

Established Church, and partook of the Communion, after an eloquent discourse from the pulpit.

occurred in Armagh, on Friday, to a cooper, a coppersmith. He was assisting others, in drawing Mr. Maxwell, the Mayor of the City, when, missing his footing, he fell, and the carriage passed over his legs and several ribs were broken. P. was pelted with stones by a large mob in the town of Armagh after the dinner on Downlow and Caulfield being returned to Armagh, they sent ten guineas to the Rectors at the Cathedral in Armagh, with a pious appeal should be rung on the bell, and the sum was sent back with this answer— "The sum would not tempt them to ring the 'Priests' Members.'" Those who were at work for six hours on Thursday received their remuneration.

On the night, the heads of every religious denomination, Roman Catholic, in Armagh, Protestant Clergymen, the several heads of the Church of Scotland, &c. Seceders of various denominations, &c. presented Colonel Verner, at a magnificent Bible and a suitable address. The Rev. Dr. Moore the Poet, has arrived in Dublin. The Bishops of Ireland have now contributed to the Bazaar, excepting Antrim, Armagh, Leitrim, Londonderry, Sligo, it will be found a difficult task to and important Bible discussion is taking place at Lincolnsloe, where the great Provincial Synod concluded its sittings. On Tuesday a meeting of the German School Society was announced. The Rev. Mr. Pope, Captain Gordon, Mr. Eneas M'Donnell, and the members of the neighbourhood, immediately attended in the proceedings, and when the Rev. Lord Dunlo in the market-house, the Rev. Mr. Pouden, a resolution approving of Scriptural Bibles was seconded by Captain Gordon, then Mr. M'Donnell, after a speech of three hours, seconded the resolution, which was seconded by the Rev. Mr. Pouden. Mr. M'Donnell made a powerful speech heard with deep attention by all present, and the ladies of Lord Clancarty's family, and the Protestant families of the neighbourhood. Mr. M'Donnell in an eloquent speech, exhorted the Catholic people to be led by their own minds, not by that of their Clergy. Captain Gordon supported the question and spoke till evening, when the meeting was moved to next day. On Wednesday assembled on the controversial arena—made another forcible speech of great length, and fast accounts, candles were lighting, and a great amount was expected. Mr. M'Donnell exhorted the Catholic Clergy not to take any part.

that on the last day of the Meeting, the Rev. Mr. Pope, and wanted to place himself in the Chair. A scene of confusion ensued, and the Riot Act read, and the assembly turned out by force. Mr. Dunlo in a most luminous speech and the Rev. Mr. Pouden. Other accounts say, that the Rev. Mr. Dunlo, the Chairman, is eldest son of the Rev. Mr. Dunlo, and nephew of the Archbishop of

On Thursday night last, a party of men attacked the house of a dairy-man, named Hassett, at Kilbreadren, the inmates made a bold resistance and beat them off. A similar attack was made on a man named Mead, who also beat them off.

A riot took place between two parties returning from the fair of Askeaton on Monday last, one man named Cormick, was so dreadfully beaten, that there remains little or no hopes of his recovery.

Yesterday evening a small boy, named Mullins, fell out of a boat near the North Strand, and was drowned. The vital spark was not totally extinct when the body was taken out of the water—but it had fled for ever before the usual remedies were applied.

Daniel Ussher, a sailor, of the brig Maria, of Whitehaven, was drowned in Waterford, on Wednesday, by falling from the bowsprit of his vessel.

John Leahy, a labourer, was burned to death this week at Killingly, County Cork, in a lime-kiln, belonging to the Rev. John M'Namara, P. P. of Douglas and Killingly.

A man was killed in Rutland-street, Cork, on Thursday, by a horse and cart going over him—the driver being on the shafts.

In conformity with a requisition, the Provost of Tralee has called a meeting of the inhabitants, to prevent the shameful profanation of the Sabbath in that town.

The situation of Medical Attendant to the Clonmel Dispensary and Fever Hospital is vacant. The salary is £100 a-year.

Edward Ryan, Esq. is appointed to succeed Sir Anthony Buller, as Puisne Judge in the Supreme Court at Calcutta.

There was a considerable show of Cattle at the fair of Tralee on Monday, the sale was brisk but at very reduced prices.

