

ced him to take them for the sup-o were in a state of starvation.—

stealing a watch, value £2, the Brien.

posed, that the watch was stolen from window, and saw no one take it. ation, that this gentleman prevailed accompany him to one of the lofts, and eventually presented her with tieth part of that sum. After she he watch, and the prisoner was r sale, near Baal's bridge. The case were so peculiar, that a very l the Court, and the Jury acquitted stealing from Catherine O'Brien, a 14s. in silver.

ple countrywoman, was in the act in Newtown, when she caught the pocket, taking out the box; the escape, but was arrested outside the before she transferred the box and a who evaded pursuit.

ty and sentenced to transportation ourt ordering the prosecutrix £1 as stealing six pair of shoes, the pro-ohn Bunton.

posed, that prisoner was employed shoes were missing from the shop, rch in the prisoner's house; he g them.

ker, gave prisoner a good character

The prisoner said all he was allowed port himself and family was but he intended to replace the shoes, fair character. The Judge intisider the circumstances of his case, be pronounced.

oldier of the 84th Regiment, was watch, the property of J. Dwyer.

—Lost his watch in Mr. Hanrahan's nd three men came in for a half pint n retire to an inner room to drink it his watch was on a nail in the observed the watch was the party; they all away; pursued him, ef; the prisoner made into a public where he was taken; prisoner was h was produced, he said it was not he knew nothing about it; witness boy, sworn—saw prisoner run into bridge; witness was in the back tap in and stretched himself on a seat; d in under the seat near the wall, wit in an opposite one; Mr. Shanks ier went out with him; witness where he had been sitting, and in seat he found a watch where the nd.

worn—got a watch from the boy in the tap room, and he appeared ke to him.

aced no witnesses, but alleged that d not remember anything about it. that drunkenness was no excuse for consulted a few moments and re-quilty.

he was sorry to find, that a person, country well, should be placed in ituation, he would suppose that the o much, but people can not make nduct by depriving themselves of themselves to the condition of brute spoke—he said he was wounded in of Vittoria, on the 13th of June use to remember the day, for his for the Plaintiff.

These constituting the labours of his Lordship in the Record cases, he adjourned to the Criminal Court, where Catherine Sullivan and Catherine Walsh were put to the bar, charged with stealing wearing apparel. They rally pleaded guilty; his Lordship sentenced them to three months' imprisonment each and hard labour.

The Court then adjourned.

FRIDAY, JULY 14

Cornelius Ryan, Edward Ryan, Patrick Leonard, and Cornelius Ryan, jun were convicted of manslaughter.—
The elder Cornelius Ryan, was sentenced to seven years' transportation, the rest to 18 months imprisonment.— The remainder of the trials that took place were of no importance.

George Meares Maunseil, and John S. Browne, Esqrs. visited the House of Industry yesterday, and made the following report on the Book:—"Visited the House of Industry and Lunatic Asylum, as members of the Summer Assizes Grand Jury, being deputed by the Foreman to do so, and found the greatest regularity, cleanliness, and good order, in every department thereof. Inspected the School also, and are perfectly satisfied with the manner in which it is conducted."

BIRTHS

In Blessington-street, Dublin, the Lady of Charles Hunt, Esq. of a daughter.

In the Lower Castle-yard, Dublin, the Lady of the Rev. J. D. Sirr, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

At Bristol, the Rev. Mr. Day, to Olivia, only child of the late Rev. W. D. Hoare, of this City.

In Dublin, George Shirley Kiernan, Esq. to Anna, only daughter of the late Rev. Thomas Brownrigg, of Springfarm, County of Wicklow, Chancellor of Christ Church, Dublin.

In London, Major-General Sir Henry F. Bouverie, to Mrs Wilbraham, youngest daughter of the late Lewis Montolieu, Esq.

Thomas Haynes Bayly, Esq. only son of N. Bayly, Esq. of Mount Beacon House, near Bath, to Helena Becher, only surviving daughter and heiress of the late
B. Hayes, Esq. of Marble Hill, County Cork.

