DEATHS.

On Thursday evening, in Ennis, Jonas Studdert, Esq. one of the senior Magistrates of the County Clare.—A Gentleman universally esteemed, and whose death is a source of unaffected grief to his respectable family and friends.

In William-street, Dublin, Mr. William Hull, many years one of the principal Clerks in the Imprest Office.

At Peasfield, Queen's County, Mrs. Pepper, relict of the late John Pepper, of Newry, Esq.

At Ballybunion-House, aged 20 years, Frances, eldest daughter of Samuel Hilliard, Esq.

At Newmarket, Co. Cork, on Saturday, Mary, wife of Richard Smith, Esq.

At Clonwalsh, Mrs. Margaret Cantwell, sister of the Rev. Dr. Phelar, of Tramore, cousin of the late Bishop Power, of Waterford, and mother of the Rev. N. Cantwell, C. C. of Stradbally.

At Maghera, County Derry, Mrs. McCullough, sister to John Graham, Esq. of Magherafeldt, and mother of Dr. David G. McCullough, late of the 64th Regiment.

In Cork, Mr. Jeremiah Connell, Printer.

Suddenly, at his seat, Granah, in this County, Thomas Lynch, Esq. In every relationship of life, whether as a father, a husband, or a Christian, this respectable Gentleman shone truly conspicuous. Extensively connected with society by property and business, he was upright, honourable and just; the unaffected grief that was manifested by the sorrowing multitude that paid the last sad tribute to his memory, in accompanying him to the grave, abundantly attests how deeply his loss was felt—and long will his memory be cherished by the poor of his parish, whose sorrows he always sympathised with, and whose privations he so often relieved.

At his seat, Woodbridge Abbey, Rear-Admiral Wm. Carthew, many years a Deputy Lieutenant and a Magistrate of the County Suffolk.

The Rev. Doctor Duncan, principal Clerk to the General Assembly of the Kirk of Scotland.

At Kensington, William Brace Alexander, aged 23, years, a Cornet in the 14th Regiment of Light Dragoons.

Sigismond Trafford Southwell, Esq. of Wroxham-Hall, Norfolk.
