Customs of Galway has been published. case is made out to entitle the Corporaverse. The right of Toll Thorough Market Toll he admits the Corporation principle of their keeping open a public eorge Beresford was on a visit with the ert, of New Inn, Tipperary, last week, to a beautiful hunter, rode by Captain purchased the animal for 150 guineas.

er, the Candidate for Armagh, served in and was engaged in most of the camthe Peninsula. When his Regiment Moore's army in 1808 they were 640 the disastrous encounter at Corunna they 0 for England. At the battle of Orthes, distinguished themselves by cutting off a rench infantry, and making the entire Vaterloo, they came in contact with a ench cavalry; annihilation would have Life Guards who came to their support, their officers left the field untouched .-Colonel Verner was wounded by a ball arles R. Elrington, D. D. Fellow of has published a Work, entitled, " Re-Rev. Mr. Graves' Letter to the Lord te, the Tournes it considered.

merick Chronicle

ESDAY, NOVEMBER 22.

el every night.

aret Bryan

f the 13th instant, a party of from 20 b. ked the house of James Morrissy, at is County, and demolished the windows ones. About fifteen of those miscreants ; the only cause assigned for the outrage offered for land in which some of them On Saturday night, another attempt was e work of demolition, but the fellows fled of the Police, and two Constables are icinity of Bruree, in this County, and everal stand of arms, demanding proviy from the inmates. On one occasion opposition, and a man of the party was tchfork in the face. r. Vokes, with a party of Police, proroom, and succeeded in apprehending i, charged with being one of the party house of Henry Shire, of Garranroe, e 8th instant, and with beating Shire for r, and taking away his arms. night last, a slieep was killed on the lereen, near O'Brien's Bridge, and on ight, another, the property of James he carcasses were left. orning, Cornelius Hyde was detected ic garden in connexion with the Royal of some valuable plants in the hotier was fired at by Mr. J. Drummond, ne premises, and unfortunately the shot and the latter by Lieutenant Wilson. Mr. Ducket received the ball of his istol arm, when an amicable arrangeerdict was given that deceased was shot I in defence of his property. ht last, that active Officer, H. Pearce, well ordered Police, proceeded to the keogh, County Tipperary, where he · Malane, one of the principals in the eting took place at Mount Collins, on County Cork, between R. Decourcey ket, Esqrs. the former attended by up, in and about Scariff, forty-one nets of different descriptions, most of which are long, for drawing, and used, fixed across the mouth and other parts of the river running through that town, had six persons summoned for using those nets, to the Petty Sessions at Tomgrany, and convicted them in penalties of 40s. each. Mr. Kelly has: caused all the weirs in that neighbourhood to be opened, fishing, a considerable encrease of fish may be expected in that quarter. Two watchmen are placed on that river. The letter signed " Michael Fitzgerald," which appeared in our last, was from the Parish Priest of Askeston. The verses from Cloghjordan, signed " T. U. V." have been received, but the spirit and style of the production renders their insertion doubtful. MECHANICS' INSTITUTE-It has been intimated to us, that arrangements are in progress for originating a Debat. ing Society in the Mechanics' Institute; whether this project may be calculated to promote the interests of Forged Thirty-shilling Notes of the Bank of Ireland new currency, numbered $6,117, and dated 9th December, 1825, are now in circulation, and extremely well executed in every particular. Several lots of large black cattle, the property of Daniel O'Connell, Esq. of Kilgorey, County Clare, passed through here yesterday, for Cork. The mail coach from Tralee to Cork was upset in Macroom, on Wednesday, by coming in contact with a ladder. The Guard had three of his fingers broken, and

The period of the Jubilee is further extended from the Three Bank of Ireland Post Bills for 500% each have

Mrs. Helme, late of this City, has opened an extensive

4th of December to Christmas day next, for the benefit been lost in Cork. The finder is offered 100% reward on bringing them to the Right Rev. Dr. Murphy, of Cork.

of the faithful of the Roman Catholic Communion.

academy for young ladies in Dawson-street, Dublin.

the coachman his thigh fractured. On Friday last, a poor woman, wife to a man named Buckley, residing near Abbeyfeale, got a fit of weakness, and fell into the fire, which caused her death on the fullowing day. Yesterday, two ladies, mother and daughter, were received into the Sisterhood of the Order of St. Ursula at the Convent of that name established, on the North There will be a meeting of the Fetherd Church Missionary Society, on Thursday.

patronised by Colonel Mackintosh, Captains Temple and Doyle, of the 15th, and several gentlemen of the County. Mr. Kelly, Inspector of Fisheries, is on a general inspection through the Country, and placing watchmen on various parts of the river, for the protection of the spawning

There will be a Grand Ball in Galway this evening.

