

County have been nominated as sibly will comprise the most influical characters in the kingdom. of the Magistrates of Louth, at Tuesday, convened by the Earl of and Ferrard, a vote was agreed to, resolutions of the friends of Civil in that County, which imputed to the Landlords, and censuring of Sir Edward Bellew, and Henry ates, for identifying themselves with ge.

et. 4—The number of sheep exhib-at 100,000, of which 10,513 were per head lower than yesterday; but ction of from 15s to 17s below the ar.

ck—About 35,000 sheep have just The average price may be taken at ot sold this day brought 40s. per out rather a gloomy prospect to far-

ARRIVAL OF R HOSIERY

23, George's-Street.

EL EVANS

received his first supply of Winter ng of Men and Women's Angola, and Worsted Hose, Black Worsted rial Ribbed Black Worsted ditto, ton ditto, Grey Worsted Knotted tics, Lamus' Wool and Worsted Frills, Wrist Cuffs, Russian Cuffs, a few assortment of the Drab h worn by Ladies.

In addition to the above, a supply S, which, with his stock of those a general assortment of almost every EY LINE, will be sold at very

KNITTING WORSTED.

of every description, Elastic Spring Silk Purses, Night-Caps, Fleecy a Mitts and Ladies' Working Gloves, a Gloves, with every size Men and d Worsted Socks, Ankle and Foot to be had at this Establishment. ing extremely particular in selecting icles, both as to Material and Workntly recommend all those now recited s and customers—to whom he feels ence and support.

Limerick, 10th month. 7, 1826.

Limerick Chronicle

DAY, OCTOBER 7.

the 10th Regiment, under the com-andler, arrived at Tipperary, to do st.

at present at waters been chartered in Ireland, for the s received orders to hold itself in k for the Island of Ceylon, in the ir Colquhoun Grant, G. C. B. made ction of the 73d Regiment, at Naas, h occasion he expressed to the Com-unqualified approbation of the Corps and Leslie, 24th Regiment, are sta-e, in this County.

divisions of the 37th Regiment emin the Indian Trader, and Kains smouth, for Cork.

89th Regiment marched on Tuesday, terbury.

resting Anthony Boland, who is charged with the daring burglary and robbery in the spring of 1824, at Wood-Park Lodge, Galway, the seat of Edward B. Read, Esq. who was fired at and seriously wounded on the occasion. Patrick Tuohy, James Roughan and Patrick Durick, charged with the same offence, have been also apprehended by the Tomgreany and Mount-Shannon Police, and committed to Galway gaol for trial at the next assizes.

William Donohue's house, near Ballingarry, was broken into on the night of the 2d inst. by a party of armed men, who called him out, gave him a dreadful beating, and forcibly carried away, from a neighbouring house, the daughter of Ellen Burnes, to the County Cork.

On Wednesday night, one or more persons entered the house of Mr. Kelly, of Heaffy-Lodge, near Rathkeale, by descending the chimney.—They robbed it of 10s. in silver, with the clothes of his wife, and every portable article they found.

On Wednesday, the remains of a farmer, named Hallinan, were about to be buried at Ballingarry, but a report how he came by his death having circulated, the Ballingarry police with the Coroner attended, when it appeared that he died by the stroke of a metal pot given him by his step-daughter, who is at present in Rathkeale Bridewell, and acknowledges her guilt.

At the sitting of the Insolvent Court in Ennis, on Wednesday, eight debtors were liberated, and two remanded, one named Fitzgerald for two years, and the other, Lyons, for ten months.

The parishioners of Caherah, County Cork, have compounded with their Rector, the Rev. Mr. Webb, under the Tithe Composition Act, for £650 per year.

The Very Rev. Dr. Ryan, Coadjutor Roman Catholic Bishop of this Diocese, presided at a Meeting of the Catholic parishioners of St. John's, in the Parochial Chapel, on yesterday.—The resolutions appear in our advertising columns.

The Lord Bishop of Cloyne is expected at the See House, at Cloyne, in the latter part of next week. His son, the Rev. Mr. Brinkley, and Mr. John Litton, his Lordship's Agent, who is also Solicitor to the Dublin Society for the Suppression of Vice, have already arrived there.

A species of young shark was yesterday taken in our river at one of the lower quays, which it approached, and thereby got stranded; it is in the possession of Mr George O'Connell, George's-street.

Cork October fair, on Monday, was well attended.— Cows brought from £10 to £14, good draft horses £20 to £25, lambs 13s. and 14s. each.

The Potatoes, this season, in Kerry, were never known to be so good and so abundant. The crop is reckoned sufficient to supply the population of the County three times over.

The crop in the County Clare is in equally prosperous state.

The County of Limerick Fox Hounds will be at Kilfinan, at Ten o'Clock, on Tuesday the 10th; at Castle town, at same hour, on Monday the 11th; and at Murphy's cross, at Kilpeacon, on Tuesday, 20th of October instant, at nine o'Clock.

