

...to reconcile her to her
 ...that God was just, although,
 ...he left her in misery! Within ...another individual was lying in
 ...as further on your feelings, with
 ...it to say, that there is not any
 ...misery than exists in this Parish
 ...asons, I will take the liberty of ...ion, to the intentions of those
 ...I have not had the honor of see-...ne their donations. They will,
 ...d to learn, that after relieving
 ...n attracted their attention, other
 ...ed, have, and will be relieved.
 ...kindly sent his man and horse,
 ...of a...

...ce, that reward which God pro-
 ...all perform a good action. As
 ...ately sent some articles of wear-
 ...e will allow me to represent to ...ned in the eye of the mother,
 ...v she had the means of being
 ...to which, if she could have
 ...ve been with the distracting
 ...returned, she might find her ...ring.) her mother and child,
 ...s, at least from starvation.—
 ...ld, when taught to bless God,
 ...for the welfare of all those
 ...his relief, is, Sir, the sincere

...ble, and
 ...ged Servant,
THOMAS ENRAGHT,
 V. P. St. Mary's.

STOCKS—MAY 25.

.....	237
..... 3½ per Cent. ....	88½
..... per Cent. ....	84½
..... 3 per Cent. ....	76½
..... 4 per Cent. ....	93½
.....	1d
..... Shares, ....	1d
.....	25
..... d. 4 per cent. ....	43
..... t. ....	68
..... Company, ....	7½

ENGLISH STOCKS.

.....	77½
.....	84½
.....	78½
..... v. ....	94½
.....	89
.....	201
.....	76
..... and, ....	—
..... ank, ....	—

LONDON.—The following list
 ...Worship in London, and
 ...they belong:—Protestant,
 ...otists, 39; Calvinists, 21;
 ...s, 28; Presbyterians, 9;
 ...s, 7; Haverians, 1; Jeru-
 ...dominians, 3; Unitarians,
 ...Antiburghers, 3; Roman

John Murray Nasmyth, Esq. only son of Sir James Nasmyth, Bart. of Peebles, to Mary, fourth daughter of Sir John Majoribanks, of Lees, Bart. M. P. for Berwickshire

Harman Cochrane, Esq. M. D. to Mary, only daughter of the late Richard Gore, Esq. of Lamville, King's County.

DEATHS.

On Thursday, Mr. Richard Talbot, late Manager of the Club-House in this City.

In Dublin, Samuel Guinness, Esq. Barrister at Law.
 At Philadelphia, the wife of J. M'Mahon, Esq.

In Doneraile, Mrs. Mary Hannan, relict of the late John Hannan, of Castletownroche, Esq.

On the Dyke Parade, Cork, Dorothea, daughter of Mr. Francis Malone, of Cove.

On the 21st inst. Mrs. Fox, relict of the late Thomas Fox, Esq. of the Treasury.

In Waterford, the wife of Mr. William Budd.

In Dame-street, Dublin, Mr. John Monk.

In Bandon, Miss Margaret Joyce.

On Tuesday night, in Tralee, in his 20th year, much regretted, Arthur Herbert, son of William Hilliard, Esq. late Captain in the County Limerick Militia. His last words while he could articulate, were, "O what joy!
 My Redeemer, I am ready, happy! happy!"

In Omagh, James Hamilton, Esq.

The Rev. Thomas Paul, Rector of Ballinderry, in the Diocese of Armagh.

In Dublin, Nicholas Murray, of New-Grove, County
 Westmeath, Esq.

At Cookstown, Alexander Young, Esq. solicitor.

In Dublin, Mr. C. F. Panofsky, Professor of Music, from London.

On Sunday last, at Kingstown, near Dublin, Mr. Holt, a General in the Irish Rebellion, in 1798—he returned some years since, by permission of Government, from Botany Bay.

In Clonmel, Mr. Edward Price.

At Castledawson, Mrs. Browne, wife of the Rev.
 Solomon Browne, Minister of that place.

In Piccadilly, Lady Mary Anne Primrose, second daughter of the Earl of Roseberry.

