

DEATHS.

This morning, at his house, in Clara-street, to the unaffected regret of his amiable family, Cornelius Mahony, Esq. of Cork, late Supervisor of Excise. He bore a severe and protracted illness with christian fortitude and resignation, and cheerfully resigned his Spirit into the hands of his Creator, with a joyful hope of a glorious resurrection to eternal life.

At Kilkree, Alexander, youngest son of the late Alexander Graydon, of this City, Esq.

In Tipperary, of fever, Mr Richard Lewis, apothecary. The Rev. James Goudy, for more than sixty years Pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Glenturbet.

At Warrenpoint, Miss Saunderson, only daughter of John Lloyd Saunderson, of Tullysaren-House, Esq.

At Portarlinton, Chidley George, youngest son of Charles L. Sandes, Esq.

In Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin, John Smyth, Esq. one of the Commissioners of Appeals in Ireland.

At Banwell, Somersetshire, Henry G. Emery, Esq. M. D., Deputy-Inspector of Army Hospitals.

In Great Ship-street, Dublin, John Taylor, Esq. Olivia, wife of William Hamilton, of Lakeview, in the County Leitrim, Esq.

Charlotte, youngest daughter of Samuel Barry, Esq. of Bellpark, County Tipperary.

At Edinburgh, Anna Louisa, fourth daughter of Lieutenant-General Sir John Hope.

At Drumana, aged 84 years, John Dunne, Esq. Mrs. Sarah Egan, wife to Mr Egan, of Dawson-street, Dublin, harp-maker to his Majesty.

In Dublin, Mr. William Collis, printer. In Galway, Mrs. Shaw, relict of Crossdaile Shaw, Esq.

At Tullamore, Jane, relict of the late Joseph Dickenson, of Ashmount, King's County, Esq.

At the Manor House, Dunmanway, Joshua Cox, Esq. At Hampton-Court Palace, Mary, last surviving child of the late General and Lady Sophia Thomas.

In Rutland-street, Dublin, Mr Daniel James, native of London, many years Professor of Belles Lettres at the Feinaiglian Institution

On Sunday night, near Youghal, Sir Richard Musgrave, Bart. who is succeeded in his title and estates by his eldest son, Richard Musgrave, Esq.

In Killarney, Mrs. Pack, relict of the Rev. Mr. Pack, late of Kilkenny.

At Kinnefad, the Rev. Mr. O'Reilly, Parish Priest. The Rev. Daniel M'Mullan, Parish Priest of Monaghan

Near Florence, the Dowager Countess Cowper. At Jessfield, near Edinburgh, Kenneth Blackenzie, Esq. Garrison Surgeon at Surat, Bombay Presidency.

At Kilmore, Mrs. Priscilla Palmer, relict of J. Palmer, Esq. an eminent Hamburg merchant, and mother of the late J. Palmer, Esq. formerly of the 11th Light Dragoons, whose death lately took place in Paris.

Monday, at his seat, Glenhow, near Leeds, in the 84th year of his age, Sir John Beckett, Bart. Sir John succeeded in his title by his eldest son, the Right Hon. John Beckett, M. P. his Majesty's Advocate General.

On the 19th inst. at her house in Gower-street, Bedford square, London, Dowager Lady Riggs Miller, widow of Sir John Riggs Miller, Bart. (father of the late Baronet,) and formerly Lady Davenport, relict of the late Sir Thomas Davenport, one of his Majesty's Sergeants-in-Law.

LONDON INBERNIAN SCHOOL SOCIETY.

A PUBLIC MEETING will be held in B.B.R. on SATURDAY next, 30th inst., at One o'Clock, for the purpose of forming an Auxiliary Society to the above Institution. A Deputation will attend. September 27.

NOTICE

TO BE SOLD, A VERY HANDSOME CABRIOLE

LONDON BUILT, PAINTED Yellow, picked out Black, with Springs, which make it particularly easy—as back windows to the head, and a curtain to the front.