John Bouchier, of Baggotstown, Esq. presided at a parochial meeting of the Catholic inhabitants of Bruff, on Sunday. It was resolved to collect the Catholic Rent and to prepare a Petition to Parliament—the latter to be entrusted to the Earl of Limerick and Thomas Lloyd, Esq. M. P.

The Petition of the Catholics of the County and City of Limerick is now in course of signature at the Chamber of Commerce and Commercial Buildings.

The R. C. Arch-Bishop and Bishops of this province are to meet in Fermoy, on Tuesday the 24th inst., for the purposes, recommended at the late Provincial Meeting, held in Waterford.

There are more than 160 cases of Fever now in our Hospital.

A general meeting of the subscribers to the City Dispensary, is requested on Tuesday next, the 17th at one o'clock, at the Dispensary house, Bridge-street, to examine the state of the funds and to consider the expediency of employing two Physicians at a yearly salary, to attend the sick poor in their own houses, now that the crowd in the Fever Hospital prevents several applicants from being admitted.

Edmund Ryan, Esq. Treasurer of the United Schools, has received from the Right Honorable Lord Clare, five pounds for the use that charity.

Committed to the City Jail, by Alderman Henry Watson, Denis Tuohy of Ballina, County Tipperary, Spirit Retailer, and Timothy Kearney, for stealing six sheep from Michael Deighan, which they offered for sale in this City on Wednesday.

A Case of Real Distress!—A Gentlewoman, the widow of an Officer, with an orphan infant child, is detained in this City, under very peculiar and distressing circumstances. She now appeals to a charitable public, to afford her the means of returning home to London. The most trifling donation will be thankfully received at the Chronicle Office.

Robert Atkinson, of Greenhill, County Wick, Jane, youngest daughter of Mr. Wyon, Ormond-quay, Dublin, aged 16 years. Tuesday, the infant daughter of Robert In Little Hanover-street, Cork, Miss Anne At Enniscorthy, Mary Gill, relict of the Gill, Esq.

March 28, at Rangoon, of fever, produced by the and the pestilential climate of the Burman Empire, Hugh Gray, of the 1st Royal Regiment, 17 year of his age. He was youngest son of the Owen Wynne Gray, of the 6th Dragoon Guards, in Devon, the widow of Captain Archibald At Hampstead, the widow of Sir John Mor At Stockholm, the Dowager Viscountess H Of apoplexy, Mr. Connor, of Covent Garden who, since Jack Johnson, has been the only representative of Irish characters.

In Cork, Jane, relict of the late William and daughter to the late Alderman Randal of that City

DEBENTURE AND GOVERNMENT STOCK

EDWARD BERNARD, UPPER GEORGE'S-STREET, TRANSACTS all business in GOVERNMENT SECURITIES, and begs leave to inform several persons who hold Government Stocks, and have executed Powers of Attorney for receiving Interest at his Office, that the Dividends on the several Stocks which have arrived this day, and will be paid on demand. The price at present of the Government Stocks is upwards of Four and a half per Cent. and is most favourable to persons as are desirous to invest in them. Information respecting Stock and Debentures, EDWARD BERNARD'S Office, where the Stock Lists can be seen, and Powers of Attorney for receiving Interest and Sale of Stock can be obtained.

FRESH IMPORTATION NOW OPENING BY R. M. MAHON

AT THE WEST OF ENGLAND CLOTH 10, CHARLOTTE'S-QUAY. THIS Stock, the largest and cheapest ever brought into this market, has been recently imported; it comprises several thousand yards of superfine Black and Blue Cloths, made from Saxony Wool; Brown, Oxford, Claret, Olive ditto; Double and Single Milled Dr. Gentlemen's Top Coats; Hunter's Green ditto; Double and Single Milled Kersey (winter shades), for Pantaloon; Ladies' Frock and Cloak Cloths; Hats and Bonnets; Gowns, and Velveteens; Buff and White No. 1 Cloths, for Gentlemen's riding breeches; a assortment of Winter Waistcoating, &c &c.

R. M. M. as a direct importer, will do up Stock on such low terms as will make it the attention of ready-money purchasers. An Apprentice wanted.—None but a lad who can give respectable security, liberal fee will be required. 10 Cases of Superfine Beaver Hats, arrived, which will be sold at unprecedented