

assaulting John Connelly, who is out rhyme or reason, was struck and binson, while standing forenent his tie was present-bye at the time, when he went into the house, saving w up his accounts." John Hickie ng part" of the evidence, and the d to be imprisoned a-week and pay assaulting Catherine Donoughue— on of the prosecutrix this cause an- ery aggravated complexion, the same house, and yet never y together. At the late election e came in angry collision, and the e suffered severely from the ren- agged down stairs, as she said, two n out of her head, and repeatedly or in every part of the body. A swore that previous to the affray, lung a key and a knife at the other adly she would have bloody work d pass over. The Jury were of t Reddan was the guilty person, o be imprisoned for a month and a behaviour, himself in 10l. and n.

A Hartigan, Roger Maguire, John Armody, were charged with a riotous ng Timothy Lane, Michael McCarrell. The traversers were broug- ecutors shoemakers, and between ennity appeared to exist. Lane their vengeance, and suffered very mped and kicked, his shoulder joint wheels of a car in the Irishtown, could not well explain. McCarthy atment something similar but not g to interfere with the victim of prosecutors deposed that the blows pon them like hail, and they only m by their unceasing application, calling a fresh blow put them again. After a tedious investigation the on between their respective case- tigan, Roger Maguire, and John ting the others. They were there 3 months imprisonment, and the Thursday week.

as ended at Bruff, on Saturday Bills were disposed of. ss Noel, Mr. Horne, and a com- to give three concerts at Swin- o-morrow evening.

of Fisheries, had Phillip Purcell y Sessions, on Monday last, for ssion, not being qualified to keep nessy was convicted on a former of one of the police for the like rty shillings each.—John Hanly, Patrick Kelly, were committed sions to the County Jail, having 12th ult. for breaches of the nine nets have been taken up watchmen on the Lower Maigue- ng printed notices through the ationing persons from steeping ivulets.

street, has received 5s. 5d. from last week, for M'Guane, the alluded to in the Evening Post at date to the moment of his ng, he received pecuniary assis- charitable in our City. Himself y circumstances, but his widow utterly destitute.

The House Steward of the Mendicity Association has received from the City Police 41 pounds of stolen pork, the owner of which declined prosecuting.

Committed by the Right Worshipful Henry Watson, Mayor, to the County Gaol, Terence Ferguson, charged with having committed wilful and corrupt perjury, at the last Bruff Sessions.

BIRTHS

In Dublin, the Lady of Lieut.-Col. Seton, of a son.
In Talbot-street, Dublin, the Lady of John Martley, Esq of a daughter.
At Charleston Cottage, County Cork, the Lady of the Rev. Richard Deane Freeman, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

At St. James's Church, Dublin, the Rev. James Currie, to Charlotte, eldest daughter of John Lees, esq. of Kineilly, County Wicklow, and niece to Sir Edward S. Lees, of the General Post-office.
At Cardiff Church, Thomas Congreve Robb, Esq. of the Royal Artillery, son of the late Sir William Robe, to Eliza, daughter of the late William Richards, Esq.
At St. James's Church, London, Charles Julius Bergner, Esq. late of the 15th King's Hussars, to Elizabeth, eldest daughter of John Cane, Esq. of Brentry, Gloucester.
At Boulogne-sur-Mer, Harry Edmond Waller, Esq of Cheltenham, to Caroline Elizabeth, daughter of John Larking, Esq.

DEATHS.

Yesterday at his house near Doonass, Mrs. Fitzgerald, wife of John Francis Fitzgerald, Esq. late of this City, Brewer; no Lady could be more generally esteemed and beloved, or more sincerely regretted, by her family and a wide circle of friends and connexions.

At the Dominican Chapel Glementworth-street, the Rev. Mr. Cavenagh, O. S. D.

Yesterday morning, at Pallas Green, Mr. John Mc'Mahon, Post-Master, deeply regretted by a large family, and a numerous circle of friends.

In Rathkeale, on Friday last Mrs. Aylmer, wife of Henry Aylmer, Esq. of Crough, in this County.

