

regiment.
 Pensioners of Chelsea and Kilmainham Hospital, will be in receipt of 6d. to 9d. a day, on Monday, the 25th instant; those in receipt of 1s. a day, on Tuesday, the 26th; and those in receipt of 1s. 0½d. and upwards a day will be in receipt on Wednesday, the 27th inst. The Pensioners produce their papers of Instructions, and those not forthcoming will be checked in the morning, and their pensions suspended.
 A detachment of the 62nd Regt. arrived in Tipperary,
 on their tour of inspection.
 The Medical Staff, is to remove from Limerick,
 to superintend the Medical departments in the South West District.

of the 31st Regiment of Infantry has been ordered to transport to Cork, to embark for the West Indies,
 the 86th Regt.—Kanis, Indian Trader, and Pamela.
 They will take the 3rd Regiment from Portsmouth to the Pamela is to proceed to the latter port landed at Newport, in Monmouthshire, the 23d Regt. 86th Regt.—Waterloo, and Tletis.—These ships return to the 9th and 21st Regiments.
 General James Hay, Lieutenant-Governor of the Castle and Cliff Fort, will succeed Lieutenant-Governor Sir Alexander Hope, as Lieutenant-Governor of the Castle.

General Wm. Thomas will succeed Lieutenant-Governor Hay, as Lieutenant-Governor of Tynemouth Fort.
 Admiral Sir Edward Codrington is appointed in-Chief of the Mediterranean, in the room of Sir Neale, whose period of service is expired.
 There are no Military Promotions in the London
 List for Friday.

The Council of Waterford are to appoint an Alderman and Mayor of that City on Thursday, in place of the late Edward Villiers Briscoe, Mayor elect, deceased.
 Sheriff of the Co. Kerry has been ordered to transport fourteen Convicts under rule of transportation, to the Hulk at Cove. They are to depart on Monday under an escort of a detachment of the 1st Brigade.

On the night of Sunday, the 10th instant, a party of men attacked the Watch-House, situate in the garden at Tomgreany, in the neighbourhood of Tomgreany, the watchman (Thomas Taylor,) to give them which he had received a few days ago from his the protection of his property: on Taylor refusing to surrender the gun, one of the party presented it to him, which burned priming. At the time the fire at Taylor, he was within seven yards of the door, and made a very determined resistance—fired several times—and, calling for assistance, the fellows missing from the demesne of the Knight of Limerick were recovered by the herdsmen.

 A party of sheepstealers were apprehended by the watchmen, on Sunday night, three of whom were taken—In the house of one named Morony, five were found, two alive and three killed—It is thought the depredators have been long practising their trade of plunder.
 Harney, John Harney, her son and Eleanor Harney, daughter, have been committed to Waterford Jail for conspiring to murder George Chalmers.

superior in the Operatic department.
 We are authorized to say, that a paragraph in a Cotem-porary, regarding the getting up of Concerts in this City, during the Races week, is erroneous, as the individuals alluded to are engaged for the Theatre.

BIRTHS

Yesterday morning, in Glentworth-street, the Lady of the Rev. Richard Harte, of a son.
 This morning, at his lodgings, in George's-street, the Lady of the Rev. Edward Herbert, of a daughter.
 On Friday, the Lady of John Parker, of Henry-street,
 Esq. of a son.
 At Clontarf, Mrs. Barlow, jun. of a daughter.
 At Kilmoney-House, County Cork, the Lady of Michael Roberts, Esq. of a son.
 At Ribbesford, near Bewdly, the Lady of Hon. A.
 Thelluson, of a son.
 At Chatham Barracks, the Lady of Captain Wellman, of the 30th, Landwaiver of Cork,) of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

