

IMPORTANT ORDER—A POLICE ESTABLISHMENT.

CORK, OCTOBER 16.—The Sheriffs of this City have received a letter, written by directions of the Lord Lieutenant, acquainting them that, from the 1st of January, 1827, Military Centinels will not be allowed to be placed on any of the Jails or Prisons in this district; nor will a military guard be allowed to escort Prisoners to or from the Jail or Court House during the Assizes. The letter, we understand, states, that this early intimation is given, in order that the Sheriffs may make arrangements in the intermediate time to provide for the withdrawal of the troops who have hitherto performed these duties. A guard will still be continued at the Main Guard House, and this will be the only place where military will be stationed in the City.

There can be no doubt, we think, that the object of this order is to compel the authorities here to apply for a Police establishment. It will be in the recollection of our readers, that immediately after the withdrawal of the Insurrection Act from the City and Liberties, Mr. Serjeant, now Judge, Torrens, used every persuasive argument that ingenuity could devise, to induce the Magistrates to apply for the extension of the provisions of the Police Act to Cork, as an application from them is necessary for its introduction. The Magistrates, much pressed, and refused to sanction the measure. They referred to the uniform peaceful and tranquil state of the City, which they attributed to the efficient and always active services of the City Officers, aided by the good dispositions of the Citizens generally, and they held out would add so tremendously to the already excessively heavy weight of Taxation under which the city is labouring. We bore our share in thanking them for their perseverance and determination, by which we thought we had got over the danger which threatened.

We fear, however, that it is renewed, and, unless the Magistrates remain firm, that we shall be visited with its dreadful effects. We regard this letter in no other light than as a sinister attempt to introduce a Police Establishment by compulsion, the consequence of which will be, that while the City will have to bear the expense of it, of a single soldier. Let the Citizens look to it in time. The Magistrates, we dare to say, have not changed their opinions on the matter, for nothing has occurred to have made them do so. We can't say now, what proportion an establishment of Police for the City would bear to that which exists in the County; but we know from the Parliamentary Papers on the subject, now lying before us, that the expense of the latter for the year 1825 was Thirteen Thousand, three Hundred and Forty One Pounds, Eleven Shillings and Five Pence Three Farthings!!!

NOTICE.

A MEETING of the Members of the Agricultural Association is requested at One o'Clock, on SATURDAY NEXT, to take into consideration the expediency of applying to Parliament for a Bill, for the better regulation of the Corn Market of this City.

W. GABBETT, Chairman. Caherline, October 18, 1826.

NOTICE

THE MAYOR cautions Persons against airing Horses in the Side Streets. Orders have been issued to the Constables and Police to be particular in carrying this notice into effect.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 18.

To-morrow, the 24th Regiment, under command of Colonel Fleming, will undergo their half-yearly inspection, before General Sir Charles Doyle, in the Square of New Barracks.

The depot of the 20th Regiment was inspected on Saturday, in Tralee barracks, by General Sir Georgeingham.

Wednesday, General Taylor made the half-yearly inspection of the 75th, stationed in Castlebar, on which Colonel England, his unqualified approbation of the troops in every particular.

The 1st division of the 19th Regiment embarked at 10 o'clock, on the 11th instant, in the Parmelia transport, the 2nd division yesterday in the Indian Trader, and the 3rd division to-morrow in the Vittoria transport.

The depot of the 19th Regiment, under command of Major Raper, will occupy Spike Island, and the other two divisions will be embarked at the same place.

The only transport yet arrived to embark the 86th Regiment, is the Waterloo, which will take in the 1st division at Portsmouth.

The Royal transport, with the third division of the 19th Regiment, has arrived at Cove.

The 22d and 24th Regiments are appointed to be embarked at Bury, Haslingden and Oldham, on the 1st of August.

The 33d Regiment, and was highly commended, and well regulated system observed, and creditable to the troops.

On Sunday morning, an affray took place at Coolomen, in this County, commenced by a party of men pulling down the house of one Sullivan, to put him out of the possession; the family of Sullivan were severely beaten with stones. The Police stationed at Newbridge hearing of the affray, quickly repaired to the spot, but before they arrived the house was tumbled down; they succeeded, however, in bringing several of the ringleaders before John Bateman, Esq. who told them that on the Sabbath they ought to be at their chapels rather than tumbling the house and spilling the blood of their neighbours. Seven of them were committed to the County Gaol.

Three respectable farmers' houses, within a mile of Charleville, were attacked on Sunday night last, by a number of fellows armed, under the pretence of flogging a Kerry man. After breaking into out-houses where the poor wretches were, and flogging them, these Rookites assaulted the dwelling houses of the farmers—broke into two of them—and severely cut one Callaghan McCarthy, with a blow of a fire-lock, and also one Shea, with a spade-handle. Mr. Baily, his son, and two men servants, prevented these fellows from getting into his house; they broke nine sash windows, and the doors to pieces with stones.—Baily, and his sister, were wounded. Major Maxwell apprehended one of this gang last night on good information.

On Saturday, two soldiers of the 24th Regiment, returning on duty from Patrick's-Well to this City, were attacked at Loughmore, and pelted with stones. A country fellow had the audacity to wrest a bayonet from one of the soldiers, but was pursued and taken into custody. The forbearance of the two men was most praiseworthy—the offender has been committed to Gaol by Alderman Henry Watson.

The cow-house of William Ryves, Esq. New-Garden, was burned down, last night; whether accidentally or otherwise is not ascertained.

Mr. Cox, Coroner, held an inquest yesterday on a woman and child, at Croagh, supposed to be both poisoned—the bodies had been interred three days.

