AT a Meeting of the Magistrates and Gentlemen resident in the vicinity of Nenagh, held at the Court House in that town, on Monday, the 8th January, 1827, for the purpose of taking into consideration the origin of the Fire by which the Mills of THOMAS NUGENT were consumed, on the night of Saturday the 2d, or morning of Sunday the 3d day of December, 1823, Lord DUNALLY in the Chair, the following resolutions were entered into:— Resolved—That having taken into consideration the several circumstances laid before us, connected with the said fire, we are of opinion, that there is reasonable ground to suspect that it was perpetrated by some evil minded person or persons unknown; and being determined, as far as lies in our power, to put a stop to such outrages, and bring those who may be guilty to punishment, we promise to pay the several sums annexed to our names, to such person or persons as shall prosecute to conviction, within Twelve Calendar Months, the person or persons who set fire to said Mill.
