ARTHUR PRESTON, Dean of Limerick.
HENRY H. ROSE, acting for the Clergyman alluded to in paragraph, at his special request, he himself having been called away upon a more imperative duty.

BIRTHS

In Upper Rutland-street Dublin, the Lady of William Ryland Rainsford, Esq. of a daughter.
At Killashee, County Longford, the Lady of the Rev. Henry Brougham, of a son.

MARRIAGES

At Ballymackey Church, by the Rev. J. Saunderson, William Moylan, Esq. of Rathurles, to Mary Anne, eldest daughter of Richard Kyffin, Esq. of Kyffin-Lodge, Co. Tipperary.

On the 5th inst. at Mountmelick, in the Queen's County, by the Rev. H. Shortt, Captain W.W. Warburton, of the 67th Regiment, grandson of the late Rev. R. Warburton, M. A., Rector of Banagher, in the King's County, to Miss Jackson, eldest daughter of the late Nathaniel Jackson, Esq. of said town.

Richard Blair, Esq. of Blair's Cove, County Cork, to Catherine, third daughter of the late Richard O'Donovan, of O'Donovan's Cove, in same County, Esq.

In London, Major R Carlile Pollock, 90th Regiment, third son of James Pollock, Esq. of Newry, to Margaret, daughter of the late Mrs. Sheridan, of Percy-street.

DEATHS

On Thursday, in George's-street, Jasper White, Esq. a gentleman who, during a long life, was much respected for his amiable qualities, and whose death is very much regretted.

On Thursday, at Manister Lodge, County Limerick, Patrick Cudmore, Esq. aged 47.

On Saturday, in Dublin, at an advanced age, Mrs. Going, relict of the late Richard Going, Esq. of Birdhill, County Tipperary.

On Thursday, in Mary-street, Mr. James Lannan—a truly honest man.

On Wednesday, at his house in Lady-lane, Waterford, of an attack of apoplexy, with which he was seized on Saturday morning, Henry Sargent, Esq. one of the Aldermen of that City, a Justice of the Peace for the County Waterford, and for many years one of the Landing Waiters at that Port. He was brother of the late Joseph Sargent, Esq. of this City, Alderman.

At Beelmont, County of Tipperary, in the 84th year of his age, John Godfrey, Esq. one of the oldest Magistrates, and a Deputy Governor of the County.—Simplicity and integrity, joined to strong intellectual powers, and great kindness of heart, characterized this much respected Gentleman throughout life, and he died in a good old age, calmly, but fervently, commending his spirit into the hands of his Redeemer and his God.

On Wednesday evening last at Tarbert Island, Mr. William Somerville, master gunner—an upright steady man, highly respected by all his acquaintance, his death is a loss to his family, and is greatly regretted by all who knew him.

COUNTY CLARE.

To be Sold or Let.

THE COMMISSIONERS of His Majesty's Customs hereby give Notice, that they will dispose of the INTEREST of the Crown in that extensive range of BUILDINGS, forming a Quadrangle, and called Cappagh Station, near the Pier of Kilmuckish, in the Whole or in Lots, viz.—

The Two Principal Buildings, with their respective Out-Offices, in front of the Square, to form Two Lots; and the other three sides of the Square, upon which are the Boatmen's Houses and small Gardens in their rear, to form three more Lots—in all five; or for taking a Lease for any term of years, for the Whole or in Lots.

The situation is peculiarly eligible, and the Buildings in good condition. They can be viewed and particulars known by application to the Board's Officer, at Kilmuckish; the Collector and Comptroller of Limerick; and for Title to the Solicitor, E. A. WALLER, Esq. at his Office, Custom-House, Dublin.

Proposals, sealed and directed to the Secretary of Customs, Custom-House, Dublin, will be received until the 9th day of April next.
