

... in this City, paid off 740 the last quarter. The Collector 23d, and Kilrush the 24th inst.
 plains of the great inconvenience retired veterans have been from various parts of the country, to be paid in the Metropolis, ere all paid at the Post-Towns, ourboods. In this City the case ee, although every facility was ment: but where one office a multitude of clamorous ion are the inevitable result.
 work of a day was, in this week.

late Commissioner of Stamps, after 36 years' service.
 b, Colonel O'Brien, President, Ennis, on the 23d instant.
 Ormsby Vandeleur and family d-House, Killaloe, on a visit to son, Esq. M. P. has arrived on castle, the seat of Viscount Gort. another horrid murder was com-perary. The unfortunate of Flood, who was waylaid on and barbarously murdered within ouse, by an armed party. The utable to the circumstance of his of land, so far back as five years vibly disfigured by the assassins.

 received in town of the apprehen-sers of Daniel Mara.

rick Keefe have been committed rder of James Roche of Castleentally drowned, on Wednesday.

ution has offered £100 Irish for n Natural Philosophy—to conession from the plate represent-Captain Kendal, of the France known to the Public; the style compartment chaste and beautiful.

 The representation of the ruffe-admirably executed. The view distance, seen thro' the vista of sublime effect, as she is steering towards the wreck—Mrs. Kendal eventeen persons then on board er only solace now is in the symlic. The proof prints will be subscribers at her father's house.
 Thomas-street, in a few days.
 he provision contract allotted to M'Sweeny, of Cork.

le of beer, spirits, and wine, by 10th of October instant, and by th George IV. chapter 81 sect. y on any person carrying on the license.

has been received by several this City. There is no doubt able to inform you of something to your advantage, on receipt of trouble.

" Respectfully,
 " JOSEPH ADY
 " 16, Hound's ditch, London.
 ived unless paid for.
 . Heygate, Esq. Alderman, late &c. M. P."

found straying near this City; by paying expenses, on applica-

In North Great George's-street, Dublin, the Lady of Edward Litton, Esq. of a daughter.
 At Newry, the Lady of the Rev. Fortescue Gorman, a daughter.
 At Ballintemple, County Cork, the Lady of Daniel Lombard, Esq. of a son.

DEATHS.
 On Wednesday, at Mallow, to the deep lament of his family and friends, William Heffernan, Esq. late of Dominick-street, in this City.
 At Parsonstown, in the eighth year of her age, of water in the brain, to the great grief of her afflicted mother and family, Anne, fourth daughter of the late Rev. George George, of Tully, in the County Roscommon.
 On Monday evening last, on the South-Mall, Cork, Edward Fuller, Esq. Captain in the Kerry Militia, and youngest son of Thomas Fuller, Esq. formerly Treasurer of the County of Cork. Mr. Fuller had only arrived in Cork from the country in the afternoon of that day.
 In Dublin, Lady O'Malley, wife of Sir Samuel O'Malley, Bart, of Rose-hill and Kilboyne, in the county of Mayo.
 In Baggot-street, Dublin, Mrs. A. Dowse, relict of the late Richard Dowse, of Cain, County of Wexford, daughter of the late Charles Coates, Esq. of the County of Wicklow.
 At Phihsborough, near Dublin, John George Con-nellan, Esq. eldest son of the late George Connellan, Esq. of the County Galway.
 Suddenly, in Back-street, Galway, John Burke, Esq.
 At Armagh, in his nineteenth year, John Crossle Armstrong, the second son of Mr. Armstrong, Civil Engineer.
 At Mount-Anneville, Roebuck, Eliza, wife of Thomas Sherlock, Esq.
 In Dublin, John Ashmore, late of Belfast, Esq.
 On Monday, at Hawthorn, near Mallow, the residence of her uncle, Doctor Reidley, at the early age of 38, Miss Dowers, sincerely lamented by all who knew her.
 In James's-street, Dublin, Mary, wife of Samuel Hely, Esq.
 In Lower Sackville-street, Dublin, Mrs. Anastasia Kelly, relict of the late Mr. Martin Kelly.
 The Rev. Joseph Reilly, R. C. Curate of Trim.
 In Holles-street, Dublin, Thomas S. Whitney, Esq. of Newpass, in the County of Westmeath.
 In Bath-street, Cheltenham, Philip Justice, Esq. late of Bath, and of Market Drayton, Salop.
 At Vertos, in France, Francis MacCabe, Esq. Surgeon.
 At Pine Cottage, Cheltenham, suddenly, the Rev.
 Wilson Macklin.
 In Queen-square, Bloomsbury, S. Collingridge, Esq. one of the joint Secondaries of the City of London.
 In Dublin, the infant son of the Rev. Doctor El-ington.
 At Merton, near Cove, of a violent fever, Row. R.
 Morrison, eldest son of Rob. Morrison, Esq.
 In London, Lady Elizabeth Turnour, fourth daughter of the Earl of Winterton.
 At Harlow, Essex, A. Parkin, Esq. who for fifty years held the office of Solicitor to his Majesty's Post-office.
 In Bandon, Miss Marshall.
 At Edinburgh, Elizabeth, widow of Captain David Thomson, of the East India Service.
 At Corfu, in the 18th year of his age, George, eldest son of Lieut.-Colonel Crawford, Royal Artillery.
 At Lisbon, on the 7th Sept. William Dwyer, Esq. son to William Dwyer, Esq. late of Dublin.
 Lieut. Christophy Austin, Royal Navy, late Commander of his Majesty's colonial steam-vessel, African,
 on the coast of Africa.
 At Poonah, Mrs. Agnes Campbell, relict of the late Lieutenant Mellis, 24th Foot.
 At Woodside, near Elgin, in his 52d year, Lieutenant Colonel Alexander Grant, of the Royal African Colonial Corps,

