DEATHS.

On Thursday last, at her house, in Clare-street, after a few days' illness, universally regretted, Mrs. Elizabeth Sargent, widow of the late James Sargent, Esq. and sister to John Boyne, Esq. of this City. She was a Lady of most exemplary piety, a fond and affectionate parent, and a sincere and attached friend. She met her approaching dissolution with christian fortitude and resignation, and died fully convinced—in quitting this world of woe—in the sure and certain hope of a most Glorious Resurrection, through the merits and intercession of the Son of God.