The lowest price is Sixty Guineas. It is to be seen every day except Sunday, at 12 o'clock in the morning and one in the day, at the House of Major-General Sir CHAS. DOYLE. Sept

WANTED

ABOUT £138, FOR SIX OR SEVEN MONTHS. THE INTEREST to be allowed out only personal security will be given; March rent of a clear, well-circumstanced, would be held answerable to pay the price which it is fully adequate, and has always been paid.

N. B.—Or, a Lender of £1000, or more might be agreed upon, would get ample Loan and the Legal Interest regularly paid.

Apply, personally to GEORGE P. DRUMMOND at the Chronicle Office, where reference can be made. Sept

COUNTY OF LIMERICK

TO BE LET.

From the 1st of May next From such term as may be agreed.

PART OF THE LANDS OF HEWARDSTOWN

Containing Twenty six Irish Acres Now in the possession of the Representative of the late Lord Carbery.

A perpetuity will be granted to a solvent person, the rent offered be approved of, and the tenant to be immediately.

Proposals (post paid,) to be made to Mr MOORE, Keynsham-Bank, Cheltenham

No preference has been promised or will be given to any person. Sept

ITALIAN

ORNAMENT

DIRECT FROM LEGHORN

VIA CORK,

Received at the Bazaar, 14, George's-Street. A few sets of beautifully carved Alabaster, manufactured in Florence

A fine Oriental Alabaster Dish, (Roman Etruscan Ewer and Stand)

Sculptured figure of Minerva, copy of the Statue at Naples

Ditto of Canova's Venus Ditto a Kneeling Venus of Florence

A great variety of Marble Fruit, &c. &c. H. N. SEYMOUR particularly recommends early inspection of the above goods, as a rare and choice collection

The Lodgings of the Bazaar are now finished, and ready for the immediate reception of a family, for the winter. Limerick Bazaar, 14, George's-Street.

Limerick Auxiliary Bible Society, at a meeting, September 20th, 1827.

men illustrating the incredulity of the heathen, "if they believe not Moses and the prophets, neither would they be persuaded, though one should rise from the dead."

Might we not, however, suppose, that some of the angels, sent down from Heaven, from the land of the living, and us with a book containing the sacred Treasure; curiosity, no doubt, and many for a time might be induced to attend on to so wonderful a display of the goodness; like the Jews, when struck with the appearance and powerful exhortations of an angel, they would rejoice for a season at the perusal of the Holy Scriptures, and enjoined by an infinitely greater Messenger, than any created Angel, of the Covenant, the Lord himself, who healed the impotent man at the pool of Bethesda, his Divine Sonship and Equality with the Father; referred them to the Baptist, who had borne testimony to the Messiah; afterwards alluded to the Father himself, who had borne witness to his beloved Son:—The ultimate success of his hearers, and of all succeeding generations, the fountain of inspired Truth, the only infallible Tribunal, namely, the Holy Scriptures, the observations of the Saviour rise to the Divine wisdom and love, when he came to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES.

SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES

would wish, that all who profess to be influenced by this injunction of the Lord; then, indeed, they would no longer be the cold indifference of some, or the duplicity of others; that would the work of the world be a delightful employment; and that the work of the world among the Ladies, have given their time to this important duty, and more frequently rejoice in their labours, conscious that they were the instruments of the greatest possible good. It is to be regretted, that the attendance of the Gentlemen who favored their assistance, that, under the blessing of the Lord, a degree of ardor may be imparted to the Society, so that the cause of the world, and the triumph over sin and ignorance may be gloriously advanced in our land.

the year has fallen somewhat short of the number of Books sent out from the Deputation Committee, that they are, under the circumstances, to announce the following result, ending 31st December, 1825. To one of your Secretaries during the year, rendered it necessary to postpone the Annual Statement of the Treasurer, and the Associations in connexion with the Society; this will be subjoined to the Report.

Bibles, 104; Irish Testaments, 3; Irish Bible, 1; Italian Testament, 1; and 1, circulated by the Dowsy Committee.

would close this brief statement by requesting an increased degree of attention to the Institution; and the funds being expended, would beg leave to suggest that if one could be so far from being lavish on the momentary pleasures, and were devoted to the cause of God, we might expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.

would expect a speedy amelioration of the misery and crime would be proportionate.