DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, at the New Barracks, after a few days illness, of inflammation, in the prime of life, and much regretted, Assistant-Surgeon Sinclair, of the 85th Regiment, the depot of which is quartered in this Garrison. His remains will be interred with military honors at Munchin's Church, at two o'clock to-morrow, afternoon.

On Monday, at Cove, very sincerely regretted, Mrs.
Honan, relict of the late Mathew Honan, Esq. of this City.

On Wednesday night, in the House of Industry, at the advanced age of 84 years, Ellen Behane. This poor woman was an inmate of the Institution for a period of 45 years. When she was first admitted she was afflicted with palsy, under which she laboured until the hour of her death, but her desire to render herself useful was such, that she attended the Hot Calander about thirty years ago, when that machine was in operation for the use of the cheque weavers of Limerick; but when it ceased to work in the house, her strength gradually declined, and for the last twenty years she has been entirely confined to her bed.—What must the sons and daughters of exercise think of this statement?

On Thursday morning, at Williamstown, after a short illness, at the advanced age of ninety-six, Mr. James Peacocke, a truly honest and respectable man.
