o the demand their men are making Lieutenant, and appointed to the Esk. s they themselves are determined more than they did heretofore.

itary officers were committed to desperate struggle, having floored rtobello bridge, while " hot with nigh in blood." The principals in ver for trial at the Sessions, having their midnight lark.

mantic drama of Faustus, with lresses, is now playing to crowded street.

imstance that the entire of the 22d ay, were made free of that town, bout twenty years ago, to serve an of the patron of the horough .se freemen in the regiment at the lace near Kells, on Sunday, where ourteen of the Constabulary force er of a Magistrate, to prevent the g and hurling. The latter would ground, and violence having been try people was shot dead; another n inquest is now holding by the nt Doig and five Policemen were noo, in the parish Lurlogh, near ng seizure of an illicit distillery. rived of his carbine, and three of two others lost their bayonets, jured. Two of the Countrymen ded.

the conduct of the Mayo Police sy, before Major Warburton and ir as the evidence has gone it tends from any neglect of duty, in the election for that County. nt, the members of two Orange

Ballimore, County Leitrim, by tho insisted on taking away their ngagement ensued and two men ew order of Liberators is to be of of the Friendly Brothers. The -on one side is a figure of Liberty Cross—the inscription, Ireland as Order of Liberators.

Post gives the following account the Mountmellick riots :- " The r indignation, did certainly enter the town of Mountmellick, on inptorily demanded * even-handed d said, that without it they would hands.' The Magistrates, with impressed with deep alarm, at pedient of bringing the leaders on at which the Orangemen entered abandon for ever all open display is assurance tranquilized their rated professing mutual forbearrgetfulness of the past." till be an baif yearly meeting of Mining Company of Ireland .idley Mines in the County Cork cent. above that of the best copper e Northern Whig has been crimi-Ir. Delacherois Crommelin, of by a Jury of the County Antrim, M. Cleliand to three months' ime observed, that private character n no portion of those subjects on n observe.

investigation at Richmond Peniuntil Friday, when further prod until August 14th, to enable ned is it to go Circuit.

The Limerick Chronicle

WEDNESDAY, JULY 26.

Yesterday, the Mayor held an inquest on the body of Patrick Greene, who, it appeared, was killed by a blow of a spade on the head, inflicted by one Patrick Ryan, at Coorass, near Newport. The Jury returned a verdict of wilful murder, and the Mayor has issued a warrant for the apprehension of Ryan and his confederates, who, immediately after the wicked deed, rescued him from the hands of justice.

On Saturday night last, a sheep was killed and the carcase carried away, leaving the skin and entrails, the property of Mr. Joint, of Ballinacarra, near Askeaton On Saturday, Mr. William Fitz-Maurice, Excise

Officer, with Lieutenant Bailey and 12 men of the 12th

Foot proceeded from Fermoy, and captured an illicit still near Ballyduff, in the County Waterford. On returning they were assailed by a large mob who rescued the seizure amidst vollies of stones. During the conflict Lieutenant Bailey was knocked down, upon which the soldiers fired Eleven of the twelve soldiers were wounded, and the small party escaped the encreased fury of the multitude with infinite difficulty.

Simon Fitzgibbon and Martin and Edward Boland, sentenced to death at last Ennis Assizes, are ordered for execution on the 5th August.

Yesterday, a woman named Bridget Fitz Gerald was transmitted from our County Gaol, to prosecute Owen Cronin, James Brandon, and John Fitz-Gerald, at the Galway Assizes, for the robbery of a Mr Carr, of that town -It was with this woman £52 of the money was found some time ago. She is wife to one of the priconers.

Serjeant Hyde, of the 24th Regiment, stationed at Ennistymon, while bathing on Monday evening last, at Lahinch, was unfortunately drowned, in very shallow water-he was a young man of very good chrracter and conduct.

The depot of the 42d Royal Highlanders is ordered from Edinburgh to Paisley.

The depot of the 71th Regiment is ordered from Stirling to Edinburgh.

A Detachment of the 39th Regiment of Foot recently embarked, as a guard, on board the Speke convict ship, which will proceed, in a few days, with 154 male convicts from Woolwich, for Sydney.

The 71st Regiment has completed its complement.

The Depot of the 9th Regiment of Infantry has received orders to proceed from Winchester for Plymouth. The Depot of the 74th Regiment of Foot is ordered, on being relieved at Plymouth by the Depot of the 9th Regiment, to proceed to Jersey.

