the Tenantry, which deservedly acquired their warmest attachment. As a Magistrate, possessing a sound judgment, and a clear understanding, his decisions were cautious, correct, and free from bias, and calculated to maintain a due respect for the laws. He was distinguished for every amiable virtue which could add to social and domestic felicity; he never forgot the friend he had once esteemed, nor the acquaintance he had once formed. To make those happy to whom he was bound by the ties of affinity was the paramount object of his heart, and no man was more ardently desirous for the happiness of every human being—this generous feeling manifested itself in unostentatious activity, whenever opportunities presented themselves. He was a kind neighbour, and we may venture to say, that from the universal opinion of his high personal honor, he was enabled by the kindness of his nature, and the influence of his interposition, to effect more conciliation in the country than any other person. He was Captain of the Killaloe Yeomanry in the year 1798, and as an active and humane Officer contributed much to the suppression of disorder, and the restoration of quiet in the country. With so many claims to esteem and affection, is it necessary to add, that his death is the cause of unfeigned regret to a numerous circle, who have lost in him the excellent man, and the faithful friend?— His remains will be interred in the Cathedral of Killaloe, to-morrow, at eleven o'clock.

At his father's house, Cloonmackin, near this City, on the 23d instant, of a rapid decline, in his 22d year, Sydney York D'Esterra—to the deep sorrow of his own family, and the regret of all with whom he was acquainted.

On Monday morning, at his father's house, George's-street, aged 16 years, Samuel son of Mr. George Spain, saddler, a youth of great promise and amiable dispositions.

In William-street, Mr. Michael Kelly, jun. son of Michael Kelly, Esq.

In Broad-street, the wife of Mr. Malachy Ryan.

On Saturday last, in Jail-street, Ennis, at an advanced age, after a protracted and painful illness, which she bore with pious and Christian fortitude, Mrs. Catherine Wall, relict of the late Richard Wall, Esq. of Ennis, and sister to the late John Quin, Esq. of Ross-Brien, Co. Limerick.
 In the demise of this respected Lady the poor have suffered a most material loss, and those who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, have to regret being deprived of a most pleasing companion.

In Waterford, suddenly the wife of Doctor Briscoe.

At Dumfries, the Rev. William Inglis.

In Peter-street, Dublin, after a few hours illness, Mrs.
 Rogers, wife of William Rogers, Esq.

In Duke-street, Westminster, the Right Hon. Sir Archibald Macdonald, late Lord Chief Baron of the English Court of Exchequer.

At Caen, France, Henrietta, wife of John Falkiner Ambrose, Esq. of Mount Ambrose, County Dublin, and youngest daughter of the Rev. Dr. Thomson, of Longstowe-hill, Cambridge.

The 26th ult. at Naples, the Duchess of Florida, relict of the late King of Naples.

At Calcutta, Lieut. Hugh Maximilian Elliott, late 25th Light Dragoons, son of the Right Hon. H. Elliott.

At Witham, Essex, the Hon. Mrs. Talbot.

Sunday, at her house in Upper Seymour-street, Countess Bentinck.

Woolen Drapery and Men's Attire, ment, No. 131, George's-street, Limerick, is to the Public, at the First Cost Invoice Price.
 The Proprietor pledges himself that every of the best Quality.
 Gentlemen desirous of getting the best above mentioned, at the lowest possible Price an opportunity never before offered, the New and most Fashionable.
 May 17

PAWNBROKER'S AUCTION

EDWARD HOMER

THANKFUL to his friends and the public for the preference given his Establishment, and that all Articles left at his Office Two Year January last, and many Silver Articles from years are yet unsold—the sale of all in Months, Interest unpaid, will commence on the 1st of June next, and continue every are sold, consisting of a large quantity of and Silver Watches, Gold Chains, Seals, R Pieces of Cloth, Cords, and Linen; a large of Wearing Apparel, Bed Clothes, Table

The Interest will be taken weekly, or a convenient to the owners rather than sell th person wishing to dispose of the Plate in will get the highest price for second-hand Sil which will save them the heavy expence Auction.

N. B.—Money lent, as usual, on Good ten to four o'clock; and the highest price obtained for Second-Hand Plate, in this Cit on Silver Articles.

William-street, Limerick

THIS IS THE LAST LOT

IN forming the Scheme, the Contract studious to render it in every respect w ral approbation. Besides retaining all the of late schemes, and making every Ticke have introduced for the FIRST and LAS time in the annals of LOTTERIES, t novelty of

SIX THIRTY THOUSAND

When the great population of the Unit considered, and that this is the very last t will have to gain independency by risk must be expected the desire will be so ge farewell venture in the Wheel of Fortu Tickets and Shares very scarce; and the purchase until the approach of the d unable to obtain a Ticket at any price. teries, with not one-half the number an Capitals contained in the present Farew price has frequently risen to Fifty or Ticket. The Contractors, however, pl to the Public, that all who apply at in Dublin, or to the Agents throughou SATURDAY, 27th THIS MONTH shall be supplied at the present price; 29th This Month, (May), the price w increased Twenty-four Shillings a Tic and Shares in proportion. The Schem

SIX PRIZES OF £30,000

With every TICKET a PRIZE aggregate exceeding THREE HU EIGHTY THOUSAND POUNDS

ALL IN ONE DAY, 18th

When Lotteries end for Tickets and Shares are now on sale Offices in Dublin, and by the various A Ireland.