

the pleasure of the party. Dancing such spirit to a late hour in the evening, reluctantly separated—universally de-murements of the day, and the polite troness and Stewards.

the Strand of Carrigholt was visited bathers, from Kilkee, Kilrush, and y. Mule racing, ass racing, and canoe principal sports of the day, and af-cement to the company. The elegant Francis P. Russell, Esq. of this City, ally in the bay with all her canvas set, ensigns.

st-rate Horses from the Curragh, have d for the first day's running at the which adds £80 to the plates heretofore ards:—(Two mile heats.)—Giles, 6
 ; Welcome, aged, 9st. 5lb.; King
 . 12lb.; Miss Foote, 4 years old, 8st. old, 7st. 12lb.; Booty Mare, out of l, 7st. 9lb.; Guicioli, 3 years old, ur, 3 years old, 6st. 10lb.

of the Mining Company of Ireland, and of encouraging these exertions, we ed—in truth it is a subject of such nation-se will unceasingly attend to it; as, it known that within twelve miles of our can be supplied with every description of quality, as ready to the slaters hand, le terms as any raised or dressed in the o procure it that national support it ives. However laudable it may be to o undertakings that afford employment this is one of them, yet, the claims of any of Ireland rest upon the advantages who want the produce of this labour—he gets and in the cheapness with which market, that the Builder will have to the Slates, now for sale at the Company's aloe.

ble, that Merchants and Shopkeepers ivity of pushing the Imperial Copper eral circulation. There can be now no in retaining the old copper money, for ntly placed on an exact level in point of issue. The old pence and half pence in appearance, that they must soon be A large sum of the new coin still tom-House, unappropriated, and must Treasury against the 1st of October, if he interim. The policy of the thing is d when completed will give facility and ss.

d that the Anniversary of the Bible d in this City, on Wednesday the 20th ation from the Parent Society consisting rs Murray and Pope are expected to Monday evening, Mr. Southwell, of , Dublin, performs Rolla, in Sheridan's Pizarro, for his own benefit. To those

 r. Southwell it is unnecessary to say Monday, he will add to the high opin of his merit; and as it is in all likelint of his appearance on our boards, at n, those who have not yet seen him will, o charge themselves with missing the ow left of adding to the number of his eing not only our opinion but that of ay be allowed to say, from authority, as may wish to patronise his exertions g, Mr. Southwell is resolved to express those who do, by every effort in his generous public.

cause of producing contagion. One found would vide straw for 20 families; and the liberal and humane are requested to send donations for the above purpose, to William S. Frazer, St. John's Hospital, who has kindly undertaken the distribution of it to the needy.

Committed to the County Gaol, by John Cox, Esq.
 Coroner, Timothy Lane, for the murder of J. Sullivan, at Adare, on the 6th instant.

Committed to the City Gaol by Alderman Watson, Edmond Gorman, charged with cruelly cutting and mangling Thomas Browne, on the 6th inst.

DEATHS.

On Wednesday last, at Mount Kennett, Mrs. Crawford wife of Mr. Robert Crawford, pilot.
 In Rutland-square, Dublin, Robert Wybrants, Esq.
 Michael Gallwey, Esq. of Kilkerrin, County Cork.
 In Kilkenny, Harrington Ryder, Esq.
 William Cormack, of Balief, County Kilkenny, Esq.
 At Greenville, Dublin, James Greenham, Esq.
 At Roscrea, Mary, relict of the late John Crotty, Esq. of Harcourt-place, Dublin.

In Kinsale, Catherine, wife of Mr. Michael Manoy In George's-street, Cork, Miss Bentley.
 In Dublin, Kelly Nolan, of Lisnaneen, County Roscommon, Esq.
 At Cashel, aged 94 years, Mrs. Butler Lowe.
 At Carrighohan, the seat of her son-in-law, Thomas Parker, Esq. Margaret, relict of the late Samuel Swete, of Greenville, Esq.
 At Bandon, aged 80 years, Mr. David Hunter.
 Lucinda, wife of Thomas Reed, Esq. Stephen's-green, Dublin.

