

in the same gale of wind at ere fortunately saved.
a sail-boat foundered near the
The crew took to the mast head, frequently washed by the waves, danger. They were released, shore.

this day, from an officer of the ney Hill, Jamaica, the 27th of giment is very healthy, not one nding, and the officers and men ision of the 34th arrived at he 53d, now on a route to 37th at Cork.

Instant, the detachments of oned at Newcastle, Rathkeale, ton, Shanagolden, Adare, and placed by the 37th from Cork. une, the first division of the e in this Garrison, and take up who proceed for Athlone, on where they replace the 61st ublin duty.

at Tralee, daily expect to be

Regiment marched, yesterday,

Regiment have arrived at But-place the 10th, under Major o Cove, Spike Island, &c.

Charles Doyle left this, yesterday, a temporary absence, the com-devolves on Colonel Worsley, omney, and the Arab transport, outh, and are daily expected at Regiment.

now in Hull Garrison, has atham, and is to be succeeded ath.

nsport has arrived at Portsmouth with invalids of the 7th, 18th, ts, and Royal Artillery.

the 92d arrived from Jamaica, in nd Lord Suffield transports.— Captain Crofton, 91st; and En-iments, also returned in the same achment of the 52d, with Captain orke (sons of the Admirals), for Halifax.

ps in the service who do not bear and appointments, are the 16th, 0th, and 93d Regiments. The stanced are the 2d, 6th, and 7th th Lancers.

ts in the Royal Navy, on all romoted on Saturday last, to the

at all the first Lieutenants who anders, have been promoted to the iding in the island of Jersey, on Congratulatory Address—the is being exalted to the dignity of his Majesty's Navy.

iral has been pleased to appoint phew of the late Lord Heathfield, lesley, at Portsmouth.

y Promotions in the London ish Secretary, is married to a al the Revenue Cruizers on the

the following stations, Kings-Wolport, Galway, Cork, and tem into a penal bond of 2,500l.

of the contract. The period of ext.

plate of Irish manufacture has street, to Maybella, eldest daughter of the late Alderman John Alley, of that City.

In Cork, William Carne, Esq. to Mary, daughter of the late W. B. Brewer, Esq. of the Royal Navy.

Henry Dennehy, Esq. of Tivoli, County Waterford, to Anne, second daughter of William Dunne, Esq. of Ballymannus, in the Queen's County.

At Carrick-on-Suir, John Power, Esq. M. D. to the widow of the late Patrick Power, of Tindhalla, Esq.

At Dungarvan, Barton Anderson, Esq. to Catherine, only daughter of the late Maurice Kennedy, Esq.

At Tenby, Wales, Joseph Beasley, Esq. youngest son of the late Joseph R. Beaseley, Esq. of Ardmayle, in the County Tipperary, to Henrietta Maria, daughter of Henry Ellis Boates, Esq. and niece to the late Lord Kenyon.

At Calcutta, John Dempster, Esq. M. D. of his Majesty's 38th Regiment, to Agnes, fourth daughter of the late A. Colquhoun, Esq.

In London, J. McClelland, Esq. to Julia Anna, daughter of Thomas Curtayne, of Woodville, Killarney, Esq.

Charles Lennox Grenville Berkeley, Esq. to Augusta
Elizabeth, daughter of the late James Henry Leigh, Esq.
of Stoneleigh Abbey, in the county of Warwick.

DEATHS.

At the Castle Barracks, on Wednesday, M. Liberali,
Master of the Band of the 32d Regiment.

At his father's house, in Bridge-street, Mr. Daniel Egan.—A young man of good character.

At Parsonstown, in the 12th year of her age, Sarah Rachel, second daughter of the late Rev. Geo. St. George, of Tully, in the County Roscommon—a child possessed of the most engaging and interesting manners. She bore a lingering illness with the greatest patience and resignation—she has left a widowed mother to lament the loss of a dutiful and affectionate child.

In Killarney, Freeman Donoghue, Esq. formerly an eminent wine-merchant in Dublin.

Sir James Stewart, Bart. of Fort Stewart, in the county of Donegal, aged 72.

At Clonfert House, County Galway, aged 82, Susan, wife of the Lord Bishop of Clonfert.

