

that the historian, in recounting their look with admiration on the virtue and marked their conduct. Their struggle to the world; they would excite those who possessed freedom, and teach of retaining it; they would excite the who were not possessed of freedom, how they should incessantly and ardently (Loud and enthusiastic Applause.)—the British Constitution, no people could prouder compliment upon it, than did land by their ardent struggles to parti- cings. They should obtain the benefits ion—they should not any longer be re- could not be left to the apathy of hope- still more dangerous sentiments that ac- The benefits of that Constitution were of right—an honourable bargain for it men fighting for liberty—it was refused rfidious violators of a treaty—He could the conduct, the noble and magnani- the forty-shilling freeholders of Water- red that the resolutions of the Catholic et, and could not, be vox et præterea ected Chairman sat down amid cheers. after passing a high eulogium on the of Waterford, moved that the Rev. John be appointed Secretary to the Meeting.— ramed with acclamation. Sheehan returned thanks, and then read Llandaff, W. Coppinger, Esq. of Cove, ort, Mr. Spring Rice, Henry Villiers hard Musgrave, of Tourin, Esq. in reply to the Provincial dinner. All those ap- oining to attend, with the exception of Sir and Mr. Musgrave. Mr. Rice's letter Mount-Trenchard, and alleged the illness mily as an apology for not accepting the Wyse in an eloquent speech moved the on which he said were founded all the vantages to which, as subjects of a free ics were entitled. Mr. Coppinger fol- John O'Brien, of Elm-Vale, delivered eech on the violated Treaty of Limerick. onnell, Counsellor O'Connell, and Cap- ntinued in succession, when the meeting o Tuesday. n, Esq. of Elm-Vale, filled the Chair at rday evening, (Tuesday).

ure in giving insertion to the following te. upon a subject of great local impor- be recollected that, upon our present e's coming into office, his attention was arious abuses occasioned by the interfe- s. The feeling which was then excited ded and commercial interests was unani- the employment of these persons—no one to justify the existing system; and no lutary change would have been effected the Merchants objected to conform to an en proposed. We by no means pretend e Gentlemen. The session for receiving y commenced, and it might reasonably be at in the competition of a large and lively viduals would be found to yield to pre- and depart from regulations which could The same difficulty will probably attend empt to dispense with Brokers, and we with "A Citizen" that nothing short of ent can be effectual—indeed, it is strange an abuse could so long remain uncor- ve reason to know that the annual amount ge, and which is out of the pockets of the is 6000l.

ent Gort and Thomas Spring Rice, Esq. on you have evinced to promote the inte- y of Limerick, and to further any measure o its improvement, induces me to think necessary to draw your attention to the sub- medy will be brought forward by you in

The Honorable the Lady of George Mara, Esq. of Maypark, of a daughter.
In South Audley-street, London, the Countess de Palmella, of a daughter.
At Quorn, near Derby, the Lady of the Rev. Andrew Knox, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

At Mary-le-Bonne Church, London, by the Rev. Mr. Burgess, Lieut. Edward Carte, of the East India Com- pany's service, to Charlotte, eldest daughter of the late Henry Wyatt, Esq. M. P.
In Kells Church by the Rev. the Archdeacon of Meath, John Doughty, Esq. of the County of Cavan, to Amelia, second daughter of Thomas Medicott, Esq. of Mac- perath, County Meath.
In Galway, Denis Bowes Potter, Esq. of Tuam, to Isabella, second daughter of the late Samuel Ruxton, Esq.
George Binns, Esq. of the Ordnance Department, to Miss Catherine Higgins, of Back-street, Galway.
On Friday, Mr. Robert Irwin, glazier, to Ellen, second daughter of the late Mr. Thomas M'Auliff, glass-cutter.
In Donnybrook Church, Mr. Edward Williams, to Mary Anne, relict of Henry Danvers, Esq. of the Quar- ter-Master-General's Department.
James Cleghorn, Esq. to Miss Waugh, both of Dublin.
In Glamorganshire, John Augustus, only son of the Right Hon. John Sullivan, of Richings-Lodge, Bucks, to Jane, youngest daughter of Admiral Sir C. Tyler.
Captain Henry M. Blackwood, R. N. to Harriet Louisa, youngest daughter of J. M. Bulkeley, Esq.
At Gretna, William Greaves, Esq. of Ashbourne, to Barbara, second daughter of Captain Thomas Turner, late 16th Light Dragoons, and grand-daughter of Sir John Blake, Bart. of Menlo, County Galway.
Surgeon William Finch, of London, to Sarah, daughter of John Lush, of St. John's Berwick, Wilts, Esq.
At Yeoville, Major Milles, 14th Light Dragoons, to Elizabeth, youngest daughter of the late William Hasbin, of Newtown-House, Esq.
At Aldenham, Herts, Captain Macdougall, R. N. to Elizabeth, only child of Charles Timins, of Cheltenham.
At Shiffnal, Salop, J. Offley, Esq. to Maria, daughter of the late John Willington, of Billbrook, Esq.
In Dublin, Caleb, second son of Eyre Powell, Esq. of Great Connell, County Kildare, to Anne, eldest daughter of Andrew Hayes, Esq. of Ashmount, County Dublin.

