TO THE FREE ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF LIMERICK. GENTLEMEN,

THE Political Connexion which has subsisted between us is interrupted, and I trust we will consider it a mutual duty to restore it as soon as we can. In your constancy and public spirit, I place every reliance. Gratitude for your past conduct is deeply engraven upon my heart; the artifices by which we have been assailed are discovered—you may rely upon it they shall be counteracted.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen,
With undiminished esteem,
Your obliged and faithful Friend and Servant,
STANDISH O'GRADY.
Rockbarton, July 4, 1826.

TO THE INDEPENDENT ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF LIMERICK. GENTLEMEN,

IT is with the strongest feelings of gratitude and pride, that I acknowledge the distinguished and flattering manner in which you have done me the honor to elect me, for the third time, one of your Representatives in Parliament. I shall endeavour, by a strict attention to my Parliamentary duties, to promote your interests, and merit a continuance of your partiality.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen,
With respect and gratitude,
Your obliged and devoted Servant,
RICHARD FITZ-GIBBON.
July 4.

TO THE INDEPENDENT ELECTORS, OF THE COUNTY OF LIMERICK. GENTLEMEN,

YOU have conferred on me the highest honor my ambition could desire, and the most sacred trust your confidence could repose.

To the resident Gentry of this great, fertile, and populous County, I owe both the distinction and the responsibility:—and while I naturally with vanity receive the one, I as naturally with diffidence accept the other.

Amongst you all the greatest portion of my life has been spent; to you my qualities have been made known; and from you all I have received support. As a public man, however, I am untried; the partialities of private life may overrate my ability, but they afford some flattering evidence of my intention to serve your interest.

I can only say, that what I have as a Candidate declared, as a Representative I shall endeavour to perform, and that in the support of Civil, and the establishment of Religious

First Class.....from 2s. .. to 1s. 6d.
Second Class.....from 3s. .. to 2s. 6d.
Third Class.....from 5s. .. to 4s. 6d.

THE Court of Directors of this Company give NOTICE, that they have REDUCED the PREMIUM OF INSURANCE as a throughout the UNITED KINGDOM, be diate Abatement, equal to, and more general offered by other Offices.

In addition to the above important advantages, (adhering to the RETURN SYSTEM peculiar benefit of dividing among the Insured part of the Profits, at the expiration of every year which Return has heretofore averaged nearly on the amount of Premiums paid to the Company) Reduction of Premium and the Periodical Inspection thus combined, render the Terms of this Office superior to those of other Companies.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

At this Office Lives are Insured to the age of 100 with as much facility and dispatch as any other THE PREMIUMS ON ALL AGES ARE PAID IN CASH, UNDER THE LONDON INSURANCE COMPANIES; and people whose Lives are insured are allowed to pass by Sea from one part of the Kingdom to another—and also in time of peace to pass Vessels or Steam Boats from British to Foreign Ports between the Texel and Brest, both inclusive.