In Paradise-row, Dublin, Mrs Hauxford, wife of Francis Hauxford, Esq.

At Rathmines, Joseph Coghlan, Esq. of Thomas-street, Dublin—and Luke Healy, Esq. of Queen-street.

Aged 18 years, George, fourth son of George Drake, of Batterstown Lodge, County Meath, Esq.

At Portarlinton, Mary, relict of the late Captain Loftus, of Ashfield, in the Queen's County.

The Rev. Jerome Alley, of Drogheda, Rector of the Parishes of Beaulieu and Drumcar, County Louth.

At the Presentation Convent, Kellina, on the 18th inst.
Miss Maria O'Brien, daughter of the late Denis Thomas O'Brien, Esq. of Dublin.

At the Presentation Convent, Waterford, Mrs. Lydia Hearn, aged 52 years, 26 of which she passed in the Convent.

On the 17th instant, Mrs. Reid, relict of the late Andrew Reid, Esq. of Gloucester-street, Dublin.

The Rev. Leigh Richmond, Rector of Turvey, Bedfordshire, and only son of the late Henry Richmond, Esq.
M. D. formerly Fellow of Trinity College.

At Rothesay, Lieut. Charles Stuart, Royal Marines.

CHARITY.

Washing, Mangling, &c.

THE Public are respectfully informed, that a PATENT MANGLE upon a very superior principle, is fitted up in the House of Industry—where House-Keeper's Articles will be Washed, Bleached, and Mangled in the most careful and neat manner, under the superintendance of the House-keeper, MRS. ATKIN-SON, who will have the honor to receive such Families as are pleased to give this Institution a preference and delivered when finished.

Whereby pledge myself to be responsible for the safety

due delivery when finished.

WILLIAM BASSETT, Steward.
Limerick May 26 1827

Country Dealers will meet with eve-ment.

2/4

May

TAKE NOTICE

IN consequence of the advantages aff-Public, by Messrs. FERGUSON and ders' active exertions for the suppression and also with regard to the great redu-Trimnings, has excited many of the Tailo-to the following malicious extent, viz:—
Goods purchased at Messrs. FERGUSON'S

We now call on the Public, who, we will mark their disapprobation of so unjust by discountenancing those Tailors who mto come forward and support us, having cipal instruments in having so many advantages afforded; and if any Tailor re-Goods purchased at this Establishment, F-GUSON have this London Coat Builder, vertised.) connected with their Concern making they will be responsible, and w-ready to attend to their commands.

PRICE OF MAKING,

By this LONDON FASHIONER

AS FOLLOW:

Coat.....	10
Trowsers.....	3
Waistcoat.....	2

Messrs. FERGUSON have also arrivsplendid selection of best quality Wes-Cloths, of the newest shades; Cassimerdescription; newest London Waistcoa-Ducks; real India Nankeens, 7 yards lo-piece.—Trimnings at unprecedented low

An immense variety of HATS, of the have just arrived from London.

Military Orders particularly attended to 132 George's-Street, Limerick

Old Wines, Teas,

5, WILLIAM-STREET.

R. BODKIN

Has on sale in Bond and D-PRIME Port Vintage 1820, Fine O-ditto Teneriffe, and Cape Wines and Quarter Casks, which he will dis-moderate Prices, at the usual Credit.

His Vaults are extensively supplied
White Ports, Brown and Pale Sherries, Teneriffe, Sicily Madeira, and Cape Win-fine flavour, at his usual low prices.

All Wines delivered from his Vaults Genuine, and if not approved of on twill be refunded.

TEAS.—His Breakfast Teas which general satisfaction, he continues to sell to 5s. 4d. per lb. the latter being a go-Tea, he can recommend to Families w-economy in the purchase of an article consumption.

OLD MALT WHISKEY of exc-
Distillery strength, selling at a reduced

He is largely supplied with Raw and B-
Good Housekeepers' Lump, so low as 1l Steam ditto, 11s.

Dealers will find a decided advaning at his Concern.

THEATRE, CHARLOTTE

By permission of the Right Worshipful Mayor.

SECOND NIGHT OF THE ENG.
THE CELEBRATE

Of the Theatres Royal, Drury-Lane and
AND