DEATHS.

Yesterday, at Littleton, in this County, the Rev. Tho-Grady, Treasurer of the Archdiocese of Cashel, and Rector of Borris-igigh, County Tipperary.

At his home in Patrick-street, on the 1st instant, aged 72 years, Mr. Thomas Lewis, surgery and seedsman—a respectable citizen and a steady and constant friend, whose dealings through life were always marked by the strictest integrity, and whose lamented death will be long remembered by his family and numerous acquaintance, in whom the poor have always found a kind and liberal benefactor.

At Roscrea, on Tuesday last, greatly lamented, Mrs.
Hamilton, wife of the Rev. John Hamilton—she died of irritative fever brought on by a hurt in one of the ankles. Perhaps a more amiable or a more valuable woman never existed—she was a pattern of female excellence in domestic life.

At Fanningstown, County Kilkenny, of fever, aged 81 years, Peter C. Walsh, Esq.

In Waterford, the relict of Mr. Patrick Shallow.

In Dublin, the wife of James Gracey, of Downpatrick.

In Bandon, Mrs. Ursula Toole.

At Woodbine-Lodge, Co. Longford, Mrs. Dudgeon, wife of Alexander Dudgeon, Esq.

In Brunswick-street, Dublin, Mr. John Sutherland.

At Newbliss, Co. Monaghan, James Moorhead, Esq.
second son of Doctor Moorhead, of that town.

At Anner Mills, near Clonmel, Miss D. Stephenson, one of the Society of Friends.

At Mount Pleasant, Anne Catherine, eldest daughter of the late Samuel L'Estrange, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.

At Warrenpoint, William Dudgeon, Esq. late Assistant-Surgeon of the 86th Regiment.

At Ranelagh, Mary, youngest daughter of the late Benjamin Grant, Esq. of Lower Mount-Street, Dublin.

In Belfast, Mary Anne, wife of Serjeant-Major Burgess, 3d Light Dragoons.

At Yarmouth, Captain Hays, one of the oldest officers in his Majesty's service, having been in the army 62 years.

At Calcutta, William Jackson, Esq. solicitor.

At Hubbard's-Hall, Essex, William Sims, Esq.

May 23, at Clifton, having passed his life assiduously in the public service, Brigadier-General Thos. Brownrigg, for many years First Commissioner of Military Accounts.
He had been ordered there by his Physicians after a long continued attack of gout, and expired a few minutes after his landing from the Steam-Packet from Dublin.

At Cupar, Fifeshire, Colonel Joseph Boswell, late of the 63d Regiment.

At Bath, in her 75th year, the Dowager Countess
De La Warr, widow of the late John Richard Earl De La Warr.

At Cheltenham, Elizabeth, the wife of Lieut. Colonel Eyre. She was the second daughter of Henry William Wilson, Esq. of Didlington Hall, in the county of Norfolk.
