At Buenos Ayres, Mathew Studdart, Esq. to Eliza, only daughter of the late J. Dolman, Esq. of London.

At Dartmouth, Robert Edward, eldest son of the Baron de Bruce, to Miss Jane Rosaline O'Donovan.

John Keogh, Esq. second son of the late John Keogh, Esq. of Mount Jerome, to Mary Alicia King, of Dublin.

At Richmond, the Hon. and Rev. Baptist Noel, to Miss Baillie, eldest daughter of the late Peter Baillie, Esq. of Cochfour.

At Richmond, the Rev. Samuel Paynter, M. A. of Trinity College, Cambridge, Rector of Hatford, Berks, to Eliza, only daughter of Samuel Paynter, Esq. of Richmond.

DEATHS.

On Wednesday, at Annascaul, in the County of Clare, Westropp Hickman, Esq.

At Newport, Mr. Myles Roche, Miller.

On Thursday, in Mary-street, the wife of Mr. Thomas Hewitt.

In Charlemont-street, Dublin, William, second son of Samuel Page, of Dame-street, Esq.

Of apoplexy, Mr. Martin Sinnott, of Wexford.

Charlotte, daughter of the Rev. Thomas Colley, of Dunleckney, and Rector of Nurney, County Carlow.

At Inch, Leighlin-bridge, Robert H. Boughton, Esq.

Of apoplexy, at his house, in High-street, Kilkenny, Mr. Barnaby Brennan, woollen-draper.

Suddenly, at Warrenpoint, Daniel M'Bride, Esq.

On Sullivan's-quay, Cork, Penelope, wife of Mr. Thomas Haynes.

At Bristol, on Wednesday last, in consequence of injury received a few weeks ago, by falling from off the Quay, Mr. James Lepingwell, aged 60 years, formerly of Great Yarmouth, Norfolk, but lately of Cork.

On the Quay, Waterford, Margaret, daughter of the late Mr. Thomas Browne.

Mr. Wm. Linehan, of Ballybrack, Co. Waterford.

Monday, at his house in William-street Waterford, Samuel Hobson, Esq. formerly for many years Assistant Barrister of the County Cork. Although his decline had long been perceptible, his demise was rather unexpected. He had walked out during the day, and appeared somewhat improved. At four he was taken ill; at eight he expired. An equitable judge, an irreproachable citizen, this excellent gentleman seemed but to follow the simple suggestions of his sound head and his good heart, while, in private life and in his public capacity, he proceeded invariably in that line of undeviating rectitude and unceasing beneficence that impressed his character with the stamp of universal approbation.

At Clifton, Martin Whish, Esq. late Chairman of the English Board of Excise.

At Rothsay, Alexander M'Lean, Esq. late Lieutenant-Colonel of the 2d West India Regiment.

Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Colonel and Lady Elizabeth Steele.

At her Ladyship's house, in Montagu-square, London, the Dowager Countess of Normanton.

At Beckingham, Sir William Bellingham, Bart.

At Routh, the Rev. J. L. Hutcheson, A. M. Rector of that place. From the situation in which the Rev. Gentleman was found, it is certain he must have died by his own hand.

At Blackheath, of typhus fever, aged 11 years and five months, Eleanor Henrietta Victoria, daughter and only child of the Right Hon. F. J. Robinson and Sarah Robinson.

MRS. WM. PACK AND T. PACK'S ESTABLISHMENT
PATRICK-STREET, KILKENNY

NO VACATION GIVEN—ENTRANCE NEXT TWELVE Young Ladies are Boarded in the following Branches, for Four Months each:—English, French and Italian Geography and the Use of the Globes; Astronomy and Botany—Writing and Arithmetic—Music (Harp or Piano Forte) and Drawing in oils and water colours, under the tuition of the best Teachers and Governesses—Useful and Ornamental Needlework.
Each Lady taught to make her own Dress, and the Language of the School.
A Protestant and Catholic Clergyman in each week.
From the extent of the Inclosure, no Ladies will ever appear in the Street for the purpose of selling their Goods.
As Mrs. Pack's limited number forms a plan in which may be had all the advantages of a boarding school, consequently it admits of that to their Address and Manners, by removing serious objections to a numerous Establishment.
Any Lady who from delicacy of health is unable to finish her Education at the usual mode, will find herself of the above advantages on the removal of any Pupil.
A quarter's notice will be required for the removal of any Pupil.
