

Hute.	84	116
Cal.	100	109
EHOLDERS' BOOTHS.	17	14
	26	10
Gross Poll.....	547	631
for Mr. Callaghan.....	84

do not allow any speaking in the booths.
 Men (Freemen of Cork) have left this
 Mr. Hutchinson and Mr. Callaghan.— conveyance has been engaged by agents for their accommodation. The contest
 ous expense to both Gentlemen.
 r polling booths open at Cork: two for for freeholders. The result of each stated every evening, at four o'clock,

has received a letter from the his regret that the season of the will preclude his coming down to which he thinks him entitled to.

of the House of Industry, amounting look with confidence to a generous them, at the approaching grand Chris-forget their poverty, by enjoying that their benevolence has annually
 providing for them a substantial Breakfast Christmas Day, to commemorate an event
 on the books of the Establishment had once in their own habitations. Donations,
 Food, will be thankfully received by Alder-Treasurer, or by the House Steward.

by Alderman Watson, for the above humane from three Ladies, (well known friends to ) 14; G. M. Esq. 10s.; Mr. J. 5s.; Samuel
 q. 11; J. Foote, Esq. 10s.; Mrs. M. M. 4s.; 10s.; J. W. Esq. 10s.; T. J.
 Mrs. P. 5s.; Mr. U. 2s.

last, a collection was made in St. Munchin's the purpose of cloathing the Orphans of the industry, who attend there; though no notice previously given in the Public Prints of this nor that the Rev. Mr. Duddell, Clergyman of intended preaching in aid of this charity, such
 of his powerful appeal to the Congregation, 10s. was collected, (including 11 sent by the
 ) a sum exceeding any former contributions Church. Were we to mention the names of Congregation, it might give offence; suf-
 they were in general those who subscribe and liberally to the support of the poor in the Industry. Since Sunday, the Treasurer has from respectable individuals, who could not 10s. 10d.

tion for the Widows of St. George's Almsprovide clothing and a Christmas dinner,
 to annual custom, is now making by the Rev.
 Peacock, Captain Sayers, and Edward Bernard, whose subscriptions will be thankfully received acknowledged.

left by Mr. F. for the above purpose, has to Mr. Peacock by the Proprietors of the man Henry Watson has received from Surgeon te 7th Dragoon Guards, One Guinea, which he

 to the Poor, as desired.

owner of the Fever Hospital acknowledges to ived from the Very Rev. Dean Lefanu, Three ; also from Alderman Watson, 4s. a fine for pign through this City on last Sunday.

County Limerick Fox Hounds meet at Patrick's ten o'clock, on Saturday, 23d of December.
 will be a General Sessions of the Peace for the
 of Cork, at Bantry, on the 23d of February.
 "shall appear in our next, as also the letter
 Gaseley, from Casau.

At Rossmore-Park, County Monaghan, the Lady of the Hon. Richard Westerra, of a daughter.
 The Lady of John Dillon, Esq. of Arran-quay, Dublin, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

This morning, at Kilmurry Church, by her father, John Bradshaw, of Ballyfreen, in this County, Esq. to Jane Marianne, second daughter of the Rev. H. I. Ingram.
 In Dublin, Thomas Wright, Esq. of Dorset-street,
 Barrister at Law, to Anne, eldest daughter of Nathaniel Wright, of Monaghan, Esq.

At the Friend's Meeting House, Sycamore-alley, Dublin, Isaac Wilson, Esq. of the Linen-Hall, to Miss Sarah Jessop, of Clommon, King's County, both of the Society of Friends.

At Skibbereen, George Wood, jun. Esq. of Bantry, to Amelia Watkins, youngest daughter of Thomas Wood,
 of Woodville, County Cor., Esq.
 Robert Henry Cooper, Esq. Captain in the East Suf.

Turner, Esq. of Tunbridge Wells, Kent.
 At Chichester, Captain Edward Sabina, R. A. to Elizabeth Juliana, daughter of William Leveson, jun.
 Esq.

DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, after a few hours illness, John O'Halloran, Esq. of Lower Glentworth-street, in this City.

In Cork, quite suddenly, Michael Roberts, Esq.
 At Rathkeale, on Friday, after a painful and protracted illness, borne with Christian fortitude and pious resignation, Mrs. Hammond, relict of the late Thos. Hammond, Esq. If the faithful wife, the tender mother, and the steadfast friend, are virtues worth recording, few have possessed them in a more eminent degree.

In Mungret-street, much regretted, Mrs. Hogan, wife of Mr. Patrick Hogan, Grocer
 At Thomond-Gate, Mary, eldest daughter of Mr.
 Thomas Myles.

