

THE LIMERICK

DEATHS.

On Monday night, at his seat, Roschill, County Clare, to the inexpressible grief of her family and friends, Mrs. White, wife of Finch White, Esq.

Yesterday, at the house of her father, in Roche's-street, aged 12 years, Anne, eldest daughter of Mr. E. Walsh; a most interesting and lovely child, whose amiable manners, and engaging qualities, rendered her deservedly dear to her afflicted parents, and sorrowing friends.— With the most perfect submission to the Divine will, she quietly resigned her tender and innocent spirit to that Omnipotent Being from whom it was originally derived.

At the house of her brother, South-Mall, Cork, deeply regretted, Ann, daughter of the late Paul Rochford, Esq. and sister of John Rochford, of this City, Esq.

In Thomond-Gate, Mr. Daniel O'Meara, Inn-holder.
