

Commissioner Lloyd held a Court in Tralee charge of Insolvent Debtors, when twenty-four at up, twenty-two of whom were discharged, anded, one for nine and the other for seven ne of the two so remanded had committed a he other was imprisoned for a fine in a matter

Wife against Walsh—On Monday, a Jury called before A. J. Watson, and Richard Squ. Sheriffs of the City Limerick, to assess this cause, for defamation, the defendant red judgment to pass by default. The parties humble life—the plaintiff keeps a lodging-the defendant a spirit shop, in Denmark-street. last, the defendant came into the house of the ask for him, but being told by the wife he was she added, "will I not answer for him?" ant being somewhat in a passion, said, "no you sides some other extremely offensive and ds. It having come to the knowledge of the t such words were used to his wife, he called nation, and instead of receiving an apology, nt persisted in the same expression towards plaintiff, and said he could prove her impro-duct, as she had had several children before e with the plaintiff. This conduct so irritated that he insisted his wife should prove her he would not longer cohabit with her. In a er she got seriously ill, and was obliged to fant child, was attended by a physician and l for a length of time; ultimately, legal pro-re taken, and repeated calls were made to the o acknowledge his error, and to pay what costs ed in order to stop them, but he still stub-vered. The facts were clearly proved.

the good character of the plaintiff's wife fully when the Jury found a verdict of £20 damages ts. Agents for the Plaintiff, Messrs. Price for the Defendant, Mr. M. Carroll.

Sessions Court of Cork, on Monday, Messrs. une, William Noblett and John Prendergast, connected with the army, were tried for a riot e of that City, and assaulting Robert Rogers, able. They were found guilty—Fortune to ed four months and fined 3l.; Noblett and t three months each and fined 10l. James y and Frederick Collingwood, officers of the n Guards, were tried for assaulting David ngle-man; the former was acquitted and the twenty shillings.

at of Mr. Rogers of Belmont, was thrown ating-car near Bandon, on Saturday, and at a short time.—A lady and two children on ived no injury.

za transport ship, 530 tons burthen, is daily Cork; to take out 192 Male Convicts for Wales and Van Dieman's Land.

undred and twenty-six families enjoy the beneheritable Loan Fund, in Cork, which amounts

Wallace, Esq. K.C. is arrived in Dublin from antcashel presided at a meeting of the Church Society, in Fermoy, on Friday.

re no Military Promotions in the London Friday.

nesday, Lord Clanmorris's Snout won the kes, at the Curragh. Mr. Blake's Paladour ingham stakes of twenty sovereigns each, on and Mr Kelly's Miss Foot, the King's plate neat for six years old, four mile heats.

cers of the 1st Royals, quartered at Newbridge ndid entertainment in the Royal Saloon, at the e at the Curragh meeting, on Saturday.

Races will commence immediately after the eeting. Articles will appear in due time.—

Captain H. Massy, Knight of Glin, Major Joseph Gubbins, Esq. Kilfrush.

nthly Ball at Newport, on the 13th inst. pre-illiant assemblage of beauty and fashion.— the visitors at Castle-Connell contributed by nce to the gaiety of the evening, and the Sarah, daughter of the late John Welstead, Esq. of Ballywaller, both in the County Cork.

O: Wednesday last, by special license, by the Very Rev. Dean Stacpoole, at the Cathedral Church of Kilfe-nora, Mathias Stacpoole, Esq. of Moymore-House, in the County Clare, to Louisa Mary, daughter of Captain John Michael M'Namara, (of the Royal Marines,) of Rocklodge, in said County.

In Dublin, Charles Cumbie, Esq. of Brookfield, in the County Tipperary, to Jane, daughter of the late Fownes Disney, of Harcourt-street, Esq.

Mr. Thomas Lawrence Behan, to Amelia, relict of the late James Faulkner, of Nenagh.

At Enlissad Church, Thomas James Galloway, Esq.
Lieutenant and Adjutant of the Depot of the 33d Foot, to Eliza, daughter of the Rev. John Garrett, of Enlissad Glébe, in the County of Sligo.

On the 27th of March, in Carraccas, by Sir Robert Ker Porter, his Britannic Majesty's Consul, Dr. Thomas Cox, of London, to Mary Elizabeth, daughter of William Ackers, of London, Esq.

DEATHS.

On Monday last, in Thomas-street, after a few hours illness, Mrs. Marshall, wife of Samuel Marshall, Esq. of Timoline, in this County; a lady universally lamented.

On Saturday evening, at his lodgings in George's-street, John Robert Leigh, Esq. eldest son of Francis Leigh, of Rosegarland, County Wexford, Esq.

On Thursday last, in Rutland-street, Dublin, much regretted, Catherine, widow of the late William Creed, of Ballygrennan Castle, in this County, Esq. Her remains passed through here yesterday for interment in the family vault at Bruff.

