

the 72d regiment, have marched magh.
earn, that John M'Donnell, Esq. of are, arrived here yesterday, in perfect nham, and was met on the road by his who, to evince their delight on his from his carriage, and drew him to own has arrived in Cheltenham. e burgesses of the Corporation of Pierce Chute, Esq. Provost of that g year.

ustine Fitzgerald and family have arom England.
chbishop of Cashel, and family left rton, Rathkeale Glebe, for his visitation ctors Geary and Vereker were elected Fever Hospital of this City, for the Richard Franklin, jun. Esq. Surgeon paid to the Treasurer by Governors.

h is to be consecrated by the Bishop, a soldier went into a public house in stole a silver watch which lay in the mediate pursuit being set on foot, the and lodged in jail by the Mayor—the ed, the robber having dropped it in a e ran from his pursuers.

the light fingered gentry or lasses de-Gentleman of 65, and a City pedawatch, in Mary-street.
ron of Mr. James D. Lyons, of Croom, way to town at 11 o'clock f persons who forcibly carried away ool House at Aghalown, Co. Cork, nights ago, and the roof completely rioting in the streets, yesterday, were the Mayor.

g in to day in a car, entangled his leg and had it broken, he was taken to the quarter Sessions of the County com-ale before Mr. Toome the Barrister, on sequence of the election going on, only favoured the Court with his presence; rather heavy, the crown inconsiderable.

alsho (who we perceive is Counsel for at the Westmeath election,) is to state plaintiff in the breach of promise action, ensuing Assizes in this city.

received a letter, justly complaining of the size of bread. The Mayor as the writer, that no Assize of Bread and until there is the purchaser must the vender. The Mayor, however, will e public shall see who gives the largest s in future to publish the games of the size which each gives to the buyer.— rest assured, that the Mayor will adopt ead of a bad quality shall be confiscapurpose the Market Jury are requested vor, at his office, at One o'clock on of vegetables were this day seized from ent to the House of Industry by the the Fever Hospital yesterday, received a Kish of Turf, and some brooms. of Saint John's Alms House received on Mayor, a quantity of pigs offal, seized which impeded a passage in the street.

the Mayor, to the City Gaol, William Regiment, stealing a watch; by Captain Conolly, uttering forged Bank of Irethe County Jail, by William Wilson, a, for assault and rape—by George M.

Catherine Brian and Catherine M'Auliff, John

At Tuntington Sussex, Major W. Hewitt, second son of General Sir George Hewitt Bart, to Sarah, second daughter of General Sir James Duff.

DEATHS.

On Monday, in Münchlin-street, sincerely regretted by her family and friends, Mrs. Barry, wife of Edward Barry, Esq. of the County Cork.

At Clifton, of decline, on the 19th instant Frances, eldest daughter, and a few hours after George second son of George Tuthill, Esq. of Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin.

In Waterford, William Ardagh, Esq.

At Friar's-Park, County Meath, Mary, relict of the late Patrick Russell, of Dunganny, Esq.

In Bandon, on the 22nd. inst. in the 35th year of his age, John Patrick Blair, Esq. son of the late Capt. Blair of the 10th Foot.

In Skibbereen, Avisia, youngest daughter of the late Thomas Baldwin, of Mardyke, County Cork, Esq.

At Woodbine-Lodge, Queen's County, Frances, only daughter of Captain John Blake.

On Saturday, at Ardchue, in the county of Carlow, having attained the very advanced age of 107 years, Mr. Gabriel Thorpe, uncle to the late Alderman Thorpe, of Dublin. He was a freeman of Carlow for nearly 80 years, and bore, during his whole life, a character of the most unimpeachable integrity. He retained his faculties nearly to the last, and was only a few hours ill; so much was this worthy man respected by his neighbours, that, though there was a hearse in waiting, the country people insisted upon carrying him to the burial place, which was at a considerable distance from his residence.

At Aldwick, Sussex, Sir T. Brooke Pochell, one of the Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber to her late Majesty Queen Charlotte.

At Craighis, Major-General Sir John...
Paymaster of the 92d Regiment.

In Fort-William, in consequence of an accident in a buggy with a restive horse, Lieutenant-Colonel Henry Reddish Browne, commanding his Majesty's 87th regt.

Annabella, widow of Count General James Lockhart, of Ixe, and Carnwath, in Scotland.

At Highbury Terrace, the relict of Colonel Wigan.

In Calcutta, Colonel Hensing, aged 44.

