DEATHS.

This morning, at the house of her brother in-law, Michael Gavin, Esq. in George's-street, Mary, eldest daughter of the late George O'Halloran, Esq. of this City, and sister of Lieutenant-Colonel O'Halloran, late of the 4th Foot.
 Yesterday morning, at her uncle's house, (the Rev. J. Duddell,) in Glentworth-street, aged 26 years, Sarah Maria, wife of the Rev. Richard Harte. It was only in our paper of Wednesday week that this young Lady was announced as having been delivered of a son and heir—alas! we have now the melancholy task of recording her dissolution. Endued with the most amiable disposition, she possessed a peculiar tenderness and sweetness of manner, which endeared her to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.
 On Tuesday last, at Shannonview, County Clare, universally regretted, Miss Catherine Brew, aged 20 years. Her kind and affectionate manner, her benevolent disposition, and her sincere piety, endeared her to all her acquaintance. It pleased the Almighty to visit her with a protracted and painful sickness, which she bore with the fortitude and patience of a true Christian—and she resigned her gentle spirit with a hope full of immortal felicity.
 On Tuesday, at his house, in Clare-street, to the unaffected regret of his amiable family, Cornelius Mahony, Esq. of Cork, late Supervisor of Excise. He bore a severe and protracted illness with christian fortitude and resignation, and cheerfully resigned his Spirit into the hands of his Creator, with a joyful hope of a glorious resurrection to eternal life, through the intercession of the Divine Redeemer, who came into the world to save sinners.
 At Willow-hill, Cork, Mr. Jeremiah O'Shea.
 At Skibbereen, the Rev. A. Scholding, a Missionary, on his passage from Sierra Leone to London, entrusted with papers of consequence to the Missionary Society. He landed at Crookhaven.
 At Rossan-House, County Meath, the Rev. Gerald O'Reilly, P. P. of Castlejordan and Clonard.
 In Killarney, the relict of T. Hennessy, of Cork, Esq.
 In Tralee, Fanny, youngest daughter of S. Morris, Esq.
 Hugh Marshall, of Anaghbane, near Newry, Esq.
 In London, Lieut.-General John Baillie, late of the East India Company's Bombay service.
 At Lewisham, in Kent, aged 18, Marianne, daughter of Colonel Mann, Royal Engineers.
 Alicia, wife of M. H. Tuthill, Esq. Royal Artillery.
 At Eggleston-Hall, William Hutchinson, Esq.
 In Edinburgh, Captain John Fraser, 42d Highlanders.
 On the 15th July last, at Antigua, Lieutenant William Gunn, Quartermaster of the 93d Highlanders.
 At Claremorris, County Mayo, Catherine, wife of Captain Andrew Crean, late of the 6th Foot, and Commandant of the Claremorris Corps of Yeomanry.

Proposals in writing will be received by Alderman D. F. G. MAHONY, Georges's-street, Tontine, Limerick.