Timothy Gorman's house, at Rossbrien, in the North Liberties, was robbed, on Tuesday night, of money and goods.

Wednesday night, some sheep were stolen from off the lands of Gloschire, Parish of Kilkeddy, in this County.

A young boy, named Peter Cleary, accidentally fell into the pan of the second lock of the Canal, on Sunday last, and was drowned, after an ineffectual attempt to save him by a few spectators. The Mayor held an inquest on the body, verdict accordingly.

The fair of Clonroad, on Saturday, was very brisk and well attended with buyers.

On Thursday, a carman was killed on the South Terrace, Cork, by a fall from his vehicle.

On Saturday a young man was murdered at Dunamon, near Roscommon, when conveying a pig to pound.

Potatoes are selling in Tralee market for two pence per stone.

At the Cork City Sessions on Monday, Kean Mahony, a pensioner, with but one wing, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment, for an assault.

Several Revenue trials occurred last week at Letterkenny, County Donegal, at which Mr Grady, as Counsel for the Commissioners of Excise, attended.

An entertainment was given by the Sessions Grand Jury of Ennis, on Thursday, to Mr. Spring Rice, which was attended by the Officers of the Rifle Brigade from Clare Castle.

An Apothecary will be elected to the Dispensary of Carrick-on-Shannon, on Thursday.

Yesterday, a Meeting of the Subscribers to the Dispensary, it was resolved that two Physicians be appointed at a salary of 20l. a-year each, to visit the sick poor in their houses.

Committed to the City Jail, by the Mayor, Michael O'Neill and Nicholas Roche, for assault; by Alderman Watson, John Joyce, Ellen Joyce and Johana McCarthy, for having assaulted Michael Dunn, one of the Police, in the due execution of his office; by Alderman Henry Watson, John Browne alias Hayes alias Ryan, for an assault on the persons of Moses Manigan and Williamson, soldiers of the 24th Regiment, and forcibly carrying away the bayonet of Moses Manigan.

The donation of five pounds to the United Schools, mentioned in our last as given by the Right Hon Lord Clare, should have been from his brother, Colonel Fitzgibbon, per Rev Mr Coll.

"D." from Askeaton, and "Onesimus," have been received, and shall appear in our next.

We have received, at this Office, for the Officer's Widow, 4l from Anonymous, and 2s. from J. B.

SICK POOR FUND.

In treating of this Institution a few days since, I was compelled to limit the mention of the many advantages derivable from it, to a narrow compass. It will be easily seen, that an Hospital, however sufficient in funds and commodious in extent, can afford but a temporary relief to its suffering inmates, when nature is denied suitable support during that stage of convalescence which immediately succeeds their discharge. And I regret to observe our Fever Hospital at this moment, presents very distressing features. The extreme want that pervades the various branches of the working classes, their entire incompetency to the procuring the cheapest clothing, food, fuel or bedding, superadded to the chilling influence of the unequal season that is now setting in, afford ample and inviting opportunities for the increase of disease—and we find the evil augmenting in proportion to the duration and severity of the causes. It will be recollected that a vast decrease in the crops was seriously apprehended in Spring, from the very great drought that then and for a considerable time after prevailed. Provisions were scarce, and proportionably dear during the summer and harvest, and the oat crop in particular, though not an absolute failure, was so to a certain extent—being stunted in growth, it yielded but a small quantity of straw, which must at all times be sharply felt by the lower order, as it constitutes the principle share of their bedding. The potatoe, the main support of the peasantry and working classes, though not deficient, was scarce in market, arising from the dreaded failure of that crop, and the small supply that came in brought the high average of six-pence per stone. Is it to be wondered then, that disease should have grown so prevalent?—On the opposite, we should rather be surprised, why the poor, worn out by

On Friday, in Clanbrassil-street, Dublin, Edward Hay, formerly Secretary to the Catholics of Ireland. The disease of which he died, was a mortification of the arm, caused by a thorn that entered his thumb not many days ago.—At the time of his death he had nearly prepared for the press a History of Irish Catholic affairs for the last thirty years. He was early elected a Member of the Royal Irish Academy. A Chancery suit with his brother, Major Philip Hay, 18th Hussars, had nearly reduced him to absolute want.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

NOTWITHSTANDING the repeated cautions given by the late Mayor to the Public, to Adjust their Weights and Measures, agreeably to the late Act of Parliament—I have received information that the illegal practise of using the Old Weights and Measures still continues. I hereby give the Public Notice, that I will alter Saturday next, Levy such Penalties as the Law prescribes upon any Persons not conforming to the late Act of Parliament as assimilating the Irish to the British Standard.

PAROCHIAL CATHOLIC MEETING.

At a Meeting of the Roman Catholic Inhabitants of the Parish of Moxagay, held this day in the Parish Chapel, at Rathcahill—

The Rev. JAMES CLEARY, P. P. in the Chair. The following Resolutions were unanimously agreed to: That we firmly, though mildly, petition Parliament for Emancipation perfectly unqualified; and that we forcibly deprecate any measure purporting to restrict the elective franchise, or to interfere with the discipline of our church.

That our local grievances be embodied in our petition, as additional proofs to the Legislature of the injustice of continuing a system, the baneful effects of which are felt in all (even the remotest) parts of this distracted country.

That this day's meeting clearly proves the falsehood of the assertion so frequently made "that all classes of our people are not interested for Emancipation." That we indignantly deny, together with the foul imputation of "divided allegiance."

That our heartfelt gratitude is pre-eminently due and hereby expressed to the Old and New Catholic Association; and in particular to our distinguished countryman, Daniel O'Connell, Esq. the father of the people.
