William S. Frazer, St. John's Hospital, returns thanks to a benevolent Bombadier, of the Royal Artillery, for his donation of a ten shilling piece, towards the fund for providing straw for the sick poor, and to a Gentleman for one load of straw. As fever is still on the increase, it is to be hoped, that others may imitate this laudable example.

The Church Wardens of St. Munchin's Parish acknowledge to have received from Alderman Watson, 5s. a penalty on a carrier for drawing timber (contrary to law)
on Saturday, and which broke the parapet of Thomond-Bridge.

The Treasurer of the Dispensary was handed 5s. 9d.
by Alderman Watson, on Monday, a fine on a buxter for taking on pawn, articles stolen by a prostitute.

The Treasurer of the Fever Hospital has received from "Anonymous," per the hands of Edward Bernard, Esq. One Pound.

Committed to the City Gaol, by Alderman Watson.
T. Neil, assault; by Captain Drought, John Murphy, Hannah Mullins, and Michael Mahony, larceny; Pat.
M'Namara, J. M'Kay, J. Conway, and Bridget Kelly, for further examination.

DEATHS

On Sunday in Cove, to the unaffected regret of her family and a highly respectable circle of relatives and friends, Jane, wife of Dr. Grogan of this city, a lady of amiable and accomplished manners, and possessed of a truly pious and charitable disposition.

On Wednesday, the 6th Instant, in Hammersmith, after a few days illness, Colonel James Maitland, late of the 84th Regt. in the command of which he was only succeeded in June last by Lieut.-Col. Neynoe. Col.
Maitland was much esteemed in the 84th, and his death is a source of unaffected regret to his late brother officers.

On Tuesday morning, near the New Barracks, Mr.
Joseph Wormleighton—an honest man.

At his residence in Tipperary, of fever, the Rev. John Seymour, Rector of Shronehill. His death has been a source of deep affliction to his disconsolate family. In his valuation and collection of tithes, he was singularly liberal and indulgent. His courteous and conciliatory manners won him the esteem of all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. The Rev. Gentleman was only brother to Sir Michael Seymour, Bart. Captain R. N.

At Willmount, County Kilkenny, aged 63, Edward

Robert, youngest son of Mr. Nicholas Kelly, of South Great George's-street, aged 22 years.

In Sligo, Catherine, second daughter of the late A.
Irwin, of Willowbrook, Esq.

In the prime of life, at the house of William Morgan, Esq. Navan, the Very Rev. J. J. Gaynor, D.D., Bishop elect of Mitcheyon in America.

At the Palace, Litchfield, in the 76th year of his age, Sir Charles Oakley, formerly Governor of Madras.

In Carlow, Mary, relict of the late Mr. Jas. Cuddihy, of Hughestown, County Kildare.

CHARITY SERMON.

On SUNDAY, the 24th Instant,
A Charity Sermon will be preached in St. Michael's Chapel,
BY THE REV. DOCTOR HOGAN, IN AID OF THE FUNDS OF THE FEVER HOSPITAL.
THE COMMITTEE have no doubt the Collection on this occasion will be very liberal, and thus enable them to extend further accommodation to fever patients, who have been obliged in many instances for the last few months to lie two and three in a bed; and were it not for this house of mercy, RESTLESSNESS with all its horrors would spread through every part of this City.
Not less than 1746 patients were received during the last nine months.