DEATHS.

On Monday, at Ballyclogh, Emma, daughter of John Lee, Esq.
Lieutenant Blood, Chief of the Constabulary stationed at Timoleague, County Cork.
At her house, in Glanmire, Cork, Mrs. Chetwood, relict of the late Rev. John Chetwood.
On Sunday last, Daniel M'Carthy, Esq. of Clonakilty.
On Wednesday night last, in the 56th year of his age, Dr. Pentland, Master of the Lying-in-Hospital, Dublin.
Of fever, Jane, daughter of James Harrison, Esq. late of Sunday's-Well, Cork.
The wife of John Chatterton, of Brownstreet, Cork.
In Bantry, in his 21st year, Samuel, second son of Samuel Young, Esq. Surveyor of that port.
Lieut. Fincheson, of Drungardner, near Killea.
In Dublin, Thomas Swords, of Maynooth, Esq.
At New Ross, William Foley, Esq. many years a respectable inhabitant of Waterford.
Aged 82 years, the Right Hon. Lady Sarah Napier, relict of the late Hon. Colonel George Napier, and daughter of Charles the second Duke of Richmond.
At Florence, Louisa Helen, wife of J. Sommers Down, Esq. M. D. and daughter of the late Admiral Patton.
At Dawlish, Devon, Frances, the youngest daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Gustavus Rochfort, M. P. for West- meath.
In London, Mrs. Chambre, sister of the late Sir Alan Chambre.

BEST SOUTHSIDE WORKINGTON COALS.

WANTED,

FOR THE
LIMERICK FEVER AND LOCK H
AN APOTHECARY
DULY QUALIFIED,
He will also be expected to act as House
Purveyor.

THE person elected to fill the situation
his attention solely to the Hospital—
Pounds per Annum of the late Currency
£55 7s. 6d. present Currency, with Apart
House, also Fire and Candles.
Any person wishing to apply, must send
tions, addressed to HUGHES RUSSEL
Treasurer, George's-Street, Limerick, on 15th day of September, when the electio place.

IRISH SLATE

THE MINING COMPANY OF I

HAVE FOR SALE,
At their Quarries, near Killaloe,
SLATES OF SUPERIOR QU
DRESSED AND ASSORTED AS:

	Present Prices
Queens (sized tons) 27, 30, and 33, inches, by 16, 17, and 18 inches...	£3
Tons, 20 to 46 inches, and of various breadths..	...
Quarters, 13, 17, in length,
Half Quarters, 10, 13,
Commons, 7½, 10,
Dutchesses, 24 inches, by 12 inches, 10	...
Countesses, { 1st, 20 ... 9
{ 2d, 18 ... 9
Ladies, { 1st, 16 ... 8
{ 2d, 14 ... 7
Doubles, ... 12 ... 6

The Slates will be delivered at the Quarries
Boats at Killaloe, at Limerick, at any safe place on the River Shannon, on the Grand Canals, or at Dublin—adding the cost of ording to orders, to be addressed to Mr. G at the Quarries, Killaloe; or to the under-
Company's Office, 27, Lower Ormond Quay

By Order,
RICHARD PUDBY,
August 30.

GRAND CONCERT
AND BALL

By permission of the Right Worshipful
MISS LAURENT

BEGBS leave to inform the Nobility and in consequence of the Play being on
she was obliged to change her Concert
FRIDAY, the First of September, at Mr.
Room, No. 50, William-Street.

- PART I.
- Grand Overture, full band
 - Duet—"Rest Weary Traveller Rest," M^{rs} Laurent and Mr. Atkinson
 - Song—"Sweet Home" with harp accompaniments, Miss Laurent
 - Solo Harp—"Huntsman's Chorus"—M^{rs} Laurent
 - Song—"Beautiful Maid"—Mr. Atkinson
 - Grand Sonatto—Piano and Violin—M^{rs} Laurent and Mr. Carmody
- PART II.
- Grand Overture, full band—Incredible
 - Song—"Cherry Ripe"—Miss Laurent
 - Solo Harp—Miss Laurent
 - Song—"Whilst I listen to thy voice"—M^{rs} Atkinson
 - Song—"Dear Ellen"—Miss Laurent