DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, at his house in George's-street, after a short illness, to the sincere regret of a wide and respectable circle of connections, and the deep affliction of an amiable partner and a young and numerous family, John M'Namara, Esq. for many years head of a Mercantile Firm in this City. In performing the several duties of life, none obtained a higher share of confidence and respect—upright and honourable in his dealings, in the varied transactions of a long trade, he preserved that pure integrity of character that marked every action of his life. With the Mercantile world he was esteemed for the urbanity of his manners; and obtained their respect by talents, to which were united an intimacy with all the bearings of Trade, and every acquirement that could constitute an accomplished scholar. Mr. M'Namara was the first President under the Charter of our Chamber of Commerce, and was this year in his sixth Presidency of that Body, an evidence of the high place and confidence he to the last possessed, and which is now the only consolation left to his sorrowing family, who saw and prized him in all the private endearments of one of the best of husbands and kindest of fathers. In Mary-street, Mr. John Purtell, publican. On Monday, at Merchant's-Quay, Barbara, sister of the late Mr. D. Proudfoot, who was drowned the week before. In Stephen's-Green, Dublin, Lucinda, wife of Thomas Reed, Esq. Thomas Armstrong, Esq. of Inchicore, Attorney. In Peter street, Cork, William Charters, Esq. At Riverview, near Innishannon, Richard Long, Esq. Lieutenant in the City Cork Regiment. In Dingle, Thomas Barry, Esq. of Milltown, formerly Quartermaster of his Majesty's Prince of Wales's Own Fencible Regiment, and late Ensign in the Kerry Militia. At Nadrid, the Lady of James Galloway, Esq. In Nile-street, Cork, Mary, widow of Wm. Crooke, of Ahavrin, in that County, Esq. In Dublin, Mr. Jeremiah Meehan, woollen-draper. At Belmont, near Aghnacloy, Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the Rev. Archdeacon Stapford. At Cove, Henry Adams, of H. M. S. Semiramis, son of the Rev. Charles Adams. On Bachelor's-quay, Cork, of dysentery, Miss Jameson, daughter of the late William Jameson William, Esq. In Cahoon, the infant son of the Rev. George Vernon, Rector of that town. Robert Sheehan, Esq. Pro-Collector of Newry. At Ballina, Mr. John Feeny, bookseller and stationer. At Waterford, Mr. Peter Ryan, of Clonmel, Wine Merchant—He left Clonmel to attend the Provincial Meeting, but death arrested this intention. In Londonderry, the relict of Alderman Lecky. At the Mansion-House, Cork, Richard, youngest child of Thomas P. Harrison, Esq. Mayor of that City. Aged six years, Duleibella Frances, daughter of William Crawford, jun. of Perney, Esq. In Dublin, Abraham Yarnier Hill, Esq. On the South Mall, Cork, Miss Ellen Leycester, sister of William Leycester, of that City, Esq. Mrs Sarah Rogers, of Paul-street, Cork. Aged 18 years, Annabella, Anna, second daughter of Patrick Hanbury, of Dominick-street, Dublin, Esq. In Carrick-on-Suir, Catherine, daughter of Richard Walsh, late of Killinerry, County Kilkenny, Esq. In same town, Charles, son of Charles Lennon, Esq. In Waterford, Mr. Nicholas Walsh, teacher of mathematics, and Mr. John Graham. On board the Victoria, off Santa Cruz, Wm. Parker, Esq. late of the 29th Regiment of Foot. At Egham, Surrey, aged 69 years, Colonel Laudy. In Paris, of a fever occasioned by bathing whilst in a Aspiration, T. Palmer, Esq. formerly of the 11th dragoons. This gentleman was concerned in an affair of honour a few days ago, which took place at Rathmines, with a Captain A.

GRAND MEETING OF THE ROMAN CATHOLICS OF MUNSTER.