A dead Pig, seized as being unsaleable, was this day burned at the Quay, by direction of the Right Worshipful Mayor.

acknowledges to have received from Mrs. Gabbett, Tontine buildings, 11, and from Mr. Ryan, as Foreman of a jury, 11, 10s.

The Proprietors of the Chronicle this day received, by post, from Henry Boys, Esq. Ensign 75th Regiment, quartered in Killalla, One Pound, for the Officer's Widow, whose distressing case was lately mentioned in this Paper.

We learn that the Rev. Mr. Ousely is to preach in the Wesleyan Methodist Chapel, George's-street, on tomorrow evening, 8th inst. at 6 o'Clock, at which time he intends to discuss the subject of "the Faith once delivered to the Saints" from this text 2 Cor. xiii. v. 5. "Examine yourselves whether you be in the faith, &c."

The public is cautioned against counterfeit half-sovereigns now being extensively circulated.

THE THEATRE presented on Thursday evening, unques-

Barrister at Law, to Sarah Anne, only daugh-Robert Haworth, of Liverpool, Esq.

At Cluny. Captain Duncan M'Pherson, 92d re-Isabella, youngest daughter of John M'Pherson, Esq.

At the British Ambassador's Chapel, in Pa-Amesbury, Esq. of Great Surrey-street, Lon-Caroline, eldest daughter of the late Major Rale the 11th Foot.

DEATHS.

On the 13th of December, of fever, on his from Batavia to Calcutta, Walter Paterson, Esq.
James Paterson, Esq. of Kilmrush. This young m-years of age,) had, by his good conduct, enterpris-activity, attained the command of the ship Alexander.
His death is a source of deep affliction to his fam-friends.

At his house, in Merrion-square, Dublin, John Esq. K. C.—Mr. Burne was called to the Bar in and nominated a King's Counsel by Lord Cha-Ponsonby. He was a gentleman of distinguished talents, and remarkable for a firm advocacy of principles.

In Charleville, Christopher Townshend, Esq.
At Laken, County Tipperary, Mrs. Prendergast of the late Robert Prendergast, Esq.

At Woodville, County Kerry, Francis Newton Theophilus M. Symms, of Waterfall, Co. Cork.

At Clontarf, near Templemore, Mr. Thomas O' In Clonmel, the relict of Mr. John Magrath.

At Dromore, Mr. Michael Woods.

In Camden-street, Dublin, Mr. John Sizemith Mr. Thomas Smyth, late of Nassau-street.

woollen-draper.

At Youghal, the Rev. John Pochan, O. S. F. fo-of Placentia, in Newfoundland, and lately of Wat-

At Youghal, Edward Greene, Esq.

At Tivoli Terrace, Cork, Mary, youngest daug-Nicholas Cummins, Esq.

In Dublin, Mr James Allen Clerk, Professor o-Mrs. Corrigan, of Cappa, County Carlow.

At Carrick-on-Suir, Surgeon James Power.

In Portman-square, London, Miss Dalrymchild of General Dalrymple.

At Rathmies, in his 14th year, John, younof Jacob Geoghegan, Esq.

At Gisburne-Park, near Skipton, aged 72 y-Right Hon. Lord Ribblesdale.

The Rev. Charles Jervis, A. M., Rector of ham, Kent, Perpetual Curate of Cheltenham, attain to his Royal Highness the Duke of Camb-The death of this gentleman has cast a general the town of Cheltenham; and, if affliction—in-trying hour—ever found solace in the manifes-human esteem and sympathy, his bereaved famhave derived such solace from the affectionate which his parishioners attended his remains to the

On Thursday the 5th inst. John J. Boyle, Esq. regan—by whose death that once numerous nearly extinct.

In Cheltenham, the wife of the Rev. Wilson At Pernambuco, Mr. Peter Rodrigues, of Lis-

In Henrietta-street, Dublin, of fever, Arthur, son of Major Stock, East India Company's ser-

At Southampton, on the 1st inst. aged 76 yea-General William Fawcett, Governor of Limeric

At Ahmedabad, East India, on the 13th of Major Charles Gray, Commanding the 4th N. I. He was the last survivor of the little ga-of the 2d Native Infantry, whose services and in the campaigns of Arabia are so well known. was committed the destruction of Ruseel Khyr-

At Bassador, Lieut. Frederick W. Powe Hon. Company's cruiser.

In Trinidad, Lieut. Charles, 5th Regiment

At Thurlaxton, near Taunton, the Rev. R.

In the East Indies, Colonel J. A. Wilson, Lieut.-Colonel George Mitford, 3d Native

At Poonah, Lieut.-Colonel Robert Mackin manding the Horse Brigade of Artillery.

On the 28th January last, at Prome, when on with Sir A. Campbell's army; Captain V Carter, of the 1st Royal Regiment, young