to be in their estimation of the Tithes of each Farm. Since after their arrival, the Police were attacked by a party of men covered with white shirts, amounting to over six hundred, armed with guns, blunderbusses, and other weapons, who fired repeatedly on the Police; but we are happy to say that this small body of Constables were able to protect the valuers, and to return into Killinann in safety, with four of those deluded miscreants in custody. Measures have been taken to secure proper protection to the Valuers, until they have completed their business. Much ingenuity had been exercised, within the last week, to divert the attention of the Police from this part of the County, by spreading a report that a great battle was intended to be fought by two factions at the Fair of Dromin, which was held on same day. A large party of Military and Police attended during the entire of the day at the Fair, but there was not the least symptom of riot.

On Sunday last, an inquest was held at Doon, in this County, by James Bennett, Esq. Coroner, attended by Surgeon Franklin, jun. on the body of Thomas Dwyer, whose skull was fractured by a blow of a pitch-fork, a few days before, by a man named Connor Nolan. The Jury returned a verdict against said Nolan.

On Monday evening, as a young man named Patrick Kelly, who lives in Pallas-Kerry, was returning from the Fair of Stonehall, he was waylaid by a gang of ruffians who beat him in the most brutal manner, leaving him for dead. Upon hearing of the outrage, the Police happily succeeded in discovering and arresting three of the assailants, Patrick O'Brien, Patrick Shea and Denis Walsh, and they have been committed to the County Gaol. Kelly lies dangerously ill—he is under the care of Surgeon Enright, of Pallas-Kerry.

Lord Cloncurry arrived in town yesterday.

The Bible Meeting held in Nensagh, on Saturday, was attended by upwards of 1,500 persons, and all the rank and respectability of the surrounding country were present. Mr. Pope delighted every individual at the meeting—his language and arguments were irresistible.

The Treasurer to the Society for suppressing Mendicity, acknowledges to have received from the Lord Bishop of Limerick, Ten Pounds Sterling, in aid of the Funds.

The Treasurer of the Fever Hospital thankfully acknowledges to have received from James Ferguson, Esq. the sum of Fifty Pounds, Irish currency, the bequest of the late Robert Ferguson John, Esq. to this Institution.

The Treasurer of the City Dispensary acknowledges the receipt of Fifteen Shillings from Alderman Watson, being so much put into his Poor Box, at the Exchange, by 180 Chelsea and Kilmainsham Pensioners, whose Quarterly Affidavits he signed on Monday last. The Treasurer also received from the Alderman 5s. a Fine on a carman drawing a large piece of timber, contrary to law, on Saturday.

Alderman Philip Smyth has kindly directed his agent Alderman D. F. G. Mahony, to apply Ten pounds to be applied for the following Institutions in this City, and which have been paid to the respective Treasurers:—Fever Hospital, £2; House of Industry, £2; Mendicity Assylum, £2; Lying-in Hospital, £2; St.-George's Female Orphan School, £2.

Doctor Geary, jun. acknowledges the receipt of one pound, being the amount of the donation for the relief of the sick poor, discharged from the Fever Hospital. Dr. Geary will thankfully accept the smallest donation in aid of this most desirable object.

The Mayor, on Monday, sent 40 prints of light butter to the House of Industry.

The amount of the Collection and particulars of the Charity Sermon preached last Sunday, by the Very Rev. Doctor Hogan, shall appear in our next.

Committed to the County Gaol, by J. Creagh, Esq. and T. S. Rice, Esq. M. P. William Bowvanizer for sheep stealing—by William R. Yielding, Esq. William Connors, sentenced at Rathkeale Petty Sessions to fourteen days imprisonment and pay a fine of £1 British, including costs, for destroying a turnip field, the property of John S. Brown, sen. Esq.

A Case of Real Distress!—A Gentlewoman, the widow of an officer, with an orphan infant child, is detained in this City, under very peculiar and distressing political, yet the Committee feel grateful that enabled, under all circumstances, to announce the following sales, for the year ending 31st December, 1841:—

Testaments, 80; Bibles, 104; Irish Testaments, 5; Irish Bible, 1; Italian Testaments, 5; Douay Testaments, circulated by the Douay Convent, 60.—Total, 226.

The absence of one of your Secretaries during part of the year, rendered it necessary to postpone publishing of the Annual Statement of the Treasurer's account, and of the Associations in connexion with the Limerick Auxiliary; this will be subjoined to the next when printed.

Your Committee would close this brief statement earnestly requesting an increased degree of attention to the interests of the Institution; and the funds exhausted, they would beg leave to suggest that if the money and zeal lavished on the momentary measures of the day, were devoted to the cause of his word, we might expect a speedy amelioration of the state of society—misery and crime would be probably diminished, and true religion and happiness promoted.

THE THEATRE.

Mrs. Brown.—No actress has, we believe, ever made her debut before a Limerick audience under more highly favorable, than this lovely and accomplished lady, and soon, for so short a time, has been making a more decided impression on their feelings. Mrs. Brown was first known to the lovers of the Drama in Dublin as Miss Harvey, a pupil of Mr Phillips, one of the first scientific singers in the three Kingdoms. Since that brief period she has advanced most rapidly in public estimation, and circumstances have occurred to render her at this moment a subject of particular interest. By a recent matrimonial alliance she has become united with a noble and distinguished family in County Cork, whose escutcheon, it is presumed, will not be disgraced by the adoption of a female, who is the pride of the stage. "sans peur, sans reproche," on whose faultless luminescence has not dared to breathe an injurious word. Mrs. Brown is possessed of qualities both natural and acquired, which must entitle her to respect in the highest rank, and it is gratifying to be assured, that the time will arrive, when circumstances will enable her to adorn a rank which she is formed to adorn. Every time of her performance the theatre has been filled with a rapt audience—all parts of the house vie in their loud expression of admiration, and the boxes have been most fashionably attended. To none, however, has she been inferior for the peculiar manner in which she has sung those very favourite airs, "Cherry Ripe,"—"and never take a wife"—and "What can a young girl do." To-night, Mrs. Brown takes her benefit performance in the Belles' Stratagem: and on Monday evening, Mrs. McCulloch's benefit.

MASTER GEORGE ASPULL'S CONCERT.—This celebrated and highly gifted young Gentleman gave a Concert last evening, at Swinburne's Rooms, which was patronised and attended by a numerous and distinguished assemblage of rank and beauty. His powers of fire and brilliancy truly amazing—his tone of voice, of the utmost astonishment, being at once firm and sweet, and with these qualities are joined a power of execution that places him the greatest instance of so much excellence on record. His voice has great range, and he sings with great taste and expression.

Moschelle's Fall of Paris was played with rapidity and worked up to an effect that defied description. But it was reserved for his Extremes to complete the astonishment of his audience—being given by a Gentleman who wrote it on the spot, produced a composition so perfectly original, that every one to suppose it a matured composition never seen or tuned a note before; being a melody ("The Limerick Lassie") it created intense interest. The variations were of the most did description, and finished by introducing a finale of "God save the King."
