this year, and another to come into office at Michaelmas next.

There were 466 destitute creatures in Waterford Mendicant Asylum, on Tuesday.—The funds of the Institution totally exhausted, and the stock of provisions only sufficient to last until Sunday.

At a general meeting of the Governors of the Cork House of Industry, on Tuesday, it was resolved to appoint Protestant and Catholic Schoolmasters and Mistresses, to superintend the respective schools in that institution.

The very best Black Tea is now selling throughout Dublin for 6s. 8d. the pound, and superior Green Tea for 7s. 6d., while, in other parts of Ireland, the vendors persist in demanding an unwarrantable price for the same commodity.

tural parent.

An inquest was held in Cork, on Monday and Tuesday, on the body of Margaret Graham, a midwife, who, in an angry quarrel with her husband, was thrown from a considerable height into the street, by which her skull was extensively fractured, and death ensued. A verdict was returned which implicates the husband.

On Monday, a tailor, of the name of Roche, from Armagh, was drowned, while bathing in the Lagan; and, on Tuesday, a man, named John Donaldson, put an end to his existence, near Carrickfergus, by means of suspension.

DR. SINGER.—Some matter-of-fact people, we find, draw the inference from a statement, relative to this Rev.
Gentleman, which appeared lately in this Paper, that he has absolutely and altogether gone over to the Mother Church. This conclusion, we are authorised to state, is quite erroneous. The Rev. Dr. was induced, by mere curiosity, to visit the sacred edifice alluded to; and it did not happen, at the period of the visitation, that any service was going forward—Dublin Register.

SATURDAY, JUNE 30.

On Thursday, the Mayor held an inquest, at the County Infirmity, on the body of Philip Guerin, who received a blow of a stone, at the fair of Ballyvreeny; from Michael O'Donnell, his brother-in-law. A verdict of wilful murder was returned against O'Donnell, who has absconded.

The horses entered at Killarney races, for the Kenmare

The following article has been sent us for ins-by the Rev. Mr. Coll:—

“ On Sunday, the 17th of this Month, a most af-scene was witnessed in the Chapel of Newcastle, West of this County. Patrick Meehan, a very poor who, some weeks before, had conformed to the Estab-Religion, in the Parish Church of that Town, ap-at the Altar, in presence of a large congregation, ing the Very Rev. Mr. Coll, P. P., who was then Mass, to receive him into the Catholic Church, he said, he was sincerely sorry ever to have left Coll charged him, in the most solemn manner, the real motives which induced him to renounce gion; he declared he did so in a fit of passion, pro-by poverty and disappointment, and to receive support after he would have read his recantation. asked by Mr. Coll, if he expected any temporal whatsoever for returning to the Church which he de-his reply was, “ no, Sir; I expect nothing in the Church but the grace of God.” The Amateurs of ecelytism might learn a very profitable lesson from simple and incontrovertible fact.”