THE following Resolutions were, unanimously adopted at a General Provincial Meeting of the Roman Catholics of the Province of Munster, held at the Catholic Cathedral, in the City of Waterford, on Monday, the 28th, and Tuesday, the 29th of August, 1826— WILLIAM ROCHE, Esq. of Limerick, in the Chair. Moved by Dominick Ronayne, Esq. of Ringville, Co. Waterford, seconded by John Ryan, Esq. of Scarteen, County Limerick—"That the Rev. John Sheehan—a man no less distinguished by his active exertions in the cause of civil liberty as a citizen, than by his zealous performance of his sacred duties as a clergyman, be requested to act as Secretary to this Meeting." Moved by Thomas Wyse, Esq. Manor of St. John, seconded by James Scully, Esq. of Tipperary—"That Catholic Emancipation is due to the People of Ireland from the Legislature, not as a matter of favour, but as an undoubted right, founded on the principle of Liberty of Conscience, and sanctioned by that social compact which in a free State guarantees an equal participation in civil privileges to all who equally contribute in blood and treasure to the support and maintenance of that State." Moved by Mr. Secretary Coppinger, seconded by John Kelly, Esq. of Limerick—"That the Great Charter of British Liberty was wrung by a Catholic People, Clergy and Laity, from a narrow-minded and oppressive tyrant, and that Charter has consecrated those popular rights, which would be delusive and worthless, if, whilst they unchained the body, they left the mind in fetters, and placed conscience under the control of human oppression." Moved by John O'Brien, Esq. of Elmvale, County Clare, seconded by John Scully, Esq. Tipperary—"That our title to Emancipation is further confirmed by the great National Compact, the Treaty of Limerick; a Treaty fully and honourably fulfilled by the People of Ireland on their part, but which was most perfidiously and basely violated by the British Government of former times; and such baseness and perfidy are justly attributable to all those who continue to countenance and support such violation." Moved by John O'Connell, Esq. of Grens, County Kerry, seconded by Thomas Dennehy, Esq. of Bellevue, County Cork—"That the crime of withholding Catholic Emancipation is much enhanced by the pernicious consequences to all classes of his Majesty's subjects, Protestants as well as Catholics. It unjustly elevates the former, to depress with equal injustice the latter—it gives to a Party what should belong to the whole Nation—it substitutes the profession of opinion for the performance of civil duties—it creates jealousies—it corrupts the sources of justice—it poisons private society and contaminates public bodies—it impoverishes the Catholic and renders the Protestant insecure—and it perverts religion into a source of strife and hate, instead of being, as it ought to be, and as it was intended by its Divine Founder to be, the cement and bond of social order, and the sweet and endearing foundation of every private and public virtue, and of all the charities of domestic and social life." Moved by Patrick Power, of Bellevue, Esq. seconded by William Howley, of Limerick, Esq.—"That it is an unworthy calumny, not credited even by those who give it circulation, that there is any thing in the principles or conduct of the Catholics to render them undeserving of Freedom. We hold no tenet inconsistent with liberty or with constitutional submission to civil authority. The British Constitution itself was framed and matured by Catholics—and we dismiss with contempt and scorn the absurd allegation, that Catholics, who instituted, are unfit to maintain that glorious Constitution." Moved by Daniel O'Connell, Esq. of Derrinane, County Kerry, seconded by John Roche, Esq. of Aghada, County Cork—"That the conduct of the great majority of the Prelates of the Established Church, in opposing by all manner of means our Emancipation, deserves the deep reprobation of every friend of religion and social order. It is inconsistent with the principles of the Reformed Religion, in which they profess to believe, because that Religion purports to be founded on an appeal to individual judgment. It is equally inconsistent with their interests, as the necessary tendency of such conduct is to convert the submissive neutrality of the Catholics into active and zealous hostility, and to embitter the sense of injustice which the support of an opponent clergy naturally creates by superadding the sting of insult." Moved by Stephen O'Meagher, Esq. Kilmoylar, Co. Tipperary, seconded by Richard Sause, Esq. Carrick-on-Suir—"That, encouraged by the repeated decisions of the popular branch of the Legislature, we will again renew our humble Petitions to both Houses of Parliament for the restoration of our long and unjustly withheld rights." Moved by Edmond Lalor, Esq. of Gregg, County of Parliament, and to prepare such form of Petition to the Legislature as they may deem most suited to their sacred character, and to their knowledge of the sufferings, wants and wishes of the Catholic Laity, and praying for Emancipation—and also to present the same to both Houses of Parliament, early in the next Session."

Moved by the Rev. Thomas Coll, of Limerick, seconded by the Rev. J. Sheehan, of Waterford—"That we, like manner, most respectfully request the Very Reverend and Reverend the Catholic Clergy of the Second Order in each Diocese within this Province, to prepare and present a separate Petition of a similar nature, and as near as the same time with our Prelates as may be convenient. Moved by R. P. O'Shee, Esq. of Gardennorris, Co. Waterford, seconded by John O'Connell, Esq.—"That our most cordial and heartfelt thanks are eminently due and hereby given to the Sixty-Nine Peers, who entered into Resolutions at the house of the Duke of Buckingham which no friend of Civil and Religious Liberty can ever forget."

Moved by Philip Barron, Esq. seconded by James Murphy, Esq. of Hyde Park, County Cork—"That we deem it a most pleasing duty to offer the meed of our most affectionate and respectful gratitude to that portion of our Protestant Brethren who have honoured our Meeting with their presence and support. We recognize in their conduct the true principle of Christian Charity and the best evidence of disinterested patriotism—and will be our pride to continue to deserve their assistance and to cherish and imitate their kind and virtuous conduct."

Moved by Dominick Ronayne, Esq. seconded by John O'Connell, Esq.—"That we most earnestly recommend to the Catholics of every Parish in Ireland to hold Meetings, and to prepare Petitions to the Legislature."