Eliza, relict of James Cooke, of Kilkenny, Esq.
 At Hambledown, near Canterbury, Frederica Harriet, second daughter of Lieutenant-Colonel Henry Bird, of the 16th Regiment.

On Sunday last in Tralee, rather suddenly, much regretted, Mrs. O'Shaughnessy, relict of Michael O'Shaughnessy, Esq. of Newbridge, County Limrick.

In Tralee, at an advanced age, much lamented, Mrs.
 Eagar, relict of John Eagar, of Ardrinane, Esq., and sister of the late Sir Rowland Blennerhassett, of Blenner-ville, Bart.

Suddenly at Glasgow, Captain D. Macarthan, late of the 100th Regt.

In Wexford, Mrs. Edwards, relict of the late Henry Edwards, of Castletown, Esq.

At Harwich, Samuel Palmer, Esq. Barrackmaster.
 General Sir Harry Calvert, Colonel of the 14th Foot.
 The Right Hon. Lord Gifford.

At Glasgow, Mr. Alexander Campbell, eldest brother of the celebrated Thomas Campbell, the poet.

The wife of the Very Rev. Doctor Baird, Principal of the University of Edinburgh.

At East Mouselzy, Lieut.-Colonel Archibald Ross.
 At the Royal Hospital, Chelsea, in the 44th year of her age, Sarah, wife of Richard Neave, Esq. Deputy Paymaster-General of the Forces, and Secretary to the Establishment.

At St. Lawrence, Isle of Wight, in consequence of injuries received by the overturning of his carriage, in the 91st year of his age, William Jones, Esq. of Kensington Gore.

At Broadstairs, Kent, aged seven years, Lady Elizabeth Beresford, youngest child of the late Marquis Waterford.

At Fletching, Spencer Maryon Wilson, Esq. brother of Sir Thomas Maryon Wilson, Bart. of Charlton House.

At Kensington, Anne, relict of the late Lieutenant-Colonel Claye Watson, Bengal Native Infantry.

At Tabaga, near Panama, Captain James Ramsay, of the Columbian Navy, son of the Rev. James Ramsay, of Glasgow.

to Auction or Private Sale, at 11.
BAZAAR, 14, George's-street, a splenc Brussels, Venitian, Kidderminster, and atings, Hearth Rugs, Blankets of every every color; Grey, Green, and Brown Quilts, White and Coloured Counte Purple-bordered Cloths, Lapland W ready-made Carpets, and Flannels. such an assortment has never before been perhaps never would again.
 H. N. SEYMOUR,
 14, George's-Limerick, Sept. 9.

CHARITY SER
 On SUNDAY, the 24th Inst Charity Sermon will be preached in St. M BY THE REV. DOCTOR H IN AID OF THE FUNDS OF THE FEVER HOSPIT

On this occasion will be very liberal, to extend further accommodation to who have been obliged in many instances to lie two and three in a bed; and the house of mercy, PESTILENCE with all its spread through every part of this City.
 Not less than 1746 patients were recei in nine months.
 HUGHES RUSSEL
 Sept. 9.

HOUSE.
 THE Dwelling House and Concerns Barrack-Street, Englishtown, as fo the Rev. Mr. SEAWRIGHT, will 20th Instant, for any Term which may b Particulars may be known at Alderm Tontine, George's-street, who w in writing for Captain WILLIAM MACHIN.
 Limerick,

DANCING AND FEN
 MR. MEINY has the honor to Nobility and Gentry of Limerick that he has returned from London and has spent the vacation, for professional i that he will resume his business on the Mr. M. avails himself of this opportu most acknowledgments to those p countenanced him since he came to r in soliciting a more extended patronag for success from the decided appr the most respectable families in the Limerick, who are acquainted with professional abilities.

Mr. M. takes leave to observe, tha to acquire a perfect knowled in his profession from t at the Royal Academies of L he assures the public that every ex will be made to merit their approba with him a variety of the most de la collection de Colinet d de la Cour, which may be 2nd edition of his (Mr. M.'s) o with the delightful Valse