In the Church of Kenmare, John Luke Corry, Esq. of Milltown, to Lucy, daughter of the Rev. William Godfrey, Rector of Kenmare, grand-daughter of the late Sir Wm. Godfrey, Bart. and niece of the present Sir John.
 At Temple Church, the Rev. Denis Mahony, to Catherine Lucinda, only child and heiress of the late John Segarson, of Springfield, County Kerry, Esq.
 In Dublin, Thomas Kane, Esq. to Miss Rorke.
 At Louisburgh, County Mayo, Lieut. Macdonnell, Inspector of Fisheries for the Clifden District, to Bedelia, only daughter of the late Edward Francis Garvey, of Rosminde, in same County, Esq.
 At Muff Church, County Donegal, the Rev. Henry
 Scott, of Londonderry, to Catherine, daughter of the late Thomas Moore, of Thornhill Lodge, County Derry, Esq.
 At Magherally Church, William, third son of the Rev.
 William Sampson, to Jane, fourth daughter of the late
 J. Brush, of Andrew-street, Dublin, Esq.
 In London, Lieut.-Colonel Lautour, C. B. to Ursula, eldest daughter of John Innes, Esq. of Cowie, N. B.

DEATHS.

Last Friday, in Sinnot-Place, Dublin, in her 87th year, Mrs. Ferrar, relict of John Ferrar, Esq. late of this City, Burgess, and author of the History of Limerick, published here in 1787. She was, from her youth to her advanced age, distinguished for the most amiable and placid temper—the best of wives, and a parent in whom her numerous offspring took delight.
 In Clare-street, Mrs. Anne Beauchamp Hare—a Lady much respected.
 At Kilmaganny, aged 87 years, the Very Rev. Doctor
 Mansfield, Roman Catholic Dean of Ossory, and Parish Priest of Kilmaganny.
 At Lisdoonvarna, Margaret, only daughter of Mr.
 Francis Huddy, of Corofin.
 In Ennis, Mr. David Lacy.
 In Warren-street, Clonmel, Mrs. Bond, wife of Mr.
 John Bond, of the Society of Friends.
 At Newtownsmith, Galway, Peter Joyce, Esq.
 In Drogheda, James Jones, Esq. Surveyor-General in charge of the Excise Collection.
 At Montpelier hill, Mr. Michael Walsh.
 At Castle-Connell, aged 2 years and a half, Margaret,
 only daughter of William Hunt, Esq.
 At his house, Rockview-Terrace, Glanmire, Cork,
 William Trail, Esq. M. D. Royal Navy.
 Sarah, daughter of the Rev. J. Meade.
 The wife of Mr. James South, of New-row, Dublin.
 At Clohaue, near Bandon, Mr. Denis Falvey.
 In Kilmahon, Mrs. Donovan, wife of Captain Donovan.
 At Brighton, William Dowler, Esq. one of the Deputy Commissaries of his Majesty's Forces.
 In Rutland-square, Dublin, James Coghlan, Esq.
 M. D. State Surgeon, &c.

BRITISH.

	s. d.
Good breakfast Tea, engaged, at.....	5 4 per lb.
Fine ditto,	6 0
Finest Souchong, ditto,.....	6 6
Finest Souchong,.....	7 0
Superior Hyson,.....	11 0

WINE & SPIRITS

	£
Very fine Old Port,	1
Superfine Old ditto,	1
Vintage 1820,
Ditto, ditto, in pints
Superior Old Pale Sherry }	1 much in demand

Superior Old Brown }

Sherry. }

P. Teneriffe,

Single Madeira,

Cape ditto,

Ditto, in pints,

20 Pipes and Hogsheads
 Port, Sherry, and Cape

He continues to give 13 b
 shows the usual advantages to d largely.

R. W. S.

OF THE ROYAL
SMITH AND
 31, and 32, Eschoquer
 WORKING JEWELLERS, GOLD
MOST respectfully takes leave and Gentry of Limerick, on THURSDAY
 in Wick-street, a Splendid
 As every article of Manufacture, they workmanship, an adv
 Kingdom can pledge
 their Goods after cor
 they can offer them to W. S. begs to say the
 a new set of highly finis Spoons and Forks, their richly will be found both as to trusts will give satisfacti
 best Sheffield Manufact Coolers, Salvers, and ev
 a Gentleman's Table.
 of Amethyst, Coral, G
 &c. with a General Asso
 Rings, Bracelets, Fancy
 As SMITH and GAMB
 make their Establishment k
 been for so many year
 Trade, they pledge themsel same price they have been i Dublin Shopkeepers.
 All Articles of Jewellery
 fashionably, at a ver to any pattern, and
 and strung.
 Their Gold and Silver
 Watches, got up under th Maker, N. BROUGHA
 superior Quality.