Moved by Mr. Pat O'Donnell, of Limerick, seconded by Daniel O'Connell, Esq. County Kerry—"That as has been repeatedly urged as an argument against our claims, that Emancipation is a question which concerns only a few ambitious and interested individuals, and in which the great majority of the people have no interest, we indignantly repel the foul calumny; and although, in accordance with the dictates of our religion, we are determined to respect the laws even while they oppress us, yet we cannot suppress the sentiments of discontent and dissatisfaction we feel at being shut out from a Constitution which we contribute to support by our labour and defend with our best blood."

Moved by Daniel O'Connell, Esq. Co. Kerry, seconded by Peter O'Brien, Esq. City Limerick—"That a separate committee of at least five individuals be named for each County in Munster, to solicit and collect the New Catholic Rent for public purposes not prohibited by law, and with liberty to add to their numbers, and especially to procure the co-operation of the Catholic Clergy; and that each individual of such committee be called on to pledge himself to publish, once in every fortnight, and in such manner as shall be consistent with law, the progress made in such collection. The following Gentlemen were named in pursuance of this Resolution:— County of Cork.—Thomas Dennehy, John Roche, Michael Gallery, Daniel O'Sullivan, Roger S. Bourke. City of Cork.—Jeremiah Murphy, James Murphy, James Daly, Charles Sugrue, Patrick Hackett. County of Kerry.—John O'Connell, James Cronin, James O'Connell, Peter Foley, Rev. Mr. Mahony. County of Clare.—Dean O'Shaughnessy, Daniel O'Connell, James O'Gorman Mahon, John O'Brien, Nicholas Purcell O'Gorman, Thomas Gallery. City of Limerick.—William Roche, William Howley, John Kelly, Peter O'Brien, Thomas Devitt, Rev. Mr. Coll. County of Limerick.—Henry Lyons, John Ryan, Bryan Sheehy, Jeremiah Shine, John Lyons, John Fitzgerald, William Potter. County of Tipperary.—James Scully, Doctor Slattery, Stephen O'Meagher, Richard Sause, James Power, Edward Kennedy.

County of Waterford.—R. Power O'Shee, John Matthew Galwey, Nicholas Power, Patrick Power, Pierce George Barron, Maurice Ronayne, Alexander Sherlock, Dominick Ronayne, William Winston Barron, James Nagle, Patrick Hayden, John Power, Carrickbeg, William Power, Dunhill, Pierce Barron Stafford. City of Waterford.—The present Treasurers and Collectors of the New Catholic Rent are re-appointed. Moved by Daniel O'Connell, Esq. seconded by the Rev. John Sheehan—"That we earnestly recommend to the Catholics of Ireland, to hold a Meeting of a Catholic Association for fourteen days, as allowed by the Algerine Act—such Meeting to commence on or about the 1st of November next; and that we also recommend to such Association, to send a Deputation, in the month of January next, to hold popular Meetings in various Towns and Cities in England, to enlighten the English mind on the subject of our wants and our merits."

Moved by Dominick Ronayne, Esq. seconded by the Rev. John Sheehan—"That we observe with heartfelt satisfaction the daily increasing energy of our English Catholic brethren, in pursuit of Emancipation." Moved by John O'Connell, Esq. seconded by Jeremiah Murphy, Esq.—"That the Catholics of Munster would be guilty of the greatest ingratitude, did they not seize the present opportunity of conveying to the venerated and revered Right Rev. Dr. Kelly, and the Roman Catholic Clergy of the United Dioceses of Waterford and Lismore, the warmest expression of their thanks and gratitude for that uniform devotion to the cause of their Country and Religion which they have ever evinced; and in particular, for the splendid proof of this devotion which they manifested by their uncompromising support of the cause of Stuart and Independence at the late Election of this County."

Moved by John Roche, of Abadda, Co. Cork, seconded by R. P. O'Shee, Esq. of Gardennorris—"That the thanks of the Roman Catholics are eminently due and are hereby given to Daniel O'Connell, Esq. for his splendid and disinterested services in the cause of his suffering Countrymen."

Moved by R. P. O'Shee, Esq. seconded by James Barron Esq. of George's-town—"That the thanks of this Meeting are eminently due and are hereby given to Nicholas P. O'Gorman, Esq. Secretary to the Catholics of Ireland, for his long tried and undeviating integrity in the discharge of the important duties of his office."

WILLIAM ROCHE, Chairman. JOHN SHEEHAN, Secretary. William Roche, Esq. having left the Chair, and John O'Connell, Esq. of Grens, County Kerry, being unanimously called thereto. Moved by the Rev. John Sheehan, seconded by Thomas Wyse, Esq.—"That the thanks of the Roman Catholics of Munster are eminently due, and they are hereby given, to William Roche, of Limerick, Esq. for the great urbanity of manner and distinguished abilities with which he has presided over the proceedings of their Provincial Meeting."

JOHN O'CONNELL, Chairman. JOHN SHEEHAN, Secretary. Moved by the Rev.