At Maryborough, on the 9th inst. William Pilsworth, Esq. for many years an eminent Apothecary, Postmaster and Local Inspector of the Gaol, in that town. His mild and conciliating manners endeared him to all who knew him—he enjoyed the intimacy of the great without being elated, and his kindness and condescension drew upon him the blessings of the poor; his memory will be long cherished by his sorrowing friends—but much more by his widow and six children, whom he has left to mourn the irreparable loss of an affectionate husband and father. He was blessed in the prospect of death with a lively hope, founded on the atonement made by the Lord Jesus Christ who died the just for the unjust.

In London, Mr. Thomas Sidley, Revenue Officer, late of this port.

Suddenly, near Callaghan Bridge, on his way from Waterford, Mr. Michael Kennedy, of Ballydavid.

At Hackney, from the effects of the Arracan fever, Lieut. James Sinclair, 10th Regiment of Native Infantry, sixth son of Sir John Sinclair, Bart.

At Hythe, James Shipdem, Esq. Mayor of that town.

At High Wood, of apoplexy, brought on by a long residence in India, Sir Stamford Raffles, in the service of the Hon East India Company, late Lieutenant Governor of Bencoolen and Singapore.

Thursday, in London, suddenly, John Farquhar, Esq. late owner of Fonthill Abbey.

At the Royal Arsenal, Woolwich, aged 23 years, Jane, eldest daughter of Colonel Sir Alexander Dickson, Royal Artillery, Aide-de-Camp to his Majesty.

At Danington, near Newbury, in his 67th year, Lieutenant-Colonel Francis Sachevarell Stead, deeply regretted for his kindness of heart and urbanity of manners.

Royal Drury-lane, Bath, Bristol and London.
Mr. and Miss Garbois most respectful announce to the Nobility and Gentry of during Miss Garbois' engagement at the will give Instruction in all the most fashion as taught in Dublin.

2/3

Limerick, Jul

FOR THREE NIGHTS O

By permission of the Right Worshipful Henry Mayor of Limerick.

AT SWINBURN'S GREAT BRUNSWICK-STREET

On Thursday, Friday, and Saturday

July 12, 13, and 15

WILL TAKE PLACE

A GRAND CONCERT

IN WHICH THE CELEBRATED MADAME VESTRI

(Of the King's Theatre, and Theatre-Royal and Covent Garden,)

Will make her first appearance here

MR. HORN

(Of the Theatre-Royal Drury-Lane)

And Miss NOEL, (of the Theatre-Royal Opera House,) who will also make appearance on this occasion

In addition to his Extraordinary Combina- Talent.

MR LATHAM AND MR BRO

(Of the Theatre-Royal, Dublin) are also engaged, and will appear on the ACT I.

GLEE—"Merrily goes the bark"—Vestri, Latham, Brough, Horn

SONG—"Dolce Dole," Extravaganza, Rosini

SONG—"Softly o'er my senses stealing" Vestri

SONG—"Mr Horn—"Bosalie" Vestri

SONG—"In infancy our hopes and fears" Vestri

SONG—"When darkening clouds," Vestri

DUETTO—"Ale' Idee di quel metall" Vestri

SONG—"Kathleen O'More," (Irish) Noel

SONG—"I've been roaming," a new posed expressly for her by Mr Horn—Miss Noel

GLEE—"Mynheen Van Dunk,"—Horn, Latham, Brough.

ACT II.

DUETTO—"As it fell upon a day,"—Miss Noel—Bishop

SONG—"Said a smile to a tear,"—Miss Noel

SONG—"Cherry Ripe,"—Madame Vestri

QUINTETTO—"Sento! Oh Dio!"—Miss Noel, Messrs Horn, Latham, Brough

SONG—"Rest warrior, rest,"—Miss Noel

DUETTO—"All's Well,"—Madame Vestri

Horn—Braham

SONG—"Mr Latham—"Largo al factore"

SONG—"Stand to your Guns my heroes"

Mr Horn—Beethoven

SONG—"Di piacer,"—Madame Vestri

FINALE—"God Save the King,"—Miss Noel, Messrs Horn, Latham, and Brough

Tickets 5s British, to be had of GOGGIN, Printer and Bookseller, 15

Places to be taken at the Room, from each day.

1/2 Day by