Caroline, youngest daughter of Lieut.-Gen. Gosselin.
 On the coast of Africa, Captain R. W. Parsons, of his Majesty's ship Dispatch.

Near Rangoon, Lieut. Charles James Whitelock, 2d Madras Native Infantry.

At Brighton, Mrs. Leigh, aunt of Mr. Secretary Canning.

Janet, wife of Robert Magee, of Mecklinburgh-street, Dublin, Esq.

In Castlebar, the wife of Mr. Redmond Carney.

Friday se'nnight, at the Royal Marine Barracks Lieut.
 Colonel Palms Westropp, of the Plymouth Division of Royal Marines. This meritorious Officer became a Lieut.
 28th of April, 1793; Captain, 3d March, 1797; Brevet
 Major, Oct. 25th, 1809; and Lieutenant-Colonel 4th June, 1814. Colonel Westropp lost his left arm, on board L'Achille, at the Battle of Trafalgar. His remains were buried with Military honours at the Stonehouse Chapel burying ground, Plymouth. The Marine corps, to which the deceased was attached, attended on the occasion; a great number of Naval and Military Officers were also present; the Marine band preceded, playing the Dead March in Saul. Colonel Westropp was brother of the late Rev. Thomas Westropp, of Ballynolan, in this County.

In Cheltenham, Elizabeth, Lady of Lieutenant-Colonel Kaye.

At Roscarbery, where he was at School, on the 23d inst. Richard Bernard, second son of Francis Bernard, Esq. 38th Regiment.

To the Ladies and Gentlemen who kindly to collect—Mrs. Windham Fitz-Gerald, Mrs.
 Poole Gabbett and Mrs. O'Donnell; Right
 Henry Watson, Esq. Mayor of Limerick, Capt
 Robert Maunsell and Samuel Dickson, Esqr Congregation present on the occasion that returned.

Amount collected in Church.....	£34
Captain A.....	1
Mrs. Browne.....	1
Mrs. William Bushe.....	1
Mrs. Vandeleur.....
Major A. Fitz-Gerald.....
A Friend.....
A Friend.....
By a Lady.....

CATHOLIC MISSION IN N AMERICA.

THE Rev. Mr. O'GRADY, a Catholic from the Diocese of OHIO, has arrived for the purpose of soliciting the aid of its charitable Citizens towards the dissemination of the Catholic Faith in that extensive part of the

On SUNDAY, the 28th Instant, a Disco-delivered by the Rev. Gentleman in St. Mich-at Three o'Clock, for the above truly merito-

The Diocese of Ohio is larger than the Kingdoms, being more than seven hundred East to West—from North to South its exten-been computed, as these extremities are situthe savage Indians.

But a few years back this vast track was than a wilderness nearly destitute of civilized
 In the year 1818, the Rev. E. Fenwick Missionary who visited it. After a solitary many days, he discovered a small cabin in poor Catholic from Ireland—here for the first offered up the glorious pledge of man's redem-

In 1821, this district was erected into and Dr. Fenwick appointed its first Bishop consecration he returned to his charge, ac-only four Priests—of whom the present appli-

After innumerable and incredible difficult Divine Providence to crown their labours beyond their most sanguine expectations.
 of a little better than two years their little fl-from the small number of 200 souls to t-from 15 to 20 thousand.

In a district so extensive, numerous and obvious that all their efforts must be insuffihave no Priest to discharge the duties of t-be confined by sickness, debilitated by his overtaken by infirmities. Here the poor often compelled to travel from 50 to 100 r-minister the last rites of our holy religion penitent, exposed to the inclemency of th-whole nights and at all seasons, with no ot-the canopy of heaven, no other covering save ing forests—no other bed than the dying fo-

The friends of religion are therefore earn-to contribute in order to increase the num-in so extensive a vineyard, and to extend th-religion to thousands of souls who at pr-rounded by darkness and sit in the shadow

From those who cannot attend, the sm-will be most thankfully received and grat-bered by the Right Rev. BISHOPS, I
 P. P. of St. Michael's, or any of the Re

Handwritten signature