DEATHS.

On Thursday, at Ballinvena, Samuel Bennett James, Esq. one of the oldest Magistrates in this County. No Gentleman lived more in the esteem of his friends, or whose death is more sincerely regretted. To his afflicted family (to whom he discharged all the duties of an affectionate husband and kind father,) it must be some allevia-tion of their sorrow, to see the warm and sympathising Yeomanry of the neighbourhood mingle their tears in recollection of his many acts of kindness, in healing their differences and ministering to their wants. His remains were to be deposited to-day in the family vault in Kil-linnan.
