Lord Nurbury's promotion as Viscount Glandyne, with remainder to his second son, having been announced, it may be observed that this elevation is not merely ". step in the Peerage," but in fact originates a new dig. nity in consequence of the particular remainder to his second son, the elder son being inheritor of the Barens of Norbury .- To reader this promotion, with such temainder, valid, there must be an insertion in the patent of three extinct Peer a certified by proper asthority. The Peerages so extined appear to be as follows :- Whitworth, Baron Whitworth (Earl Whitworth in England), ext. 1825; Carleton, Viscount Carleton, ext. 1826 ; Netterville, Viscount Netterville, ext. 1886. Two other Peerages have failed in the course of the present year, via :- The Earl of Ulster, (Duke of York,) 1827; Coute, Heron Castlecoote, 1827. So that ca the extinction of one Peerage, his Majesty will be ensbled to create a new dignity.

A Privy Council was held at the Castle of Dublin yesterday, at which his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant presided. The Council was convened, to take into consideration, the Memorial of certain Aldermen and Mem-bers of Common Council, against one of the Gentlemen who has been recently elected Sheriff. The Privy Council decided that the whole Election, not only for the Sne-riffs, but for the Lord Mayor is informal, it being necessary that the return should be made to the Privy Council, within ten days after the Election, and the return not having been made. There is therefore to be another Mandamus and new Election.

A Post Hall was held at the City Assembly-House yesterday, to take into consideration the proferred resignation of Alderman Harty. We understand that, the Board of Aldermen declined accepting it. There are a variety of causes assigned for the worthy Alderman's wish to resign the gown, but we have not any authentic information on the subject. Alderman Nugent, the Lord Mayor Elect, will decline serving this year, from supposed ill-treatment. Alderman Montgomery is next in rotation, and will also decline .-Alderman Hamilton, a gentlemen in his 80th year, is is a similar predicament. William H. Haseard, Esq., sits in Waterford, w

the melanchuly intelligence of the death of the Mast Noble Susan, Marchioness of Waterford, Relict of the late Henry De La Poer Beresford, second Marquess of Waterford and Premier Marquess of Ireland. Her Ladyship died at her London residence. Mansfield-street, Portland-place. Her age was forty-three. She was the only child, and heiress of George Carpenter, Earl of Tyrconnel, by the Hon. Miss Delaval, youngest daughter of the late John Hussey, Lord Delaval, of Ford-Castle, in the County Northumberland, whose large estates devolved on her about three years ago. Her virtues threw additional splendour upon her exalted station, her noble lineage, and her illustrious connections. It is not to be wondered at that her Ladyship, having lost an affectionate partner, her ablest son, and two smiable daughters, within the short space of a few months, should sink under the accumulated pressure of these domestic afflictions.