Con the night of Friday, 4th inst., examined the weirs at Abington, on Saturday went up the Bilboa river, on Monday, with a party of police, searched for nets, &c. on the same river, and through the mountains for several miles above Bilhos, on Saturday, 8th inst., attended Petty Sessions held at Rusheen, had Richard Sullivan, of Abington, miller, convicted for having killed salmon and trout in his eel net, set on his mill-weir, in a penalty of five pounds, and in consequence of such transgressions, he for his protection. The Police patrole has been served with a notice under the statute, to open a space or King's share of twenty-one feet in his mill weir, night, a party of Rockites attacked four another miller on the same river, has subjected himself to

Mr. Kelly, with a party of police, searched and took the same proceedings.

one of which was a most complete stop, being a will-weir with several sluices on which nets have been always set, the Proprietor, a very respectable person, conceiving he had a right to fish in this way, on Mr. Kelly's explaining the illegality of it before the Magistrates at Petty Sessions, the Proprietor has opened his sluices and undertaken never to fish there again, this being a great breeding river and so immediately connected with the lakes above Killaloe, from the arrangement and check put to not the Institute is yet to be ascertained If, however, the questions be limited to scientific and moral principles, carefully divested of other extraneous matter, (the introduction of which would certainly be injurious.) the diher-street, to Mary, second da Reade, Esq. one of the High Sh Thomas Hore, Esq. of the 1 the late William Hore, Esq. o Wesford, to Cecilia, only daugh Rosegarland, Co. Wexford, and At Cove Church, Sandford . knockan Castle, King's County,

MARRIA

At the Ranger's Lodge, Oxen

Lady Charlotte Berkeley, of

of a son.

City.

of a daughter.

At Roehampton, the Right I

In Park, the Lady of Henry

At Blymhew Rectory, the La

In Dublin, James Pope, Esq

E. Bridgeman, of a son.

of the late E. Houre Reeves, of 1 "Robert Hickson, of Killarney res, daughter of the late D. Aik In Cork, Mr. Walter Murph Alieis daughter of Captain The In Cork, Mr. Bartholomew 1 ter of the late Mr. Michael Flat

In Dublin, Mr. Henry Blun Miss Amelia Eakins, of North 'At St. Giles's Church, Henry to Caroline, third daughter of t the 2d Regiment of Life Guard In Quebec. John Butler Sm -shire, England, to Miss Louis: hill, in the Queen's County. In Paris, the Hon. Ferdinan

his Majesty's Mission at Flore youngest daughter of Colonel E

Earl of Meath.

daughter of the late Jeremiah C

In London, Lieut. Colonel India Company's service, to Ju Clutterbuck, of New Bridge-str DEATI In William-street, at an adva relict of the late James Percocl In Tipperary, on the 11th in age, Mrs. Scully, relict of the of said town-deservedly and u numerous friends and relatives.

At Whitefield, County Kerr regreged, M'Gillicuddy of the to Hon. Arabella Mullins, and sister to the present Lord without issue, the family estate Richard M'Gillicuddy, Esq.

In New Ross, Mrs Keily, w At Ballyteigue, County Wex of Edward Meadows, E-q. At Ballinasloe, Mr. Samuel Suddenly, Mr. Welch, organ Mr. T. Welch, of the Royal 1 Lately, at Ceylon, the eldes

Major William Morris, 97th 1

Alexander Read, 46th Regim

In Edinburgh, David Ewar

Suddenly, at Cannavor, in

At Windsor, deeply regre

Major Thomas S. Fairthelon azed 32 years. His remains Ward of Windsor Castle, wit followed by the Horse Guard soldiers of his own Regiment At the Government House Lieutenant John Ker, of the At the Government-House

William F. S. Nicolay, Esq. Major-General Nicolay, Gov. Captain Hanwell, of the service. At Halifax, Nova Scotia,