CAUTION.
 I HEREBY CAUTION the Public not my WIFE, MARY KENNEDY, alias BRUNN am determined not to pay any Debts she may after this Notice. Dated at Ballyva, Barony and Arra, near Killaloe, October 13, 1827.
 PAT. KENNEDY

Apothecary's Hall
 MR. THOMAS WOODS, of Banagher King's County, having been this day in Pharmacy, Pharmaceutical Chemistry, and Medica, obtained a Certificate to commence sion of an Apothecary.
 By Order,
 JOHN NICHOLL
 Dublin, Mar-street, 28th Sept. 1827
 The above Mr. Woods being at present would accept of a Situation in a Respectable ment.—Any Letters addressed to him meet with every possible attention.
 Banagher, 10th October

THE BUBBLE BUR
 IT is now some time since the Public were le mighty and manifold advantages from the Woollen Drapers, of this City, adopting a of transacting business, in which they were others not deserving even contemptuous notice, th most fortunately, discovered that the old ou riance with every principle of honour, as well dictates of a tender conscience. It is not while to inquire how, or when, or where thi beamed upon their (till then) benighted unde but it is worth while to remember, that in les Months they found it requisite, publicly, to u line of conduct agreed upon, and sworn to and return to the old system, WITH ALL ITS IMP If the old and long known mode was in strict with every principle of fair dealing, why wish and if, on the other hand, it be that tissue o dishonest and disreputable, why now return will answer—because they found, when too lat ple had discernment enough to see thro' the which the designing part of those who joined sure, strove to conceal their real purposes, combined for the destruction of that first Fair Trade, namely, HONEST, MANLY TITION. Many were the causes assign abandonment of the Bubble System; some owing to the great increase of Sales, conse their adoption of it, they feared they would time, be in the situation of him, who tre believed "there was great danger in riches," gave vent to their angry feelings, by indigna heroically despising that Public, who could their own interests, as to go in crowds to the
 of THE ONLY MAN IN LIMERICK firmness sufficient to refuse his signature ment, which had for its object the injury portion of respectable Fellow-citizens, for t few.

The Subscriber takes this opportunity to Friends of his return from England, and him of part of his Stock consisting of Thirty Bales of Wool
AND SIX CASES OF HA
 Which he will Sell at such Prices, as enable hi opposition.
JOHN HAN
 6, Charlotte's-qu
 Limerick, October 6.