Suddenly, in London, Alderman Cox, who obtained a verdict against Kean, the actor, for Crim. Cox.

At St. Omer, in France, Emily, wife of Colonel Watson, Royal Artillery.

At Windsor Castle, John Wright, many years porter to his present Majesty.

In Bath, Louisa, only surviving daughter of the late Lieutenant-General England.

At Balceh, on 2d June, Samuel Robe, aged 113.— He left behind him, living, 9 children, 63 grandchildren, upwards of 200 great grandchildren, and 8 great great grandchildren. His oldest son William, aged 90, George 86; Samuel, 82, John, 75. His 5 daughters are younger.
He was four times married. He had no family by his second or third wife. He had one girl by his fourth wife; she is 18 years old. He and his children have always been in the service of Earl Gosford.

On the 7th inst. in Armagh, of a decline, Miss Elizabeth Palmer, second daughter of the late Mr. David Palmer, of that city.

At Waterloo, Decosts, the celebrated peasant, who was compelled to act as guide to Bonaparte in the memorable battle of June 18.

Major General Robert Haldone, C. B. of the Hon.
East India Company service.

At Chelsea, in his 75th year, Captain William Keith, late of the 23d Welsh Fusiliers—three of his sons fell in the service of their King and Country, and the fourth and only surviving one, is a Lieutenant in the 22d Foot or Queens Royals.

At his Glebe, on Saturday last, the Rev. Ambrose Hickey, D. D. Rector of Murragh, Cork.

In Dublin, Mrs. Beamish, relict of George Beamish, of Hollyhill, County Cork, Esq.

At Castletown, Berehaven, on the 25th ult. Lieutenant John Broderick, of the R. N. aged 29.

OAK BARK.

JUST PUBLISHED.

Handsomely printed in Two Volumes Octavo, boards, with a Portrait of the Princess de Lamballe, Cipher of the secret correspondence of Marie An-
SECRET MEMOIRS OF THE ROYAL S OF FRANCE, during the Revolution. nal and authentic anecdotes of contemporary and other distinguished Personages of that eve-now first published from the Journal, Letter versations of the PRINCESS LAMBALLE, Lady of Rank, in the confidential service of tunate Princess.

Printed for TRUTTEL and WURTZ, T Jun. and RICHTER, 30, Soho Square,

CHATEAUBRIAND'S NEW RO
ON MONDAY next will be published, printed in 12mo. with a portrait of the vignette by Deveria, and an engraved Music price 7s.

LES AVENTURES DU DER
ABENCE RACE.
Par M. le VICOMTE DE CHATEAUBRIAND Pair de France.

London Printed for TRUTTEL and WURTZ Jun. and RICHTER, 30, Soho Squa

An English translation will be published time. Subscriptions are also received for edition of M. de Chateaubriand's Works, first livraison will appear on the 25th inst. in The collection will form fourteen livraisons.

LACRETELLE'S HISTORY OF

THIS day are published, imported by WURTZ, TRUTTEL JUN. and RICHTER, Soho Square Volumes XIII. and XIV. wh the work, of

HISTOIRE DE FRANCE, LO
pendant le XVIIIe. Siecle.
Par M. CHARLES LACRETELLE Membre de l'Académie Française

Also the same two volumes as Vol. VII. and the title of Histoire de la Revolution Franco The complete work in fourteen Volumes £5. 16s.

The Histoire de la Revolution Française, eight Volumes, 8vo. price £3 12s.

Purchasers of the preceding Volumes an complete their sets with the least possible d Publishers may be had M. Lacrosette's oth

EQUITY EXCHEQUE

Michael Roche and Mary } PURSU his wife, } of said C Plaintiffs. } this cause, be Joyce Lynch, Philip Lynch } 19th day of J John Lynch, Jas. Lynch } will, on Mon John Fitz-Gibbon, and } day of July, Anne Fitz-Gibbon other } o'clock in the wise Lynch, his wife, } my Chambers Defendants. } way, Dublin } in the highest der, from the 25th day of March last, f pending this cause, all that and those th Lands of Broomhill and Cloonkilly, in Condus and Clonribbons, in the coun possession of Edward Caulfield, Peter Dav Fitz-Gibbon, widow of Michael Fitz-Gib and also all that and those the lands of Tu Tully and Barnagurilie, situate in the bar in the county of Limerick, in the possessi Dawson, Patrick Griffin, Thomas Hay Quane, in said order mentioned. Dated