OBSERVE.

MR. KEALE,

SURGEON DENTIST,

FROM LONDON, PARIS, AND EDINBURGH,
BEING strongly solicited by several respectable families, begs leave to apprise the Nobility, Ladies, and Gentlemen of Waterford, that he intends visiting that City, on MONDAY, the 12th Instant, and will remain at SHANAHAN'S Commercial Hotel, until SATURDAY, the 17th instant, when he is necessitated to return to Limerick, to resume his professional duties.
 Mr. KEALE hopes it is superfluous for him to comment on his successful practice in Limerick and the adjacent Counties—where he has relieved Thousands in the highest sphere of life, and rendered them such essential services as enabled them to enjoy the comforts of life, by his Artificial Teeth, bedded in Pure Gold, imitating and performing all the requisites of Natural Teeth, both in respect to beauty and effect.
 Mr. KEALE feels it imperative to call the attention of Parents to the state of their Children's Teeth, which, when neglected in the early period of life, produce irregularity and deformity of the features, and frequently lay the foundation for serious diseases of the Gums, &c.
 A large supply of his Superexcellent Dentifrice and Odontalgic, with Patent Brushes, prepared under his personal inspection.
 It is Mr. KEALE'S intention to visit Waterford annually—where he hopes to experience that patronage he has so liberally enjoyed since his arrival in Limerick, now about five years.
