

equally well accomplished, and in the individuals in their private capacities, an opportunity to all who pleased to shape they thought right, to the ends of the County, when disturbed, is the duty of the Magistracy, but by the line of duty they would have abdicated the duty and assumed one of inferior character, going to all classes of the country. This is without precedent—and allow me to refer to the recent violation of the law, inwas, which should make it a fitting case to become a fitting subject for magisterial inquiry would have been called on to ascertain the outrage which declared the state of popu-which may lead to consequences comproof the country? Was it of a private I ask, why, upon occasions incomparably when blood has been spilt, with every atrocity, and in the very neighbourhood men, so anxious to elicit a collective but ration from the Magistracy—why it was measure was not considered necessary Gentlemen would not thus suggest that me latent, some unavowed motive, which conduct so unexampled and extraordinary.
 have been urged, as I am informed it has
 at all events the crime has been committed Martial Magistrates will not refuse their conish the delinquents. Gentlemen—They use their co-operation, but it should have a shape, namely, by individual exertion, ve, and which would not warrant an influced contrary to their opinion, contrary,
 ded, to that of the great body of the Gentry
 What that inference is I shall now state.
 racy of the County assembled upon that
 who were distinctively a deliberative body, cular duty it was to ascertain and report popular disturbance—if they contented with a declaration of the crime committed,
 nce to its causes or a necessity of enquiry
 —the only inference which such a line of calculated, I will not say intended to sug-
 at the outrage was not only unjustifiable, admit, but that it was also one of individual on, unextenuated and unprovoked. Would that there existed no cause for irritation on the peasantry of this County, and that the tem of education against which this outrage ed, in its details or in its results, neither is just object of popular discontent. This is y inference which would arise. I shall not was intended to be produced, as I will not es to Gentlemen different from what they
 it was an inference which the Magistracy been no way warranted in sanctioning, more without the preliminary step of an enquiry.
 It stated that it was an affair between land-ant, and that the causes which led to it were ee cognizance of the Magistracy. This is not was the partial manifestation of a prevailing ings, passions and prejudices of the country,
 ed, and the vast majority of the prisoners im-
 the transaction, were strangers to the property of Mr. Syngé—and a neighbouring County suggest that local oppression, if outraging the
 of a people, may effectually disturb the safety
 y. I allude to the late disturbances of the merick, originating in the oppression of the enantry. It was said that the Magistracy
 e justified in putting Mr. Syngé upon his trial.
 should have been consistent, nor should they,
 ll, without enquiry, commit themselves in provolving, perhaps fatally, the lives and liberties f their countrymen—a number which, without he catalogue, one would suppose sufficient to most sanguinary taste. For the personal cha-Mr. Syngé I entertain every respect—I believe even in his errors but misguided by an overthe Marquis of Hastings.

 At Woodhall-Park, Herts, the Hon. Mrs. Alexander
 Leslie Melville, of a daughter.
 In Seymour-Place, London, la Duchesse de Coigny, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.
 On Sunday, at Kilkee, Daniel Cudmore, Esq. to Jane, eldest daughter of the late William Russell, of this City, Esq.
 In Dublin, William Jones, of Sackville-street, Esq.
 to Miss Margaret Forrest, of Rathmines, Esq.
 At Lea Church, by the Dean of Kildare, the Rev. J.
 Elliott, of Castlecomer, to Charlotte, youngest daughter of the late Robert Carey, of Portarlinton, Esq.
 In Castlebar, Mr. John Troy, of Dublin, merchant, to Miss Anne M'Kilroy, of that town.
 At Clifton Church, George Henry Ames, Esq. of Clifton Wood, to Anna, second daughter of the late Gideon Acland, Esq. of Camberwell, Surrey.
 At Taunton, Lieutenant-Colonel Harrison, C. B. son of Richard Harrison, Esq. Remembrancer of First Fruits and Tenths, to Mary, eldest daughter of the late Rev.
 Nathaniel Alsop Bliss, of Colerne, Wilts.
 At Lakenham, the Rev. Ralph Wilde, to Priscilla, third daughter of the late Captain J. D. Parsons.
 The Rev. William Phelps, Vicar of Meare, to Anne, relict of William Robbins, of Cardiff, Esq.
 At Trinchinopoly, Captain Archer, 20th Madras
 Native Infantry, to Harriet, daughter of John Chartres, of Great Britain-street, Dublin, Esq.
 Thomas Collins, Esq. of Road, Somersetshire, to the daughter of James Danvers, of Richmond, Surrey, Esq.
 Captain Hamilton Maxwell, to Isabella, youngest daughter of the late Captain Ab. Bunbury, of the 62d regiment.

