...ly favorable to a change in the present system.—
...at evils resulting from the interference of brokers
...farmers—the various frauds and abuses which are
...y occurrence, are inseparable from this most im-
...branch of Trade, unless a general market be
...to which both buyer and seller must resort.—
...object of great moment which would be accom-
...by a public market is, that the relative qualities of
...ind of grain would be ascertained, and the far-
...ee in value exactly determined. Thus the far-
...ould be apprised of the benefit of due atten-
...the cultivation of his crops, and bringing
...le to market in the best condition. The annual
...t paid to Brokers, in this City, is little short of
...00, and when it is found that the only return made
...s immense sum is the portion of it wasted in induc-
...mongst the Peasantry habits of drunkenness and
...ge, it must be pronounced that the subject is well
...ing the attention of the Landed and Commercial
...sts of this part of Ireland.