On Saturday last, at Harcourt-street, Dublin, of fever, daughter of the Right Rev. Dr. Brinkley, Lord Bishop of Cloyne.

A few days since, in Ballinasloe, of fever, John Glynn, Esq.; and soon afterwards his son, Francis Glynn, Esq.
In Cork, Eleanor, relict of the late Charles M'Carthy, of Lakeview, in the Liberties of that City, Esq.

At the Dominican Convent, Cork, the Rev. M. Lane, a member of that Order for half a century.

Richard Williams, of Stephen's-Green, Dublin, Esq.
Lieut. Blayne Winslow, Fermanagh Militia.

On the Mardyke, Cork, Robert Johnson, jun. Esq.
At Toulouse, Julianne, only child of the late William Percival, Esq. Ballytramont, County Wexford, Esq.

In Kenmare, the wife of Mr John Mahony, apothecary.
In North Great George's-street, Dublin, Mrs Darley, relict of the late Rev. H. Darley.

At Buttevant Castle, Lieutenant J. H. Wolseley, R. N. aged 30 years, son of Admiral Wolseley, of Rostrevor, in the County of Down.

Mr. J. Greenwood, of the Plough Hotel Cheltenham.
At Bow, Middlesex, Captain Richard Vaughan.

The Rev. John Stoddart, for more than thirty years Head Master of the Grammar School, and Curate of All Saints and Abingdon, Northamptonshire.

At Nant, near Caermarthen, the Rev. John Jones, Vicar of Llangunmor.

Wallace, Esq. K.C. is arrived in Dublin from

In the Matter of
RICHARD JOHNSON,
an Insolvent.

Quinlan, of Shannon-street in this City, has been appointed Assignee of the said Insolvent, and they are hereby required to pay in to the said Assignee all Rents now due and to grow due out of their Holdings from said Insolvent; and also such sums as are due of them to him, to prevent proceedings at Law being taken.

Limerick, June 20, 1827.

IN consequence of the underneath answer being returned to me unopened, I take this opportunity of informing the party concerned of the value I set upon their notice:—

TO TOM KERR AND FRANK EVANS.

A notice signed by the above and dated the 27th of March, 1827, calls upon me to permit Surveyors to ascertain the quantity of land occupied by me, the object

THE Annual Meeting of the ST. JOHN'S FEVER and L will be held at the Limerick Bri Rooms, at 12 o'clock, on MONDA to elect Two Physicians, and one Su year, at the same salary as last year. at One and close at Three. Any li less than the names of two Physicia will be void.

The Medical applications to be m on or before the 20th Instant.

HUGHES RUS
June 2

PUBLIC TH Ballyanny,

JAMES MEAGHER returns thanks for the miraculous escap of last month, at which time he ap an attempt to be made on his hou legislators; from the great noise his d Steward went out with a loaded blu with the former. The person or p went off in a straight direction from of the dogs went in that direction most violently barking, in which di blunderbuss at the time it burst, fra and injured the Steward materially.
M'Keogh and Surgeon Silcock were tation took place wherein he was dep and part of the arm, during which ti groan or sigh—this forbearance he himself, but to the great skill an M'Keogh and Surgeon Silcock—to most grateful thanks for their atten mencement to the present moment perfectly recovered, thanks be to remembrance he returns thanks to a ticularly to the Rev. John Harly, P. in administering the rights of his C Thomas Hawkshaw, Sector of the and for his friendly visits and Chri and Mrs. Hawkshaw for her kind Gason, for his kind feeling and frien at foot; to Mrs. Gason, for her kin Wolfe, for her kind favour and frien Arthur Wolfe, for his frequent vi quently ventured his life on cold wading across the river, to Joshua kind visit and great anxiety; to Mount Pleasant, for his kind enquir ford, Esq. for his friendly visit an Feltham Watson, Esq. for his freque and friendly offers; to Mr. and Mr friendly visits and kind feelings; to in Nenagh and the surrounding nei kind visits, great anxiety, kind of hope they will excuse me in not par it would occupy the greater part of t To my good friends in Dublin an friendly letters, great anxiety and Nugent, for her kind favours and fri good friend, Thomas Nugent, Esq. his kind offer, to see any thing tha done for me, and his money if any me, though last not least, with grate pressed on my heart. I hope I wil my friends meeting with such a mel if they should I would recommend Gentlemen to their notice, if the p reasonable distance of Nenagh; a amputation that took place, I have at the end of the bone which preve which I understand is frequently a the stump, in the absence of flesh Medical Gentlemen call it.)

During the amputation Dr. M' felt any pain—I replied no, nor wil are cutting the marrow; at the time be cut through, which is a proof th performed with great ability.