DEATHS.
 At Frankfort Castle, King's County, in his fourteenth year, on Wednesday last, Richard, third son of the late Charles Rolleston, Esq. of Silver-Hills, King's County.
 Joseph Fishbourne, of Straw-hill, near Carlow, Esq.
 At Rathgar, Mrs. Dillon, relict of the late Michael Dillon, Esq. Civil Engineer.
 Edward, second son of Mr. George Ledwith, of Upper Dominick-street, Dublin.
 Catherine, wife of Samuel W. Handy, of Bracca-Castle, County Westmeath, Esq.
 At Carrick-on-Suir, Mr. Joseph De Courcy.
 In North King-street, Dublin, much regretted, in the 75th year of his age, Mr. Thomas Blundell, watch and clock maker—a truly honest man, and to the poor a generous benefactor.
 In Church-street, Ennis, Mr. Peter M'Donogh, many years Clerk to the Treasurer of the County Clare.
 Mr. Alexander Potterton, of Dame-street, Dublin.
 At Greenwich, Henry Meriton, Esq. late Superintendant of the East India Company's Marine at Bombay.
 At Farnham, Yorkshire, the Rev. Edmund Lally.
 At Belvedere, in Kent, Countess Gersdorf, daughter of Lord and Lady Saye and Sale.
 At Leamington, the Hon. Charles Vesey.
 At Ringdufferin, in the bloom of youth, Charlotte,
 wife of James Bailie, Esq.
 In Edinburgh, Mrs. Ryder, wife of Mr. William Ryder, Manager of the Caledonian Theatre.
 In an affair of honor at Pisa, C. B. Eliston, Esq.
 Henry Addington, third son of Thomas Luther Lech-mere, Esq. of the Custom-House, London, having been accidentally drowned while bathing.
 At Berry-Hill, near Taplow, Captain Wells, R. N.
 At Otterburn, Doctor James Wilson, who accompanied the late Earl of Minto to the Government of Corsica.
 At Clapham, Miss Astle, daughter of the late Thomas Astle, Esq. Keeper of his Majesty's Records.
 At Ham, near Plymouth, George Collins, Esq. in his 64 year.
 At Ilfracombe, Captain M'Kenzie, 5th Regiment of Foot.

RICHARDSON.
GUN-MAKER,
 No. 1, GEORGE'S-STREET,

certain, and not deferred to a distant period.
 No Person insured in this Office is liable of Partnership, and all losses are paid without or discount.

The SUN LIFE OFFICE insures premiums which, under forty-five years
 when the assurance is for the whole under fifty-five for shorter periods, are ably lower than are generally required.
 Tables of Rates, and every information
 from the Agents, in all the principal Towns Kingdom.

P. & E. MUIR
 Agents at Limerick

N. B.—A complete Fire Engine established up at this Office.

The following Policies have been
 at this Office, viz.

No. 1982
978
3163
2224

100
 2/3
 13, George's-Street, Limerick

TO BE SOLD,
ONE HUNDRED TONS
OLD HAY,
 OF GOOD QUALITY,
 ON THE FARM OF BALLINACREAGH, NEAR NEWMARKET-ON-FERRELL.
 Application to the STEWARD,
 2/4

WATERFORD
NEW RED SPIRIT
WILLIAM DARRIDAN
 HAS on Sale a small quantity of the esteemed article, remarkably well high season, which he will dispose of at encouraging terms.
 Wm. Darridan, Waterford, 1840

STORE
 AND BAKE-HOUSE
 TO BE LET, FROM 29TH SEPTEMBER
 AND IMMEDIATE POSSESSION
 An excellent Store and Bake-House
 SITUATE IN SHANNON STREET
 Apply to SAMUEL DICKSON,
 or to Mr. T. HARTIGAN, James's-street

TO THE NOBLEMEN AND GENTLEMEN OF THE
SOUTH OF IRELAND
WILLIAM STANTON
 SURVEYOR, ENGLAND
 And Valuer of Estates
 RESPECTFULLY solicits the public, and begs to inform them reside at No. 23, CLARE-STREET
 any commands he may be honored with attended to.
 Wants an APPRENTICE
 respectable connexions.

NOTICE