On the 18th instant, at Clonealong, sincerely and deservedly regretted, Mr. Michael Harte.

In Baggot-street, Dublin, aged 74 years, after only one hours' illness, the Rev. John Lewis, Rector of Howth, and Curate of St. Peter's Parish for upwards of forty years.

Of typhus fever, Frances, wife of Patrick McCarthy
 of Dublin, Esq.

Abel Harris, Esq. of Skeaf, Co. Cork.
 In Cheltenham, Hannah Maria, relict of the late John Pollock, of Mountainstown, in the County Meath, Esq.

At his lodgings, in Townsend-street Chapel, Dublin,
 the Rev. Eugene Macabe.

On the South Mall, Cork, May, relict of Michael Foote, Esq. Attorney. We but itely announced the death of her brother, Major Gregg, loyal African Corps.

In Mount-street, Dublin, of fever Mr. John Maguire, of the Pleas Exchequer Office.

At Brighton, Lord Kinnaird.
 On the Strand, London, in his 85th year, Joseph Cradock, Esq. Senior Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries. He served the office of High Sheriff of Leicestershire in the year 1767.

At Putney, Mary Henrietta, daughter of Lieutenant-Colonel Comyn, 33d Bengal Native Infantry.

At Weston-on-Trent, Eliza, widow of the late Lieutenant-Colonel Rogers.

At St. Servan, in France, James Chaundy, Esq.
 late Captain in the 37th Regiment.

At the Vicarage, Hawkehead, An wife of the Rev.
 George Pack, only sister of Sir Robert Peel, Bart.

The 19th April last, on board the Elphinstone, on his passage to Colombo, Lieutenant Samuel Jackson, of the Madras Native Infantry, and Deputy Quartermaster-General in the ceded districts.

Dec. 14, at an advanced age, at his residence in Petersfield, London, Thomas Bonham, Esq. a Gentleman of great wealth, which descends to the unity of the Manner for Portsmouth, John Carter, Esq.

and price, he will take back and return the
 Their JEWELLERY and PLATE are own manufacture, and their PLATED GO selected from the first manufacturing houses in and very superior to the articles usually m Ironmongers.

34, Patrick-street, Limerick,
 and 32, Exchequer-street, Dublin
 Decem

NOTICE.
 A MEETING of the Householders of St.
 Parish is requested at the Commission Commercial-Buildings, on THURSDAY, 1 of January next, to elect a Commissioner for room of the late John M'Namara, Esq.
 WILLIAM PIERCY, S
 Limerick, 20th Dec. 1826.

4. Parish Taxes, annum.
 The Election to commence at twelve and cl o'clock.

STOPPED
 BY THE POLICE—SUSPECTED STOLEN,
 SEVEN Silver Table Spoons, three do. De
 one Silver Wine Server, one Silver
 Silver Gravey Spoon, a Looking-Glass Orn
 Work Box, the top gilt, a Fur Tippet Squi
 Fancy Wooden Snuff Box.
 Application to be made to Captain DROU
 of Limerick Police-Office.
 Decem

Lessee Lynch and others TO BE LET
 against of Six Mor
 Walsh and others. to Redemption, A
 Those that part c
 of TULLY, containing 67 acres, 3 roods and plantation measure, or thereabouts, situat
 being, in the Barony of Coollea, and County
 Apply to Mr. MICHAEL BOHNE, T
 Kilmallock; and JAMES W. O'SHAU
 Esq. Charleville, Attorney for the Lessor Plaintiffs
 December

MINING COMPANY OF IRE
DUBLIN.
SPECIFICATION AND PRICE
SLATES.
 At the Company's Quarries, near Queens (sized tons) 27, 30, and 33,
 inches, by 16, 17, and 18 inches, ... £ Tons, 30 to 48 inches, and of various breadths. ... ..
 Quarters, 13, 17, length, from
 £2 10s. to ... ..
 Half Quarters, 10, 13, from
 £1 5s. to ... ..
 Compons, 7, 10, ... ..
 Dutchesses, 24 inches, by 12 inches,
 Countesses, { 1st, 20 ... 10 ...
 { 2d, 18 ... 9 ...
 Ladies, { 1st, 16 ... 8 ...
 { 2d, 14 ... 7 ...
 Doubles, ... 12 ... 6 ...
 Orders, to be addressed to Mr. G. N.
 Quarries, Killaloe, or to the undersigned pany's Office, 27, Lower Ormond Quay
 By Order,
 RICHARD PURDY