The 17th Regiment of Infantry is shortly expected to arrive at Liverpool, from Scotland.

A Detachment of the 68th Depot, at Devonport, consisting of 2 Officers and 82 men, is about to embark in the Layton transport for Canada.

The depot of the 36th Regiment is marching from Colchester upon Leicester.

The 3d and last division of the 56th Regiment is shortly expected at Portsmouth from the Mauritius.

The Kains transport is ordered to convey the 56th Regiment from Portsmouth to Hull.

Major-General Sir Patrick Ross has arrived at Antigua, in the Druid frigate, and taken the oaths as Governor, amid the enthusiasm of the inhabitants.

Six Native Regiments in India are ordered to be raised forthwith—the Field Officers are to be appointed by the King, all the rest by the India Company.

There are no Military Promotions in the London Gazette of Friday.

her with drowning the child, she said it was no it had died four years ago. Baron Pennefather said, that though it was suspicion, and required to be thoroughly exami yet the Jury would not be safe in convicting the of murder, however strong their suspicions migh Verdiet-Not Guilty.

In this case, Counsel for the Crown prosecuted The prisoner was defended by Messrs. O'Con-H. Walshe.

The county Tipperary Assises commenced on at Clonmel. The following is a list of the Ge sworn on the Grand Jury :- Hon. Henry Ald Prittie, M. P. Foreman, John Hely Hutchine M. P. James Hewett Massy Dawson, Esq. M. George O'Callaghan ; Hon. G. I. Dawson ; Si Carden ; Sin Babrey De Vere Hunt ; William by, William Inefather, Matthew Jacob, Richar Humilton Lord William Perry, J. Trant, N. Taylor, Ambrea Going, R. Creagh, R. S. M. James Scully, M. C. Moore, R. Lowe, S. O'l William Purefoy, and F. Trench, Esqrs. The Hon. Buller Clarke is Foreman of the Kilkenny Grand Joy, and Alderman Humfre City. The Maranes and Marshinger of Thomand

and suite, lett Cork, this week, for the Lakes of ney, which are crowded with distinguished visite Lieutenant-General Bell, Lieutenant-Gener

Lieutenant-General and Mrs. Hughes, Major-Scott, Sir Rufane Donkin, and Colonel Lew arrived at Cheltenham. On Sunday evening, the Marchioness of Wi

with the young Marquis, his brother, Lord Willi his sisters, the Ladies Sarah and Susan Beresford, at Dunmore from the Milford Packet, and proce

Curraghmore. The remains of the late Marquis pected to arrive on Tuesday, when they will be c forthwith to the family vault at Clonegam, near C more. The Right Hon. Lord Viscount Duncannon, harough Court, has been appointed a Magistrate Counties of Kilkenny and Tipperary. Francis Blackburn, Esq. King's Counsel, is a Sergeant at Law, in place of Mr. Sergeant now a Commissioner of the Insolvent Cour Blackburne is a lawyer of very high character, p of great legal knowledge, and very superior t His appointment must give general satisfaction. Thomas Franklin, Esc. of this City, is appo the command of 3d Revenue Police, at Bullina, Mayo. The Rev. T. Langan, of Dublin, is appointe cipal of the College of Dieppe, by the King of

It is in contemplation to improve the appearant ancient Gothic Cathedral Church of Galway, by t down some old houses and opening a new street.

On Thursday last his Grace the Archbishop a held his Triennial Visitation at Lismore, for that on which occasion the Rev. Mr. Piercy preached cellent Sermon on the Pastoral duties. His Gi dressed the large assemblage of the Clergy in v quent and energetic terms, and after he had con the Lord Bishop of Waterford held his Visitation understand that his Grace has appointed Thursd the 27th inst. for the Visitation of the Diocese of

A meeting of the Enniskillen branch of the Hi Church Missionary Society, was held in Enniskil Friday, the Rev. John Richardson in the chair Rev. Mr. Athill read the annual report, and the

Mr. Burke, Rev. Mr. Singer, and Rev. Mr. Has addressed the meeting. Wednesday, Michael Phelan, of Ballydrisland

Tramore, County Waterford, was killed and shoe mangled by his own bull. It is supposed that he tacked while asleep upon the grass. No person we sent. He has left a large family.