DEATHS.

On Thursday last, in George's-street, deeply regretted, Gabriel Fisher, Esq. one of the Society of Friends.

In Mungret-street, Mrs. Locke.

On Wednesday night, in John-street, aged seven, Mary, daughter of Mr. William Bradshaw, Chandler.—At this early age she developed qualities of no ordinary cast, and therefore those who knew her sympathise, on this event, in the feelings of her parents.

On Merchant's-Quay, Mr. Laurence O'Keefe, Public Writer.

On the Glanmire-road, Cork, aged 23 years, Richard, only son of Mr. George Bickerton, of that city.

The Rev. Arthur Jocelyn Weidon, of Rahin, Queen's County—above thirty years Rector of Killeban.

In Dublin, William Hutton, of Baldoyle, Esq.

In Dublin, on Thursday last, E. F. W. Steinkopf, Esq. Deputy Assistant Commissary-General.

At Pallas-Green, Mr. John M'Mahon, Post Master—after a servitude of twenty-seven years in the Post Office department, his conduct was remarked, throughout, for the strictest sobriety and attention; he left a widow and seven children unprovided for, in a state of the deepest affliction.

NOTICE.

THE Partnership which lately subsisted between BRYAN M'MAHON, and JAMES M'MAHON, (under the Firm of Bryan M'Mahon and Son,) Notaries Public, is mutually dissolved.

Arthur's-Quay, July 14, 1826.

IRISH OBSERVER NEWSPAPER.

THE Public is informed that the publication of the IRISH OBSERVER will be resumed on Wednesday next, the 19th Instant, as heretofore, at No. 11, Patrick Street.

The Doors will be lit with Wax.

HOUSE AND STORE

TO BE LET,

THE House in which JOHN O'BRIEN Catherine-Street, and the Stores adjoining well-enclosed Yard, Pump and Stable. possession can be given of the Dwelling-House there has been a large sum of money lately The Stores are, at present, occupied by S.
Esq. and possession can be given of them August next.

Apply to JOHN O'BRIEN, Catherine-S

HOUSE &c.

THE DWELLING-HOUSE and CON
the Crescent, lately occupied by the Wi Ross, are to be Set, and immediate posses given.

A Lease for Lives or Years as may be more Tenant.

Application to ROBERT MAUNSEIL, Bank-Place; or D. F. G. MAHONY, Esq.
George's-street, who will send a person to Premises.

Limerick, July

WHOLESALE AND RETA
BIRMINGHAM AND SHEFFI
HOUSE-FURNITURE AND TR

WAREHOUSE,

NO. 17, RUTLAND-STRE

(Opposite Messrs. Watsons', Limerick Chron

S SANSFIELD

INFORMS his Friends and the Public o received per the Ships Osprey and Mary o a fresh supply of Goods in his line, which ained to sell at the lowest possible prices Imperial Measures, in Pewter, Copper, and serving Pans, and Brass Skillets, Patent English Pots, Ovens, &c.

Highest price for Old Copper, B and Lead.

N B—An Apprentice Wanted.

NOTICE.

THE Partnership of JAMES and CORBETT, Music and Musical Instru 39, Patrick-Street, Limerick, having termin ult.

JAMES CORBETT,

with the greatest respect, informs the Nob his Pupils and Friends, that he will continu at his house, No. 5, Richmond-Place (E where his Ware-Rooms will be supplied wit in the Music and Musical Instrument line prices; and all Musical Instruments pur engaged in the most satisfactory manner.

Second-hand Instruments taken in part new ones; also, Grand and Square Piano &c. hired out by the night, week, month o

Mr. CORBETT, as usual, gives instr Piano Forte, Single and Double Action F Ladies who wish to learn to play in Cor lessons at his house, where they will be a different Instruments.

AGENCY.

A SOLICITOR from Ennis, intend for England and France, on the 24th will visit the principal Towns in the Sou and reached to Ennis on the 24th